Château Lafite Rothschild 1999

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
twelve bottom neck or better; one lightly corroded capsule partially exposes cork, multiple importers
 12 bottles US$5,000-7,500

Château Lafite Rothschild 2018

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
3-pack original wood case
 "A very compact and linear Lafite with a fantastic mouthfeel of intense but ever so refined tannins that draw a straight line through the middle of the wine. It's full-bodied yet compact with complex character of plums, blackcurrants, cigar tobacco, cedar and hints of hazelnuts and coffee. Salty. Orange zest at the end. Delicacy with power. Richness with softness. Glamorous. Lasts for minutes at the finish...99-100." JS 4/19.
 3 bottles US$1,200-1,900

Château Lafite Rothschild 2019

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
 "Complex aromas of blackcurrants and lead pencil.
 Incredible. Graphite and tar. Stunning. It's full-bodied, yet shows such harmony and polish. Elegance and complexity with finesse. The tannins are so integrated and endless. It goes on for minutes...99-100." JS 5/20.

Château Angelus 2016

St Emilion, Premier Grand Cru Classé (a)
6-pack original wood case
 "The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, crisp acidity, symmetrical in terms of focus with just the right amount of sappiness on the saline finish. It is a superb Château Angelus from the de Bouard family, destined to give pleasure over many, many years...96-98." WA 4/17.
 6 bottles US$1,300-1,900

Château Cos D'Estournel 2016

 "Love tasting this wine. You almost want to drink it for its harmony and balance. Full-bodied and so complete with cloves, spices, dark berries and hints of chocolate.
 Wonderful integration on the finish...97-98." JS 4/18.

St Estèphe, Deuxième Cru Classé
Lot 14: one 6-pack original wood case, four lightly
scuffed labels
Lot 15: two 6-pack original wood cases
 "A very powerful and structured Cos. It's full and layered, but not overpowering in terms of fruit. It's more about the abundant, very fine tannins. It's a classic wine with historical grip and power. Real Bordeaux. Sophisticated and provocative...98-99." JS 5/20.

 "...crushed blackcurrants, black cherries, dark chocolate and candied violets with nuances of crushed rocks, tobacco leaf, forest floor and fragrant earth plus a hint of bergamot. Medium-bodied and exquisitely elegant, the palate offers perfectly ripe, fine-grained tannins and tons of freshness with layer upon layer of perfumed fruit and a very long, ferrous-laced finish...98+." WA 11/18.

Bordeaux Cases & Caseloads

from a Longtime Client and Collector

LOTS 114-143

The name says it all. This consignment features case after case of excellent Bordeaux from a longtime friend of the firm. There are caseloads of every First Growth from the lauded 1990 vintage on offer here. Other highlights include 1989 Haut-Brion and La Mission Haut-Brion, 1982 Lafite and Pichon Lalande, plus Lynch-Bages, Cos d'Estournel, Cheval Blanc, Montrose and more with many in their original wooden cases!

All of the wines were stored in the client's temperature-controlled home cellar before shipping, under temperature-control of course, to Zachys for sale. Bid with confidence!

Rare Wine from

A New York Cellar

LOTS 281-678

This truly phenomenal cellar comes to us from a temperature-controlled facility in the heart of Manhattan. The collector is a longtime friend of Zachys, and a lifelong wine enthusiast. The offering you see here is simply a bit of cellar pruning and leaves the owner with plenty of bottles to enjoy. Almost all of the wines were bought on release through distribution channels and have been in the same cellar since purchase. The chain of provenance is immaculate, and so are the wines!

1985 GIACOSA (LOT 789)

1985 is a notable vintage for Barolo and considered one of the best of the 20th century. Giacosa made a single-vineyard Barolo from Villero from 1978 to 1996, and Villero is considered one of the best non-reserve wines from the portfolio. This wine was stored with Zachys professional storage until this sale.

TREASURES FROM A DISCERNING COLLECTOR (LOTS 811-840)

The wines in this consignment were amassed by a generous and beloved wine collector whose strong relationships with members of the trade afforded him exposure to a broad range of quality wines from around the world as well as access to some of the rarest wines on the planet. While the offering culminates in an eye-grabbing vertical of Leflaive Montrachet spanning 1999-2004 and opening Day 2 of our live sale, there are countless treasures embedded in this eclectic assortment. From the great Puffeney wines of the Jura, to aged selections from the Rhône including Bernard Faurie, Rayas and Clape, to the brilliant wines of Barbeito and d'Oliveras dating back to 1863 and more—there are delicacies here for all wine lovers and those with a discerning eye will be most rewarded. The wines have been impeccably stored and sourced, both in a purpose-built home cellar and professionally—happy bidding!

COLLECTION

LOTS 841-1214 & 1256-1882

Perhaps one of the greatest large-format offerings, the following pages consist of over fifty lots of Imperials and more than three hundred and fifty lots of larger formats from magnums to Melchior (18L). This legendary collector has been sourcing meticulously for over five decades and in that time has developed relationships with wholesalers, importers and producers directly, ensuring exceptional provenance throughout his extensive collection.

Highlights from Bordeaux's most storied Châteaux and vintages include three Imperials of 2005 Petrus, 1982 and 2000 Mouton Rothschild, 2005 Lafleur, 1982 La Mission Haut-Brion, 1989 Palmer, and 1990 d'Yquem, among others.
And that's just the Bordeaux.

The Burgundies stand out even more. The cellar holds several Methuselahs from top producers, some the only examples of their kind: a 1995 and a 2009 Clos de la Roche from Domaine Dujac, each the sole Methuselah of that wine known to exist, plus a 2009 Echézeaux from Dujac, also one of one. Alongside these are 1990 and 1999 DRC Romanée-Saint-Vivant and a 1993 DRC La Tâche, all in Methuselah.

Beyond the large formats, the Burgundy selection runs deep: about forty lots of Mugnier, over sixty of Rousseau, nearly eighty of Dujac, and close to a hundred combined from Georges and Christophe Roumier, plus substantial holdings of Raveneau, Leroy, Ponsot, Mugneret-Gibourg, P.Y.C.M., Bouchard, Ramonet, Leflaive, and Vogüé, among others. Many of these are in Magnum and Jeroboam as well as standard bottlings.

California is represented too, including a bottle each of the 1973 Stag's Leap Wine Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon and 1973 Château Montelena Chardonnay offered together in a custom box celebrating the 50th anniversary of the legendary Judgement of Paris. There is also a 1978 Diamond Creek Lake Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon and six bottles of 1992 Sine Qua Non Haven Cellars Black and Blue in original wooden case. Other notable bottles include 1996 Salon, 1985 Krug in Magnum, 2008 Krug by the case, a full set of the original "La La's," and 1962 Vega Sicilia, among others.

The collector has been buying for decades much of it purchased on release directly from distributors, and has kept the wines either in professional storage or under temperature- and humidity-controlled conditions at home. Bottles sampled by the Zachys team have shown well, consistent with that care.

Château Latour 2005

individual original wood case*

"...ultrafine tannins and a beautiful balance of blackberry, raspberry and mineral. There's subtlety, yet also great depth. Lasts for minutes on the palate. This is a Latour with fabulous tone and vigor. Best after 2018...99." WS 3/18.

949 1 imperial (6L) US$5,000-7,500

Château Latour 2009

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
6-pack original wood case*

released from the cellar of Château Latour in 2020
"...Full, concentrated and powerful in the mouth, it has a rock-solid frame of super ripe, grainy tannins and fantastic freshness, finishing very long and wonderfully minerally. Just a baby—this needs time!..100." WA 3/19.

950 6 bottles US$4,000-6,000

Château Latour 2010

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
3-pack original wood case*

released from the cellar of Château Latour in 2013
"...powerful, muscular, not even getting close to being ready...black pepper spice, pencil lead, slate and compressed earth, along with cassis, bilberry and all the tight compact dark-berried fruits you can think of...a monumental Latour and a flashing signpost for how good this vintage is in Pauillac...100." "A very classic Yquem. Breathtakingly wide spectrum of floral honey, exotic fruit (passion fruit, mango and pineapple), caramel and marzipan aromas. But none of this is a jot too much. In fact, the wine is extremely precise and finely nuanced. Wonderful freshness and textural complexity, in spite of the considerable concentration and extravagance. Very suave and sensual finish that goes on and on...99." JS 2/19.

"The 2017 Clos Saint-Denis Grand Cru is more expressive aromatically than the Clos de la Roche at the moment. The terroir is slightly better articulated, notes of crushed stone perfectly infusing the red berry fruit. The palate is precise and focused, almost symmetrical in style, and very expressive. The long, gorgeous, almost tart finish belies the structure of this Grand Cru. Superb...94-96." VM 11/18.

THE SMITHSONIAN COMMEMORATES THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE "JUDGMENT OF PARIS" AND THE NATION'S 250TH BIRTHDAY

The Smithsonian's National Museum of American History commemorated the 50th anniversary of the famous 1976 "Judgment of Paris" wine tasting competition and the nation's 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence with the eighth annual Smithsonian Winemakers' Dinner April 14. This year's signature event, "The Judgment of Paris: There's more to the story..." brought together visionary vintners, culinary leaders and supporters of the museum to celebrate the intertwined histories of American wine, food and democracy.

Held in Paris May 24, 1976, the "Judgment of Paris" was a formal blind tasting of red and white wines that pitted the best of the new California wines against the best of Bordeaux and Burgundy. When the scores were tallied, the 1973 Chateau Montelena Chardonnay and the 1973 Stag's Leap Wine Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon placed first in their respective categories, ahead of the French wines, upending long-held assumptions about who could make premium wine. The outcome brought international acclaim to the winemakers, their wineries and Napa Valley. It is widely regarded as pivotal to the rebirth of American winegrowing and winemaking.

The story of the tasting in Paris and original bottles of the winning wines are on permanent view in the museum's exhibition, "FOOD: Transforming the American Table." Photos inset below from the exhibit.

"...supple and multidimensional, with a deep core of ripe fruit, rich tannins and an intense, sapid finish. This is a classic expression of Ponsot's singular, late-picked style, and it should make for decadent, dramatic drinking after a decade or so in the cellar...96." WA 4/18.

Richebourg Vieux Cepages Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 1934

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru

2cm, scuffed, lightly torn, and damp-stained label, damp-stained and chipped wax capsule

"Kaleidoscopic doesn't begin to describe just how broad-ranging it was with a variety of dried floral scents, Asian-style tea and spice elements, sous-bois and just a trace of volatile acidity. The density of the suave and velvety flavors is almost difficult to convey as they're dense but they dense with a certain textured quality that the best wines made from pre-phyloxera wines almost always display. Indeed this is so rich and sappy that the incredibly long finish flirts with heaviness yet there is just enough supporting acidity to save the balance...98." BH 09/16.

Musigny Vieilles Vignes Comte Georges de Vogüé 2015

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru
two 3-pack original wood cases

"...fantastically good length on the youthfully austere, backward and immaculately well-balanced finale. This too is going to require a very long snooze in a very cool cellar but it should be a remarkable Musigny when it emerges...95-98." BH 1/17.

1676 6 magnums (1.5L) US$6,000-9,000

Musigny Vieilles Vignes Comte Georges de Vogüé 2017

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru
3-pack original wood case

"The 2017 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru is complex and well defined on the nose, where touches of iodine and wild heather infuse the black fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with a slightly grainy texture; notes of black truffle and fresh fig complement a fruit profile that welcomes more red fruit toward the finish. Hints of white pepper and sage linger on the aftertaste...95." VM 1/20.
