THE ARIA COLLECTION

A Tremendous Offering of Impeccably-Sourced Burgundy

Hart Davis Hart is thrilled to bring to auction The Aria Collection. The opera lover and Burgundy enthusiast behind this cellar is a longtime collector and repeat consignor who, as the lots which follow will attest, sets sights upon his favorite producers and goes all-in. Unusually for Burgundy, many of these wines are offered in six- or twelve-bottle quantities. The vast majority of the collection was acquired on release and has never transferred ownership; provenance is beyond reproach. The collection is housed in both a purpose-built residential cellar and commercial storage.

A noteworthy cast of Burgundy producers takes the stage in the selection presented here, with deep concentrations of Denis Bachelet, Olivier Bernstein, Domaine Bizot, Bonneau du Martray, Sylvain Cathiard, Vincent Dancer, Comtes Lafon, Domaine des Lambrays, Domaine Leroy, Méo-Camuzet, JF Mugnier, Georges Roumier, Cécile Tremblay, and Comte Georges de Vogüé. The star of the show, though, may be the stunning parcel of Domaine Raveneau: dating back to 1985, over 300 bottles are available, including twelve-bottle cases of Chablis, Les Clos from 2006 and 2007.

Lingering among the white Burgundies for a moment, other highlights include a full dozen of Vincent Dancer's Chevalier-Montrachet from 2008; six bottles of 2014 Meursault, Les Perrières, Comtes Lafon; three bottles of 2018 Montrachet, Jean-Claude Ramonet; and nine bottles of 1999 Meursault, Les Perrières, Maison Leroy.

Eight vintages of Denis Bachelet's Charmes-Chambertin, Vieilles-Vignes are on offer, all in case quantity and include the stunning 2010. Sylvain Cathiard crescendos with twelve bottles each of the 2015 and 2016 Vosne-Romanée, Malconsorts. Three bottles of 2012 Musigny, Domaine Leroy are available, as are two six-packs of 2010 Musigny, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier and three six-packs of Mugnier's 2015. An astounding 282 bottles of Cécile Tremblay range from 2004 through 2015, highlighted by dozens of 2005 Chapelle-Chambertin and 2010 Echézeaux, du Dessus.

The collection is rounded out by selections from the Rhône Valley and Champagne. An impressive vertical of Jean-Louis Chave's Hermitage spans 2003-2016 in addition to Cuvée Cathelin 2003 and 2009. Irresistible Krug includes 1985 and 1988, and coveted Salon is here in vintages 1996, 2002 and 2004.

The rarity of this opportunity to acquire these extraordinary wines from back vintages, in serious quantities, and with optimal provenance cannot be overstated. Bid accordingly.

THE CHITTENDEN CELLAR

Hart Davis Hart is delighted to present wines from The Chittenden Cellar. This avid enthusiast is a longtime client and friend of HDH, who after years of eager bidding and cellar-building has decided to pare down his holdings. Rest assured that he is left with a massive cellar to enjoy and continues to purchase regularly!

The offering in this December auction features pristine selections of Bordeaux, Burgundy, Italian and Californian rarities largely centered on vintages 2015 through 2019. The depth of Burgundy is particularly exciting, with a wide range of important producers such as Dauvissat, Raveneau, Roulot, Anne Gros, Cécile Tremblay, Denis Mortet, Clos de Tart, Dujac, Lafarge and Groffier. Italophiles will delight in choice bottlings from the finest winemakers in Piedmont and Tuscany, including Aldo Conterno, Cappellano, Canonica, Gaja (mostly in magnum!), Ornellaia, Roagna and Stella di Campalto. A total of 24 bottles of Soldera Case Basse's 2016 Toscana IGP demand to be mentioned—Soldera in such quantity is exceedingly rare. Rounding out this group are tidy case quantities of Bordeaux from the 2016 and 2019 vintages as well as a choice selection of California Cabernet from Dalla Valle, Diamond Creek, Harlan and Hundred Acre.

The wines offered in this auction were removed from one of several commercial storage facilities used to house The Chittenden Cellar and transported to HDH's Delaware warehouse via temperature-controlled truck. Share the enthusiasm of this collector and bid with confidence!

A FURTHER SELECTION FROM A PREEMINENT AMERICAN COLLECTOR

Hart Davis Hart is honored to offer a further selection of wines from one of the country's great cellars. As we have written before, this is a collector with focus and persistence. Maintaining a very sizable cache of top producers, the owner continues to build and curate the collection but has decided to once again edit a portion to eliminate duplicates and clear space for future purchases. Collectors worldwide will want a part of this historic cellar featuring some of the very best wines from around the globe. Red Burgundy is clearly the focus with stupendous offerings from DRC, Dujac, Gros, Hudelot-Noëllat, Mugneret-Gibourg, Rousseau and more. These wines were sourced from merchants and auctions, always with extreme care for provenance, condition, and shipping. This collection is housed in a custom-built cellar that sits deep underground with fault-tolerant, water-cooled units providing the refrigeration and a backup generator always at the ready. The wines were recently removed and shipped to our Delaware warehouse via a dedicated temperature-controlled truck. This is the cellar that every collector dreams about!

FINE FRENCH WINES OF A HIGHLY DISTINGUISHED COLLECTOR

A longtime friend of HDH and passionate collector compiled the following selection of rare gems, which focuses on finest Bordeaux and Burgundy from the 1980s, 1990s and early 2000s. Highlights include 1990 Latour, 1983 Palmer, six vintages of La Tâche, 1989 Echézeaux Dujac, and six pristine bottles of 1999 Musigny Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier. The mixed lots in this group should not be overlooked—arrays from Bordeaux vintages 1961 and 1982, d'Yquem from the 1970s and 1980s, and 1990 Burgundy provide enticing tasting opportunities. Wines were purchased over decades from reputable sources and stored in temperature-controlled cellars.

The common thread is classically-styled winemaking from top producers. Wines were purchased on release or from highly reputable auction houses and held until sale in a climate-controlled home cellar. Bid with confidence.

OLD WORLD TREASURES FROM A SOUTHERN GENTLEMAN

Hart Davis Hart is delighted to offer this selection, which highlights legendary producers from France and Italy. Our collector sourced wines from only the most reputable retailers with an eye towards impeccable provenance, always with the intention of drinking his acquisitions. Creating the collection was a true passion project and an homage to family, celebrating the storied traditions of generations of winemakers. In the selection presented here, an impressive roster of names unfolds: First Growths in Bordeaux; DRC, Rousseau, Mugnier, Coche-Dury, Leflaive and Raveneau from Burgundy; Krug, Salon and Selosse from Champagne; Chave, Rayas, Guigal and Jamet from the Rhône, and Conterno, Cappellano and Rinaldi from Italy. We have had the pleasure of drinking multiple bottles from this collection, and they have all been outstanding. These wines were stored in both a custom, purpose-built cellar and professional storage. They were recently removed and transported to HDH's Delaware warehouse via temperature-controlled truck.
