*"The 1999 Rousseau Chambertin was so ample, yet still a teenager. There was more purple to its deep fruit. Jennie P. admired its awesome make up and complexity.' Despite being so young, it opened up in the glass a bit, resulting in the best bottle of this that I can ever remember having. It was thick, long and spectacular. Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

bsl, nl, cuc

"There was something extraordinary about this bottle of 1993 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze, bordering on supernatural. Everything I could ask for in a great Burgundy was there - ripe red fruits, forest floor and the complexity of terroir, breed, style, length. The fruit had a catnip-like quality that made me feel happy and silly, and its acidity and finish said, I know I'm good now, but just you wait and see.' It was impossible to stop drinking, even in the context of a dozen plus other, fabulous Rousseau reds. This may prove to be one of those lightning bolts in a bottle; on this day, it didn't get any better."(99pts JK)

Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau

tl

"I have long considered the 1996 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint-Jacques from Armand Rousseau to be a brilliant wine, though it is a few years since we last met. Here, it had a broody and surprisingly youthful bouquet: dark berry fruit, juniper berries, briary and sous-bois aromas. Captivating...but serious! The palate is medium-bodied with that impressive fruit concentration although it has clearly mellowed in recent years. There remains a firmness and an obduracy, yet also wondrous harmony and compose, almost effortless in nature as it gently fans out on the finish. As I said before, this has a long future. Tasted November 2016."(96pts)

The color is remarkably black followed by a blast of intensely sappy pinot fruit, long, rich, powerful and earthy flavors all held together by extraordinary balance. This is just flat out reference standard CSJ. Though it does not often achieve this, in 1999, the CSJ is as good as the Bèze."*(92-93pts BH)

"Tasted blind in Hong Kong, the Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint Jacques 2002 from Rousseau is just a sublime expression of the vineyard and the style of the domaine. The bouquet offers startling delineation with red cherries, crushed strawberry, wet limestone and rose petals. The palate is elegant and refined in keeping with the more understated style of the vintage, the acidity finely tuned and with a gradual crescendo of red berry and mineral notes that fan out in consummate fashion on the finish. It's just a beautiful wine that is now at a beautiful stage of its life. Irresistible!" (96pts)

This will require every bit of a decade to resolve the very firm structure. This is less elegant than the 1er but more powerful and the distinguishing character of the '06 Bonnes Mares is the serenity that it projects. I thought that it would be good but this knocks on the door of being genuinely great." (94pts BH)*

Rich, creamy and meaty, its palate had vitamins and the most power of the flight so far. A touch of animal rounded out this earthy and robust wine. It was a great showing for this overlooked vintage of Vogue, whose wines many feel are lackluster between 1973-1989. Well, not on this night." (95+pts JK)*

Restrained and backward nose of a fantastically complex mix of blackberries, spice, cedar, soy, anise and dried herbs followed by full-bodied, multi-layered flavors of amazing length. Opulent and lavish yet all remains exquisitely balanced and this is astonishingly precise. A real stunner of a wine that is as classy and graceful as they come. "The 1988 DRC La Tâche was also vimful, on the spicier side but definitely not with the fruit of the 2001. This was more on the whips and chains side of the fence, characteristic of the vintage. "Strikingly extravagant nose of rose petals, oriental spices, pungent tea and leather notes plus ultra elegant pinot fruit. The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. In short, aristocratic in every sense." (96pts BH)

The bouquet is very seductive with introspective black fruit rather than red. The mineralite is tangible just below the surface, then a hint of oyster shell emerging with aeration. The palate has wonderful volume, coming over all fleshy and silky in the mouth thanks to the layered fresh strawberry and red cherry fruit. "The 2002 Dom Pérignon speaks to opulence and intensity. Rich, layered and voluptuous in the glass, the 2002 shows off its flamboyant personality with flair. Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon." (98pts VM)

*"The 2006 Comtes de Champagne is striking, especially in the way it brings together elements of ripeness and freshness in a hypothetical blend of the 2002 and 2004. Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. I suggest buying a case and following it over the next 20-30 years, which is exactly what I intend to do. The 2007 doesn't have the aromatic complexity of the 2005 or 2006, but it makes up for that with its totally seductive personality. "The 2004 Barolo Cascina Francia boasts staggering depth and explosive intensity from the very first taste. One of the most brooding, backward 2004s, the Cascina Francia is one of the only wines in this vintage that I am slightly disappointed to have opened, as it is so intensely backward. Hints of sage, tobacco, menthol, rose petal and graphite open up in the glass, recalling just how mesmerizing the 2004 was in cask. At once silky, while at other times virile, the 2004 Cascina Francia is constantly changing in the glass. "The 88 had a wonderful nose, very smoky in addition to the usual cedar, mineral and tobacco. It has nice vim, but I wouldn't call it vigor. There was also some exotic chestnut on a secondary bed of cassis. Pencil was there, along with good spice. Long and hearty, the 88 Lafite had good intensity without being intense. Carob, earth, tobacco and a kiss of wood flavors rounded out this excellent wine."(94pts JK)

134 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1996Pauillac1x12 bottle banded owc*

"Tasted three times since bottling, the 1996 Lafite-Rothschild is unquestionably this renowned estate's greatest wine. As I indicated last year, only 38% of the crop was deemed grand enough to be put into the final blend, which is atypically high in Cabernet Sauvignon (83%). This massive wine may be the biggest, largest-scaled Lafite I have ever tasted. It will require many years to come around...the wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple color, and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and black currant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessentially elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years."(100pts)

141 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 2005

Pauillac

1x12 bottle banded owc

"...boasts a dark ruby/purple color in addition to that exceptional Lafite perfume of graphite, spring flowers, crushed rocks, and sweet black cherry and black currant fruit that exudes class and nobility. The wine is medium-bodied with extremely high levels of tannin in addition to sensational purity, length, and overall harmony." (96+pts)

12 bottles per lot $7500-10000

143 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 2008

Pauillac

1x6 bottle banded owc

"...offers aromas of high quality unsmoked cigar tobacco, lead pencil shavings, creme de cassis, earth, cedar and asphalt. Full, rich and stunningly concentrated, I doubt it is inferior to the 2010, just more classic as well as slightly more forward and a degree weaker in alcoholic potency (12.5% versus 13.5%)." (98pts)

6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

144 Château Latour - Vintage 2003

Pauillac

3lsc1

"A prodigious effort, it boasts a saturated purple color as well as a gorgeous perfume of smoke, cedar, creme de cassis, flowers, crushed rocks, and blackberries. Massive and multi-layered, with huge richness and low acidity, it is about as unctuous as a young Latour can be. It could be compared to the 1982, but it may be even more pure, at least at this early stage, than that monumental wine. The level of intensity builds prodigiously in the mouth, and the finish lasts nearly a minute." (100pts)

3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

145 Château Latour - Vintage 2005

Pauillac

3lsc1

"Deep and sensual to the core, the 2005 is utterly captivating. All the elements are so seamlessly put together. Graphite, Crème de cassis, licorice, dark spice and lavender infuse the 2005 with so much energy." (100pts VM)

3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

146 Château Latour - Vintage 2007

Pauillac

1x12 bottle banded owc

"...exhibits a dense ruby/purple color as well as a sweet, expansive bouquet of black fruits and spring flowers interwoven with a striking minerality. The wine's dense, medium to full-bodied flavors are surprisingly evolved, with soft tannins, an ample, generous mouthfeel, and an endearing texture. Undoubtedly one of the longest lived wines of the vintage, the 2007 Latour should last for two decades or more." (92+pts)

PARCEL LOTS 147-148

147 Château Leoville Las Cases - Vintage 1996

"...a spectacular nose of cassis, cherry liqueur, pain grille, and minerals. It is powerful and rich on the attack, with beautifully integrated tannin, massive concentration, yet no hint of heaviness or disjointedness. It is a remarkable, seamless, palate-staining, and extraordinarily elegant wine - the quintessential St.-Julien." (98pts)

149 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2005

Pauillac

1x12 bottle banded owc

"The 2005 Château Mouton-Rothschild is a deeply impressive First Growth. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that comes racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box (Philippe Dhalluin mentioned that the signature smokiness/fireside hearth was tangible in around 80% of the vats during élevage). There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous black fruit, perhaps beginning to soften in texture, one or two years off its plateau. There are layers and layers of black fruit intermingling with graphite and black pepper, and it wisely reins everything in on the finish that is more classic in style and in keeping with the vintage. If you are fortunate enough to have this wine in your cellar, even though those tannins are starting to be abraded by time, afford it another five or six years." (98pts)

"Explosive fruit of blackberries, vanilla and oriental spice with extremely ripe, relatively supple black fruit, round, sexy flavors underpinned by good structure, ripe tannins and fine acid/fruit balance. This is still very tight but there is good vigor; indeed even force behind this wine. One of the better DRC Échézeaux in a long time, in fact as good as the terrific '88 though stylistically different." (92pts BH)

There is a similar reserve to the distinctly focused and linear flavors that enjoy a seemingly unlimited reserve of dry extract that renders the fine-grained and silky tannins almost invisible at present though I suspect that they will become much more apparent once the baby fat melts away."  "Oh yes. Oh yes, yes, yes. This 1999 Richebourg Grand Cru is a bit like a great athlete, one who really shows its class against stiff opposition, here in the form of 18 other Richebourg! It follows the same thread as the imperial 1999 La Tâche. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that boasts quite astonishing delineation and precision, fabulous mineralité. The aromatics are far more detailed and enthralling than the 2007 tasted alongside. The palate is beautifully structured, virtually symmetrical with filigree tannin, with a gentle crescendo in the mouth towards an effervescent finish with hints of orange peel. Simply effortless." It is an awesome red Burgundy that is unconscionably concentrated, with extraordinary delineation to its personality, and massive ripeness and richness that buries what must be considerable tannin. "The 2016 Musigny Grand Cru was picked on 29 September with 30% whole cluster. It remained quite introverted in my glass despite vigorous coaxing, with woodland and fern infusing the red berry fruit, a little static and less flamboyant than maybe the best Musignys. Holding something back for later? I think so. The palate is well balanced and seems to shrug off the travails of the growing season more than the nose, thanks to its gorgeous, pure black plum and blackcurrant fruit and the spicy, black pepper and clove note furnishing the sustained finish. This is an impressive Musigny that will unequivocally age in consummate style."(94-96pts)

On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and concentrated, with wonderful tension at the core, its glossy texture underpinned by a bright line of acidity that carries through the penetrating, searingly intense and unrelenting finish. This Corton-Charlemagne's sheer length marks it out as one of the high points of this tasting. Rich, layered and voluptuous in the glass, the 2002 shows off its flamboyant personality with flair. Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon." (98pts VM)*

"Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting (Jeroboam Tasted)." (98+pts VM)

Polished and subtly creamy in texture yet brightly juicy with apple and lemon, this displays an uncanny sense of lift and refinement, perfectly complementing the honeysuckle and heliotrope perfume that waft inner-mouth. You could lose yourself in the ineffability of this wine's floral diversity and in its resonantly nut and grain low tones. Hints of apple pip lend subtle additional piquancy on a long and at once soothing as well as stimulating finish, with suggestions of oyster liquor becoming prominent as the bottle stands open for a few minutes, and serving to milk the salivary glands for all that they are worth."*(95pts)

We're pleased to welcome back Mr. Big with one hundred thirty exceptional lots from his impressive cellar! Few collectors consistently show up with one of the wines of the night quite like he does—and this lineup speaks volumes about his acumen and substantial cellar!! For all the superlatives to describe Mr. Big that could swirl in our head as easily as wine in a glass, he remains one of the kindest, most generous, and truly humble people we know, and we're lucky to call him a friend! The offering opens with strength including DRC La Tache from 1990 and 2006, followed by a magnum of 1976 Romanée-Conti! Eighteen standout lots from Leroy include ten bottles of 1990 Richebourg, along with 1990 Romanée-St-Vivant and Clos de la Roche. Dujac contributes nineteen superb selections, featuring 2005 Bonnes Mares, Clos de la Roche, and a magnum of 2005 Chambertin. A treasure trove of twenty-one Fourrier lots includes Griottes-Chambertin VV, Gevrey-Chambertin VV, and six vintages of Clos St. Jacques VV—many in original packaging!! White Burgundy beckons with six bottles of 2014 Coche-Dury Corton-Charlemagne and a bottle of 1985 DRC Montrachet! *"Very primary, ripe, fresh, earthy, spicy and highly expressive aromas complement equally ripe, big-bodied and still firmly tannic flavors that possess superb depth and outstanding length. This is a serious wine and while it doesn't have quite as much austerity that is typical of still youthful Clos de Vougeot, it will probably require the better part of 10 years to realize its full potential and it may very well require more time than that. *"It had been almost 20 years since the last time I came across this wine and it has finally largely shed the firm tannic core that dominated it then. An impressively powerful nose redolent of dried rose petals, sandalwood and high-toned secondary fruit (but no sous-bois) is followed by rich, full-bodied and wonderfully complex flavors that deliver excellent length and strikingly good depth. This was an impressive showing for a 27-year-old wine that comes from one of Lalou Bize-Leroy's earliest vintages of her domaine. It has a beautiful pixelated bouquet with strawberry preserve, sous-bois, morels and autumn leaves. This is sleek and sensual. The palate is medium-bodied with pitch-perfect acidity, still surprisingly youthful, long and quite plush in the mouth with plenty of vigour on the refined finish. *"The Dujac 2005 Chambertin combines fruit from the vineyard of that name with a majority of fruit from the Clos de Bèze. Scents of rose petals, black tea, black raspberry, black pepper, and cassis stream from the glass. A wonderfully soothing, glycerin-rich, silken-textured pool of sweetly ripe and rose-scented fruit fills the mouth, while dark shadings of singed meat and wet stone well up from seemingly inexhaustible depths of extract. For all of its palpable density and sheer intensity, this is clear, refined, and displays elegant poise in its long, evocative finish. "... offers smoky, tea-like, floral, and spicy aromas. It comes to the palate relatively firm though texturally refined and strikingly clear, full of deep, smoke-licked meaty flavors, ripe though slightly tart raspberry, flowers, tea and spices. Palpably dense, this nevertheless avoids any sense of heaviness or opacity, but instead displays lift and liveliness. "The 2014 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is a wine that leaves you lost for words - never helpful in this profession. It begs the question: Why are not all Corton-Charlemagnes like this? It has a stunning bouquet with a profound mix of yellow plum, Mirabelle, Seville orange marmalade, those liquid minerals and later, scents of cold wet limestone. The palate is incredibly powerful with stunning acidity. There are multiple layers of spice-tinged citrus fruit, just a faint tinge of marzipan, wondrous umami sensation in the mouth with grilled walnut and a hint of pralines towards the finish. This represents an astonishing Corton-Charlemagne that might end up touching the imperious 2005. Readers should note that Raphael told me that the release of this will be delayed, just like the 2005 and 2010. Put it on your wish list and wait." (99pts)

Rose

6x1 bottle ogb's

"Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting (Jeroboam Tasted)." (98+pts VM)

Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. "As if there were any doubts, Krug's 1996 Brut Blanc de Blancs Clos du Mesnil reaffirms its position as one of the greatest if not the greatest Champagne of this historic harvest. I have had the privilege of drinking the 1996 Clos du Mesnil a few times over the last year and it has always been breathtaking, as it is again today. The wine sparkles on the palate with a brilliant, pointillist expression of fruit, showing surreal detail, depth and polish. Like a finely cut gem, each impression reveals a different and unique shade of nuance. The 1996 Clos du Mesnil coats every inch of the palate with endless layers of perfumed fruit and a chiseled, minerally finish that lasts forever. The oak seems a touch pronounced in this particular bottle, something I have not encountered previously with this wine. "The 1996 was a great way to start off the evening, delivering an outstanding experience from the word go. Its nose had picture perfect balance between its sweetness, fruit and structural components. Big Boy called it, Krug-like with its green apples. Golden aromas showered over its minerally, slaty, racy and wound personality. BB kept harping on its slaty qualities, also appreciating its mid-palate depth. It did have that, flashing its fruit in the mouth like an Ali jab. There was great toast to this complex bubbly, but BB felt it was missing the pitch and citricity of 6-star, though I countered that it was still a bit young for 6-star status, and that many wines need to blossom into that category. However, a couple of other bubbly would soon remind us that 6-star status is something that can come across even at a young age."(95+pts JK)

2x6 bottle owc's

"This bottle of the 1996 Blanc de Blancs Le Mesnil Brut was drinking superbly and represents the apotheosis of Blanc de Blancs, unfurling over the course of three hours with a stunningly complex bouquet of citrus oil, confit lemon, dried white flowers and oyster shell, with hints of praline and pastry cream becoming more pronounced as the wine opens up in the glass. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, defined by the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is cloaked in layers of crisp fleshy and chalky extract. The finish is long, penetrating and saline."(99pts)

"I remember paying what at the time seemed like a small fortune for bottles of Giacosa's 1990 Barolo Riserva Falletto at Peck's Enoteca in Milan. What I would give today to be able to buy more at the same tariff! The 1990 Barolo Riserva Falletto is one of Bruno Giacosa's most towering wines. Period. Rich, layered and opulent, this mineral-driven, powerful Barolo covers every inch of the palate with masses of dark fruit, smoke, soy, plums, menthol, dried roses, pine and a host of other balsamic overtones. This vivid, kaleidoscopic Barolo is a reference-point wine readers won't want to miss. As always, the Riserva Falletto is virile and authoritative in tone. Simply put, it is profound."(98pts)

*"When I tasted this wine early in its life I felt it had outstanding potential. With another year of cellaring it has gained considerable weight. It now looks to be one of the greatest examples of Monte Bello Cabernet Sauvignon Ridge has produced. Only 40% of the crop made it into the final blend, which consists of 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 11% Merlot, 10% Petit Verdot, and 4% Cabernet Franc. The wine offers a black/purple color, a profound nose of minerals, cassis, licorice, and spices, spectacular richness, and a great mid-palate that boasts layers of fruit. ## DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI FROM AN EAST COAST COLLECTOR

A towering double magnum of the 100-point 2003 Château Latour sets the stage for twenty-five remarkable lots of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti from this longstanding client. His steadfast selection features Romanée-Conti from 2005 through 2008 and 2011, four vintages of La Tache, and offerings of Echezeaux, Grands Echezeaux, Richebourg, Romanée-St-Vivant, and Vosne-Romanée Cuvée Duvault-Blochet. All wines meticulously stored.

417 Château Latour - Vintage 2003

scl

"A prodigious effort, it boasts a saturated purple color as well as a gorgeous perfume of smoke, cedar, creme de cassis, flowers, crushed rocks, and blackberries. Massive and multi-layered, with huge richness and low acidity, it is about as unctuous as a young Latour can be. It could be compared to the 1982, but it may be even more pure, at least at this early stage, than that monumental wine. The level of intensity builds prodigiously in the mouth, and the finish lasts nearly a minute." (100pts)

418 Corton - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The 2011 Corton Grand Cru from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti put in a similar showing as it did just after bottling earlier last year. It has less of the mushroom element than I recollect, adorned with pastille-like purity of red cherry and wild strawberry fruit, a slight ferrous note developing with time in the glass. The palate has developed a tad more roundness in the mouth in recent months, the tannins softened a little and it is consequently less masculine and more approachable. That said, as much as I enjoyed polishing off my glass, I would advise allowing this several years in bottle so that it can lose its puppy fat." (93pts)

419 Échézeaux - Vintage 2002

vlsc, sdc

"Sweet, pure and completely classic mostly red pinot fruit aromas are enhanced by subtle nuances of floral notes, damp earth, underbrush and even a hint of game. The big, muscular but utterly refined flavors are superbly intense, reserved and backward supported by remarkably sophisticated tannins and stunning length. This is a very concentrated wine of real breed and impeccable balance that should age for 3 decades, perhaps longer." (93pts BH)

This is a big wine by any measure with excellent mid-palate density and superb length. Really good stuff and as the "value" play in the DRC line-up, one to strongly consider because it surpasses its normal quality level by more than a fair margin in 2005."* (94pts BH)

429 La Tâche - Vintage 2009Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

There is excellent energy and freshness to the lacy and stunningly precise broad-scaled flavors that build in intensity from the densely concentrated mid-palate to the explosive and mouth coating finish that seemingly goes on without end. This is a big LT with ample muscle and very firm but not aggressive structure along with superb depth of underlying material and positively mind-blowing length."* (98pts BH)

"This is pungently floral with fresh rose notes nuanced by intense red fruits and a deep, wonderfully attractive plummy hint followed by powerfully spiced flavors that offer impeccable balance and real muscle plus a sappy, palate staining finish. The tannins are extremely fine in this vintage and there is a lovely suppleness to the mid-palate without its usual robustness; in fact, there is a pretty textured quality to the structure." (95pts BH)

"Violets, roses, raspberries, and red cherries emanate from the 2003 Richebourg. Full-bodied, deep, and hugely concentrated, it is muscular, firm and displays the firmest structure of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti's 2003s. Soy sauce, tar, chocolate, and dark fruits are found in its focused, audacious personality. Its impressively persistent finish is studded with highly present tannin." (97pts)

While it sounds moderately odd to describe it this way, there is a swagger to the '05 Riche and this will clearly be one very long distance runner..."* (97pts BH)

433 Richebourg - Vintage 2009Domaine de la Romanée Contivlsc*

"The bottle that I tried displayed a hint of reduction though not enough to hide the intensely floral and notably ripe nose that features fresh notes of plum, mocha and cassis that are sprinkled with exotic spice notes. The expansive and tautly muscular broad-shouldered flavors are, unusually, almost as fine as those of the RSV yet even slightly more complex with the same finely grained tannins. The length is similar but at present, the extra dimension of depth gives this the barest of edges." (97pts BH)

434 Richebourg - Vintage 2011Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Though it may not be quite as elegant as the Romanée St. Vivant it is arguably even more aromatically complex with a wonderfully fresh if restrained nose of hoisin, black fruit, soy and anise. There is remarkable concentration of dry extract that completely buffers the otherwise tightly wound tannic spine while pushing it to the background as the broad-shouldered flavors culminate in a balanced, long and velvety mineral-inflected finish that delivers astonishing persistence." (95pts BH)

435 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2005Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl*

"An exceptionally floral yet restrained nose with aromas of both rose and violets that combine with a panoply of spice notes yet the overall impression is classic young RC as the nose is both cool and reserved yet aristocratic. The sweet, intense, focused, detailed and vibrant flavors offer superb drive and punch though there is not the sheer scale of the LT yet they're finer and somehow even purer, indeed absolutely crystalline though I kept asking myself how this was possible as the purity of the La Tâche is itself mind blowing. The descriptor of 'power without weight' came to mind again and again as the flavors slide down the throat with no sense of heaviness yet the impact and precision of the presently somewhat austere finish is quite simply hard to believe. In a word, this is mind bending and in a visceral sense, this is a monumental wine that of real emotional impact. Genius in a glass." (99+pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $15000-20000

436 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2006Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl*

"Here too is a very reserved yet ultra classy and refined, indeed even ethereal nose that is quite simply kaleidoscopic in its breadth, combining red, blue and black fruits with spice, earth, minerality and a hint of underbrush that stands aside for the perfectly balanced, pure and stylish medium full flavors that are very firmly but not aggressively structured while delivering flat out unbelievable length yet all the while remaining completely understated in personality. As are all the very best vintages of RC, this is spherical with nothing out of place and this will age effortlessly for decades. The La Tâche is truly spectacular but there is simply another dimension of depth present here. A wine of sheer class and the epitome of the phrase 'power without weight'." (97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $12000-16000

437 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2007Domaine de la Romanée Contivscl*

"I have never been treated to such a profusion of floral perfume from this legendary site as rose over the glass of 2007 Romanée-Conti. Hyacinth, rose, gladiola, and iris are underlain by scents of moss-covered, damp stone, wild ginger, and diverse tiny red fruits. "Romanée-Conti c'est le nez," remarks de Villaine of this almost ethereal Pinot. The contrast with the more fleshly La Tache could not be more dramatic. But this doesn't pull back on its silken-textured palate, either far from it: along with persistent inner-mouth profusion of floral perfume come savory, irresistibly juicy raspberry and pomegranate as well as an impression of marrow-rich, multi-boned meat stock. A wafting, wave-like finish harbors the sort of exhilarating sheer refreshment one looks for in white wine, and a kaleidoscopic interchange of colorful floral, spice, fruit, carnal, and mineral elements such as few wines of any sort can deliver." (96pts)

1 bottle per lot $12000-16000

438 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2008Domaine de la Romanée Contivscl*

"This is the most backward wine in the range at present with extremely reticent aromas of ultra elegant and refined red berry fruit, spice and floral notes plus earth and underbrush hints that complement perfectly the detailed, intense and palate etching middle weight flavors that for all the reserve of the nose, explode into a gorgeously pure and driving finish of truly stunning length that seems to have boundless energy." (97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $12000-16000

439 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tache and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tache in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective." (96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $10000-14000

440 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2005Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl, spc*

"This is also very primary and backward as hints of supremely elegant and seductive exceptionally ripe black fruit aromas replete with soy, hoisin, clove and anise nuances merge into wonderfully fine and refined linear and firmly structured flavors that culminate in a precise, pure and driving finish that goes on and on. This is a really impressive effort that offers terrific potential but fans of this wine should note that it is arguably more masculine than it usually is yet at the same time utterly seamless. A 'wow' wine that is perhaps the ripest of the DRC '05s. A true knockout that is sheer class." (97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $2400-3200

441 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2009Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl*

"The 2009 Romanée St. Vivant is wonderfully complete. The combination of power and elegance is breathtaking as layers of fruit flow across the palate in stunning style. Hard candy, flowers, mint and dark red berries build to the dramatic, explosive finish. In 2009 the Romanée St. Vivant is a wine of considerable volume and textural depth, but it will require a good many years for those qualities to come through fully." (97pts)

BURGUNDY AND BEYOND FROM A TRUE ENTHUSIAST

We are pleased to present forty-six splendid selections from an avid wine enthusiast and new friend of the house. A true connoisseur with a passion for great wines from around the world, his heart—and his collection—is rooted in Burgundy. After acquiring more of his favorites than he could ever drink, he's now thoughtfully thinning his cellar. The offering opens with a hearty appetizer of Bordeaux, featuring ancient and aged gems such as 1865 Gruaud Larose (!!), 1939 Cheval Blanc, and 1955 La Mission Haut-Brion, through to more modern vintages like 2015 Le Pin!! Burgundy takes over with showstoppers led by 2018 Comte Liger-Belair La Romanée, 2017 DRC Romanée-St-Vivant and 2013 Mugnier Musigny. A half-dozen lots from a favorite producer, Domaine Cathiard, follow—highlighted by six bottles of Vosne-Romanée Aux Malconsorts from six different vintages! White Burgundy adds further allure, with selections from Coche-Dury, Leflaive, and Comte Lafon. A taste of Rayas from the Rhône and five vintages of Salon Le Mesnil Champagne round out this impressive and personal collection. Nearly every bottle was purchased on release—many direct from the producer—or sourced from reputable merchants. All wines properly stored.

450 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1955

vhs, hbsl, sdc, excellent color

"...the 1955 La Mission is the "wine of the vintage." It possesses a sweet, cedary, clove, smoke, and black-raspberry-scented nose, and rich, full-bodied, remarkably harmonious flavors that ooze with ripe fruit, glycerin, and heady alcohol. The tannin has totally melted away, and the wine reveals considerable rust at the edge. There is no indication of any fragility or decline. It is an amazing, complex, superbly well-balanced La Mission-Haut-Brion!" (100pts)

454 Chambertin - Vintage 2005

A. Rousseau

ssos

"I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin almost as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage." (99pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $2600-3500

455 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2014

Arnoux-Lachaux

"An even more elegant nose of spicy and floral red and black pinot fruit is nuanced by subtle traces of sandalwood, Asian-style tea, soy and anise. There is fine concentration to the relatively powerful sappy and mouth coating flavors that are shaped by wonderfully fine-grained tannins on the hugely long, balanced and moderately austere finale." (93-96pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $1400-1800

456 Échézeaux - Vintage 2015

Comte Liger-Belair

"Initially there is a trace of reduction but it quickly blows off to reveal a broad-ranging nose that displays notes of anise, violet, lilac, Asian tea, purple fruit and plenty of spice nuances. The rich, concentrated and full-bodied flavors are finer than those of the Clos de Vougeot if somewhat less powerful, all wrapped in a seductively textured, balanced and ever-so-mildly austere finale. I really like the complexity here and this strikingly good effort should age beautifully." (95pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1600-2200

457 La Romanée - Vintage 2017

Comte Liger-Belair

The 2017 La Romanée Grand Cru is characteristically impressive, unfurling in the glass with an extravagant bouquet of cassis, violets, dark chocolate, espresso roast, sweet spices, orange rind and rose hip that has integrated its lavish framing of new wood more completely than any other wine in the cellar. On the palate, it's full-bodied, ample and satiny with a deep, sapid core of concentrated fruit that largely conceals its broad structural shoulders, concluding with a pungently intense but subtly wood-inflected finish. This has the makings of a comparatively precocious vintage of La Romanée that will offer a broad drinking window. (94-96pts)

1 bottle per lot $3000-4000

458 La Romanée - Vintage 2018

Comte Liger-Belair

lscl, lbsl

"The 2018 La Romanée Grand Cru is the most reserved cuvée in the range, unwinding in the glass with notes of cherries, raspberries, dark chocolate, plums and spices that's framed by a nicely integrated bouquet of creamy new oak. It's full-bodied, velvety and enveloping, with a deep and multidimensional core that saturates the palate and largely conceals the wine's powdery structuring tannins. Underpinned by a lively spine of acidity and concluding with a long and pungently perfumed finish." (96-98pts)

1 bottle per lot $3500-5000

459 Richebourg - Vintage 2017

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The 2017 Richebourg Grand Cru offers up generous aromas of ripe strawberries, raspberries, cinnamon and coniferous forest floor, framed by a lavish application of creamy new oak that's less immediately integrated than in the Domaine's other wines at this early stage. On the palate, the Richebourg is full-bodied, rich and multidimensional, with a lavishly enveloping attack and supple structuring tannins that are almost entirely concealed by its deep core of fruit. Long and sapid, this is a spectacular wine in the making." (95pts)

1 bottle per lot $2200-3000

460 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2013

lscl

"The bouquet is adorable, so pure and comely, with shimmering red cherries, raspberry and orange blossom, a suggestion of cold flint imparting an enigmatic element a Romanée-Saint-Vivant that is clearly going to bide its time. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin, impressive weight and almost a surfeit of freshness. There is tension from start to finish that effortlessly disguises the weight, the penetration on the sustained finish." (95pts)

461 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2017

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"A total stunner, the 2017 Romanée St. Vivant Grand Cru is the most expressive wine in the lineup today. Rich, creamy and so wonderfully textured, the RSV simply has it all. The tannins are present, but they are also matched by tremendous fruit density and pure power. Floral and savory overtones grace the lifted, saline finish. Leaving price aside, if I could only have one wine in this range, it would unquestionably be the RSV. The 2017 is a total knock-out. That's all there is to it." (98pts VM)

462 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2016Dujac*

"The 2016 Bonnes Mares Grand Cru has a tightly wound bouquet, perhaps missing a little delineation at the moment, a little loamy in style at first. Then with rigorous swirling of the glass, it gets its act together and provides the voluptuousness that signposts a great Bonnes Mares. The palate is medium-bodied with a ripe and generous entry countered by a fine line of acidity. It feels slightly confit in style with a satisfying and long finish that fans out, as if this Bonnes Mares finally slips into fifth gear. Gorgeous."(95-97pts)

463 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2016Aux Malconsorts, Dujac*

"The 2016 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts actually has a similar bouquet to the Les Beaux Monts but with heightened mineralité which is prioritized over the fruit. I was momentarily whisked back to my youth, pot-holing in the Lake District, that tang of limestone and moorland in the air. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannin. As Alec Seysses remarked, there is more "wine" in the Malconsorts compared to the Beaux Monts. It has brilliant delineation and a very complex finish that fans out with real confidence. This is one of the top wines from Dujac. Chapeau."(95-97pts)

"The 2016 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts was showing a little more reduction on the nose compared to the other cuvées. Underneath though, lies intense and quite voluminous red berry fruit, later rose petals, a touch of woodland coming through. The palate is medium-bodied with quite high-toned entry, vivacious blueberry fruit mixed with cassia and orange pith, then closing in quickly on a structure and grippy finish (it finished its malolactic not until September so this would explain this). It will require several years in bottle. It is not quite as audacious as the 2015 Malconsorts, but certainly a prince to that king."(94-96pts)

*"The 2009 Rayas Châteauneuf du Pape is an awesome example of elegance combined with extraordinary power. The alcohol levels must be between 15.5% and 16%, but the elegance and sublime nature of this wine make it irresistible. Its dense ruby/purple color is followed by an extraordinary bouquet of framboise, black cherry liqueur intermixed with blacker fruits, licorice and a hint of flowers. Pure with terrific layers of fruit concentration (although it's remarkably light on its feet), silky tannins, well-integrated acidity and a stunning personality, this monumental Rayas is breathtaking. ## BRILLIANT BURGUNDY GEMS

This passionate collector of Burgundy and the Northern Rhône has had several sweet consignments with Acker before, and this latest selection brings nearly fifty lots of outstanding Burgundy treasures. Rousseau sets the tone with more recent vintages, including six bottles of 2008 Chambertin! Six Dujac selections include four bottles of 1988 Clos de la Roche, while Fourrier features three magnums of 2014 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos St. Jacques Cuvée Centenaire in banded OWC. Drouhin offers a commanding thirteen lots, highlighted by a full case of 2009 Griottes Chambertin in OWC. White Burgundy from Morey, Ramonet, and Raveneau brings a final touch of elegance to this Burgundy-focused offering. Most wines were purchased on release, and all have been properly stored.

494 Chambertin - Vintage 2008

A. Rousseau

Ilwisvl, 6ssos

"As it almost always is, this is not quite as elegant as the Bèze but it's slightly more complex with dense and more deeply pitched yet extremely cool and restrained red and blue fruit aromas nuanced by a broad range of earth, game and underbrush hints, many of which carry over to the pure and relatively refined medium full-bodied flavors that are complex, vibrant and perfectly balanced on the gorgeously long finish."(96pts BH)

498 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2013

Les Amoureuses, Bertheau

"Once again there is just enough wood to warrant commenting on highlighting the ultra-spicy nose of anise, clove, cinnamon, rose petal and pure essence of red pinot fruit. The textured middle weight and mineral-inflected flavors possess a notably finer mouth feel before culminating in a detailed finish that is shaped by firm but fine supporting tannins. Lovely potential here."(91-93pts BH)

The palate is defined by supple tannin, plenty of red fruit (raspberry, redcurrant and a touch of cranberry) with veins of spice surfacing towards the structured finish. To quibble, it does not possess the refinement or class of Jacques Seysses's 1988 Clos Saint-Denis though you have to sit back and admire the sheer length in the mouth. Deep in color, it has a very intense bouquet, the fruit darker than the regular Clos Saint Jacques with hints of oyster shell and wilted violet petals. Superconcentrated, densely packed wine with an almost candied quality to its fruit. ### 512 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2014

Clos St. Jacques, Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest 2014 tasting, Jean-Marie Fourrier's 2014 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos St Jacques (labelled with "Vieilles Vignes") has a very pure bouquet, almost coulis-like fruit, dark cherries intermingling with blueberry and light marmalade scents. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, a fine line of acidity, quite sensual in the mouth with good depth on the finish. Perhaps what it is missing is that peacock's tail it sort of ends in the wrong key. There is great potential here though not best in the (Clos Saint-Jacques) show this year. Like a television with its contrast turned up a bit too high when compared to its peers. "(93pts)

The palate is medium-bodied with strict tannin, a pinch of black pepper and bay leaf, and much more vibrant toward the finely structured finish. 525 Griottes Chambertin - Vintage 2013J. Drouhin1x6 bottle owc, 1x3 magnum owc"The 2013 Griotte-Chambertin was cropped on October 8, partial whole-cluster with a 23-day maceration, and will spend slightly longer in oak. It was a small harvest of only three barrels (18 hectoliters per hectare). This sample had not been racked. It has an exuberant, almost Bonnes-Mares-like bouquet with small black cherries, blueberry, truffle and attractive chalky scents. The palate is medium-bodied with a very sensual entry, the oak a little conspicuous at the moment, but that will be subsumed with time. Plush and luxuriant, try to resist this for several years after bottling. This is "killer juice" (not a technical term) from Drouhin." (94-96pts)*Above 6 bottles per lot $2000-2800

"Sous bois suffused aromas of smoke, spice, bacon and earth lead to rich, seductive, full-bodied, deep and wonderfully complex flavors of considerable power and length plus better expression of terroir than most '90s, all wrapped in a velvety and still moderately firm and vibrant finish. While this is not an elegant example by the very high standards of this wine, it compensates by sheer richness and generosity. In short, this is a '90 that fulfilled the early promise of the vintage. "The 2015 Clos Vougeot Grand Cru is a terrific rendition of this routinely stunning cuvée, soaring from the glass with a complex bouquet of red-black fruit, incense, rich soil tones, violets, smoked duck and a touch of menthol. On the palate, the wine is deep, full-bodied and multidimensional, with an ample chassis of rich, velvety tannins, a cool core of fruit and effortless balance through the long, penetrating and sapid finish. This Clos Vougeot is a monument in the making. "(97pts)

"It's relatively rare when I find the Ramonet Bienvenues to be superior to their Bâtard (though there are any number of vintages where I have found them to be qualitative equals) but 2007 is one vintage where it is. The primary reason is not so much because there is a noticeable difference in the respective underlying materials but rather because the balance of the BBM is better and the acid support is better integrated as well than in the Bâtard. ## SCREAMING EAGLE SPANNING 2003-2021

Twenty-one lots of exclusively Screaming Eagle and its Second Flight soar to greatness, featuring bottles of the flagship Cabernet spanning 2003 to 2021—with 2017 (which was only released in magnum format) as the only exception! Recent vintages from 2016 onward are offered in original wood cases. The rare Screaming Eagle Sauvignon Blanc makes an appearance as well, with two bottles of 2016 in OWC. All Screammers ideally stored.

543 Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2003

"This 2003 was showing spectacularly well, and based on my recollection, I think I may have liked it even more than the 2002, which is the reverse of how I felt a decade ago. One of the biggest (14.6% alcohol) wines made by Screaming Eagle during this period, it boasts an opaque ruby/purple color as well as classic, pure, creme de cassis, cedarwood and hints of Asian soy sauce and forest floor notes. The multidimensional aromatics are followed by a full-bodied, silky-textured, opulent, rich, atypically big wine that is impeccably well-balanced. It is just starting to come into its own. Four to five more years in the cellar will prove magical, and this 2003 is one of the candidates for the wine of the vintage. It should last another 20+ years." (98pts)

1 bottle

per lot $1800-2400

544 Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2004

"Aged 20 months in 72% new French oak, this blend of 85% Cabernet Sauvignon, 13% Merlot and 2% Cabernet Franc comes from a great vineyard on the valley floor in Oakville, just south of Rudd Estate and Plumpjack. The wine's dense ruby/purple color is followed by a beautiful, Pauillac-like (think Pontet Canet or Mouton), ethereal perfume of creme de cassis, or as Michael Broadbent used to say, "celestial black currants," full body, a velvety texture, fine tannins, a multidimensional mouthfeel, and a terrific finish. While there were no real surprises tasting this wine, I was somewhat intrigued by just how youthful the 2004 Screaming Eagle is showing. I had expected it to reveal slightly more evolution. I thought the 13% Merlot in the blend would push the evolution more quickly. The finish lasts for a full minute. As it has been in just about every vintage, the 2004 is a profound wine. It is for others to decide if it is overpriced, but this is undeniably a great wine that competes on the world stage with the best that exist." (97+pts)

546 Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2006

"The 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon is stunning. A wine that is only now beginning to shed its tannin, the 2006 stands out for its vibrancy and energy. All of the classic Screaming Eagle notes are in the glass, but with a little more edge and cut than in most vintages. Sweet red berries, crushed rocks, flowers and spice box are alive in the glass. Over time, hints of sage, mint rosemary and pencil shavings add complexity. The 2006 is a decidedly cool-weather wine with less opulence than either the 2007 or 2009, but it is absolutely singing today. Another few years will only help the wine come together even more fully, but it is impossible to miss the 2006's utterly breathtaking beauty. Anticipated maturity: 2016-2026." (98pts)

*"The most profound Screaming Eagle since the 2002 and 1997, the 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon (an 800-case blend of 77% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot and 3% Cabernet Franc) offers up a prodigiously pure, complex nose of cassis, spring flowers, licorice and black currants, the latter component being so intense and lingering that it makes this cuvée stand apart from other Napa Valley wines. Full-bodied in the mouth, like a ballerina on her toes, this wine glides gracefully across the palate with a cascade of purity, equilibrium and compelling complexity. ## SLOAN ESTATE: NAPA ROYALTY DIRECT FROM THE ESTATE

We are honored to offer an extraordinary consignment of one hundred fifteen selections from Sloan Estate—one of Napa Valley's most celebrated producers. This is a rare opportunity to acquire deep verticals of both the flagship Sloan Proprietary Red and its expressive second wine, Asterisk, from one of the most impeccably run vineyards in California. Perched in the eastern hills of Rutherford, Sloan Estate's forty-acre property rises to nearly 1,000 feet above the valley floor, with just thirteen acres under vine. Planted in 1997 on fractured volcanic rock and sandy loam, the site provides both ample sunshine and cooling marine breezes—an ideal combination that yields wines of remarkable structure, intensity, and finesse. Developed by Stuart Sloan and taken to new heights by the Pan family after their 2011 acquisition, the estate has earned its place among the California greats, with multiple perfect scores and global collector acclaim.

Sloan Proprietary Red, the estate's flagship since its 2000 debut, is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Petit Verdot. It's a wine of tremendous concentration, elegance and age-worthy complexity. First produced in 2004, Asterisk offers a more immediately inviting lens on the vineyard—crafted primarily from Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, with generous fruit, plush texture and the same unwavering attention to detail. At the core of Sloan's success is a powerhouse team: winemaker Martha McClellan, who previously worked with Harlan Estate and now produces wines under her own Levy & McClellan label, has overseen Sloan since 2001. Legendary vineyard manager David Abreu and consulting oenologist Michel Rolland complete this remarkable trio, each bringing global expertise and a shared commitment to honoring the vineyard's terroir.

This consignment spans every vintage of Sloan from its inaugural 2000 through 2017, and Asterisk from its first release in 2004 through 2007! Formats include full twelve-bottle cases, six-magnum cases and double magnum lots in original wood. These bottles are offered with pristine provenance, direct from the estate and from the owner's personal reserves. This is the most complete Sloan Estate offerings ever brought to auction, and a rare opportunity for Napa collectors and lovers of world-class Cabernet!!!

Full-bodied and super-rich with that roasted character that one finds in Côte Rôtie and some of the great Haut-Brions from Pessac-Leognan, this full-bodied, rich 2004 is a super-star of the vintage. Although the tannins are elevated, they are extremely sweet and well-integrated. This spectacular 2004 is performing even better now than it did following bottling. It is also one of the more developed and evolved vintages of Sloan, no doubt because that was the nature of the 2004 vintage. Drink it now and over the next two decades."* (98pts)

603 Sloan Red - Vintage 2005

6x1 magnum owc's (box available July 2025)

"This vineyard, high above the Rutherford AVA, on the gorgeous hillside not far from the famed restaurant and hotel Auberge du Soleil, has produced a winner in my retrospective of 2005s. This is clearly a great terroir, and that comes through in this savory, broad, expansive, pure 2005 Proprietary Red from Sloan. Offering black raspberry and blackcurrant fruit, silky tannins, notes of forest floor and spice box, and loamy soil undertones, the wine is dense, full-bodied, opulent, and just entering its plateau of maturity, where it should keep for another 15-20 years. This was one of the stunners in the great line-up that I tasted of 10-year-old North Coast Cabernet Sauvignons." (97pts)

SPRING MIX

A fantastic four collectors come together to offer a fine mix of sixty-six selections from around the world. The ancient and rare are well represented, including a 1947 Conterno Barolo Monfortino Riserva and magnums of 1964 Salon Le Mesnil, alongside a Madeira lineup arching over 1900 to 1977! Burgundy makes a strong showing with benchmark Richebourg from 2018 and 2007 DRC, 2011 Leroy, and 2001, 2009, and 2015 Meo-Camuzet! Domaine Leflaive contributes a full case of 1995 Puligny-Montrachet Clavoillon in OWC. Blue-chip Bordeaux highlights include 1990 La Mission, 2000 Angelus, 1989 Montrose and 1982 Latour! Champagne collectors will note 1985 Dom Pérignon in magnum, while California enthusiasts will find 2019 Screaming Eagle Sauvignon Blanc and 2020 Cabernet! Italy rounds out the mix with 1995 Soldera Brunello di Montalcino Intistieti Riserva while the Rhone romps with 1996 Guigal La Turquie. All wines properly stored.

"The 1991 La Turquie behaves as if it wants to be the northern Rhône's answer to Richebourg and Musigny. However, with the exception of Domaine Leroy, you cannot find a Richebourg or Musigny with the richness and complexity possessed by this awesome wine. The saturated dark purple color is followed by a wine that is surprisingly lighter in the mouth than its great flavor intensity and rich extraction would suggest. It is a winemaking tour de force in that Guigal has been able to cram phenomenal levels of fruit, complexity, and richness into this velvety-textured wine without causing it to taste heavy." (99pts)

Wafting from the glass with notes of cassis, currant leaf, raspberries and menthol, discretely framed by new wood, the wine is medium to full-bodied, velvety and intense, gaining in depth and dimension as it sits in the glass, with tangy underpinning acids and powdery tannins, culminating in a long finish. Aubert de Villaine recounted that the Domaine replanted a third of Corton-Bressandes while also grafting over the Mérodes' young vines to their own massal selections of Pinot Fin. While this is built for four decade's evolution in the cellar, the balance and concentration are such that it could be drunk with pleasure in its youth."(94pts)*

"Mugnier's 1999 Musigny Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine, but a few hours' decant gives a more than adequate sense of its immense quality. A beautiful bouquet of raspberries, black cherry, cocoa powder, violets, peony and incipient notes of rich soil and cedar introduce a pure, full-bodied wine with pitch-perfect balance and a deep, spherical core of ripe tannin, juicy acidity and reserved concentration. This is not an especially flamboyant wine, but it's incredibly authoritative and sophisticated; and in another decade, it will be just irresistible." (96+pts)

"Extremely primary and backward with a nose of Asian spices and predominantly red fruits plus traces of cassis and earth followed by medium weight, austere, extremely dense flavors underpinned by ripe tannins that are completely buffered by the superb sap. Concentrated and splendidly intense with outstanding length and superb acid/fruit balance. Simply dazzling potential." (91-94pts BH)

"This is ripe yet even more restrained, indeed to the point of reticence though aggressive swirling liberates the blackberry and cassis-infused nose that also possesses a huge array of spice and mineral nuances. The big-bodied, concentrated, intense and superbly powerful flavors are underpinned by very firm tannins that are rugged and robust though not rustic, all wrapped in a youthfully austere finish with plenty of underlying tension as you can really sense the energy here." 707 Richebourg - Vintage 2015Méo-Camuzet1x3 bottle ocb

"The 2015 Richebourg Grand Cru has an expressive bouquet, a little earthier than the 2015 Cros Parantoux, more reserved and statesmanlike, though at the same time it shows impressive clarity and gains stature with every swirl of the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with superb, quite robust tannin that lend this Richebourg the arching structure that can define this vineyard. There is some new oak to be absorbed on the finish, but there is great density and length. Does it have the flamboyance of the Cros Parantoux? Let's see - my bets are with the premier cru at present. I suspect that this will be an imposing Richebourg with time, as Jean-Nicolas Méo himself commented." (94-96pts)

708 Richebourg - Vintage 2016Méo-Camuzet2x1 bottle owc's*

"Reduction presently dominates the nose though there is terrific verve and freshness to the big-bodied, tautly muscular and impressively concentrated flavors that possess an almost painful intensity on the very firmly structured finish that also delivers breathtaking length. Like the Cros it's clear that this is going to require prolonged cellaring yet there is so much dry extract that I suspect that the '16 Richebourg could be approached after only 7 to 8 years though it will very like need close to 20 to reach its full apogee. In a word, brilliant." (94-97pts BH)

713 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2000Clos d'Ambonnay2x1 bottle owc's*

"The new release of Clos d'Ambonnay is absolutely spectacular. The bouquet is deep, complex and utterly refined, as it wafts from the glass in a very pure blend of white peach, apple, a hint of white cherries, chalky soil tones, brioche, fresh almond, smoky Ambonnay overtones and a brilliant base of minerality. On the palate the wine is deep, pure and quite powerful in style, with a great core of fruit, striking transparency, brisk acids, elegant mousse and stunning length and grip on the very, very complex, seamless and still quite youthful finish. This is a breathtaking example of the 2000 vintage that is certainly approachable today, but is still a puppy and will be even better ten or twenty years down the road."(97+pts JG)

Someone compared it to walking into a sausage and cheese shop. Two of my favorite things lol. Chocolate, mushrooms and all types of nuts were found in this insane wine. 723 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1990Graves1x12 bottle owc*

"...I never thought it would come close to being as riveting and magnetic as its older sibling, the 1989. However, it has proven to be nearly as prodigious. One of the hottest years in Bordeaux, 1990, a vintage of enormous yields, even dwarfing yields in 1985 and 1982, produced a fabulously open-knit, seemingly fast track La Mission that, at age 22, shows no signs of fading or losing its grip. The color is slightly more mature and evolved than the 1989's, exhibiting a lighter rim and a less dark blue/ruby/purple hue. Classic La Mission-Haut-Brion aromatics of camphor, licorice, scorched earth, hot bricks, barbecue, cassis, blueberry and kirsch are well displayed."(99pts)

724 Château Leoville Barton - Vintage 2000St. Julien1x12 bottle owc*

"The saturated purple-colored 2000 Leoville Barton is one of the greatest wines ever made at this estate. The wine has smoky, earthy notes intermixed with graphite, camphor, damp earth, jammy cassis, cedar, and a hint of mushroom. Enormous, even monstrous in the mouth, with tremendous extraction, broodingly backward, dense flavors, and copious tannins, this should prove to be one of the longest-lived wines of the vintage and one of the most compelling Leoville Bartons ever made."(96pts)

Broad, expansive flavors come across as rich, pure, and concentrated, but never heavy or coarse. Beautifully integrated tannin and acidity are barely noticeable in this classic, full-bodied, velvety-textured, youthful yet exceptional St.-Julien."*(96pts)

726 Château Leoville Las Cases - Vintage 2009St. Julien2x6 bottle owc's*

"Medium to deep garnet colored, the 2009 Léoville Las Cases rocks up with a drop-dead gorgeous nose of baked blackberries, warm plums and Crème de cassis with suggestions of violets, rose hip tea, dark chocolate, menthol and sandalwood. Full-bodied, rich, concentrated and decadent in the mouth, it has super ripe, fine-grained tannins and seamless freshness, finishing very long and exotic."(99pts)

727 Château Leoville Poyferre - Vintage 2000St. Julien1x12 bottle owc*

"The plushest, most ostentatious and dramatic of all the Leovilles in 2000, this wine is already sumptuous, displaying some nuances in its huge nose of vanilla bean, black chocolate, jammy black cherries, cassis, and graphite in a flamboyant style. Opulent, savory, rich, and full-bodied, it is a head-turning, prodigious wine and a complete contrast to the extracted behemoth of Leoville Barton and the backward, classic Leoville Las Cases. The Poyferre's low acidity, sweet tannin and an already gorgeous mouthfeel make it a wine to drink now as well as over the next 25 or more years."(97pts)

728 Château Montrose - Vintage 1989St. Estephe12bn, 2lstl, 1x12 bottle owc*

"For many years I have vehemently argued that the 1989 Montrose is a benchmark wine for the estate. Having tasted it several times over the last couple of months, I have never found a single occasion to alter that view. Tasted at the vertical in London, it continues to shine, having never lost any of its luster in recent years. It is a blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc that was picked from 11 to 28 September. Lucid in color, the aromatics do not hold back with vibrant blackberry, blueberry and black truffle, hints of sous-bois, all with sensational precision that few can match in this vintage (indeed, its precision lends it a veneer of modernity since "precision" is now more commonplace across Bordeaux). The palate is brilliantly balanced with filigree tannin. There is wonderful backbone here, extremely fresh and tensile, crystalline even with an exceptional detail, mineral-rich finish that lingers in the mouth. Difficult to fault, this might well be the greatest 1989 Montrose that I have tasted, and certainly wishing to take nothing away from the 1990 Montrose that I tasted alongside, the 1989 is now the one I would pick. Is this the greatest Saint Estèphe of the 1980s? I would put it within the top five Bordeaux of the 1980s. Could this be inching its way to perfection???"(100pts)

It possesses extraordinary concentration and unctuousity, with a thick, fat texture oozing notes of cedar wood, tobacco, coffee, and over-ripe fruit. Low acidity as well as high alcohol (for Bordeaux) give the wine even more glycerin and textural chewiness. The finish lasts forever." (100pts)*

"The 2017 La Tâche Grand Cru soars from the glass with a captivating and beautifully integrated bouquet of exotic spices, rose petals, raspberries, cherries and blood orange mingled with notions of cinnamon and coniferous forest floor. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, with a deep and tightly coiled core that marks it out as the most muscular wine in the cellar, displaying considerable concentration and largely concealed structure. While this is a dramatic young La Tâche, there's evidently plenty held in reserve, too, and it simply has appreciably more presence than any of the other wines that preceded it in this tasting." The tannins are present, but they are also matched by tremendous fruit density and pure power. Floral and savory overtones grace the lifted, saline finish. Leaving price aside, if I could only have one wine in this range, it would unquestionably be the RSV. The 2017 is a total knock-out. That's all there is to it." (98pts VM)

"After the sheer brilliance of the Criots, it was frankly difficult to imagine that there was yet another level but this wine delivered it. Though there isn't the sheer density of extract, the focus, detail, minerality and elegance were positively ethereal as this too delivers unreal complexity and this is simply one of the classiest wines I have ever tasted. The flavors are very linear, tight and unyielding yet the underlying material is so good that this comes across as an almost perfect sphere of qualities. Intense, penetrating, driving, palate staining and crystalline in its precision with a finish that I could taste the next day. Another reference standard effort and if this adds additional weight over time, it wouldn't surprise me a bit if my rating were conservative, hard as that is to believe. Profound Chevalier." Then after two hours, it started opening. Within three or four hours, you wanted to elope to a far off land, just you and this wine. It was actually very similar to the bottle I tasted back in 2010 at the La Mission vertical. Mirabelle, honeysuckle and white peach on the nose, with hints of candied pear, are all brilliantly defined. The palate is tensile and beautifully weighted yet weightless, thanks to the silver bead of acidity that delivers immense precision on the finish. It is a wine that demands that you pour it into a glass, sacrifice part of the bottle before it opens and then wait for a glacial unfolding to occur after the wine has been prudently double decanted." (94pts)

l/scl

"Brooding, reticent and completely backward, revealing only reluctant notes of crushed black cherries, ripe earth and a deft touch of wood spice followed by unctuously rich, robust, muscular flavors that display outstanding density and first rate balance. This intensity builds from the mid-palate and finally explodes on the finish with absolutely perfect acid/fruit balance and the phenomenal length just doesn't quit." (92-95pts BH)

820 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 1996

Les Amoureuses, J.F. Mugnier

l/tl, cuc

"Cherry-red. Muskier, more minerally, less fruit-driven aroma of crystallized raspberry and fresh herbs. Urgent raspberry and mineral flavors are firmed and extended by brisk acids. Finishes very long and fine, with terrific snap. There's much more to come here with bottle aging. Very strong." (91+?pts IWC)

821 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2007

Les Amoureuses, J.F. Mugnier

*"Musky peony, brown spices, game, and ripe red berries on the nose of Château de Chambolle's 2007 Chambolle-Musigny Les Amoureuses presage a palate performance of sweet, sumptuous, yet freshly juicy fruit, tinged with rose hip and spices; abundant inner-mouth florality; and savory, lightly-salted meat stock reduction." 822 Musigny - Vintage 1999

J.F. Mugnier

l/cuc

"Mugnier's 1999 Musigny Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine, but a few hours' decant gives a more than adequate sense of its immense quality. A beautiful bouquet of raspberries, black cherry, cocoa powder, violets, peony and incipient notes of rich soil and cedar introduce a pure, full-bodied wine with pitch-perfect balance and a deep, spherical core of ripe tannin, juicy acidity and reserved concentration. This is not an especially flamboyant wine, but it's incredibly authoritative and sophisticated; and in another decade, it will be just irresistible." (96+pts)

824 Volnay - Vintage 2003

Clos des Chenes, M. Lafarge

1x12 bottle ocb

"Sporting a medium to dark ruby/purple color, the 2003 Volnay Clos des Chenes (red) explodes from the glass with spices, rose petals, dark cherries, and blueberries. Seemingly the ripest of the Volnays, it expands on the palate with copious quantities of candied black fruits, cassis liqueur, tar, and licorice. Medium-bodied, it displays outstanding depth and an extended finish that exhibits additional waves of fruit as well as loads of ripe tannin. Projected maturity: 2010-2020." (90-92pts)

12 bottles per lot $1800-2400

825 Chambertin - Vintage 2005

Clos de Bèze, P. Damoy

"This too is very ripe and particularly spicy though a good deal less exotic with more typical aromas of game, underbrush, Gevrey earth and hints of cassis that continue onto the rich, full and sleekly muscled flavors that are mouth coating and hugely long as the finish positively drenches the palate with dry extract. I really like the almost painful intensity here as well as the vibrancy of the finish." (95pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $1500-2000

826 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1985

2x1 magnum ogb's

"We started innocently enough with a bottle of 1985 Krug. As usual, the 1985 Krug delivered an outstanding experience. Full-bodied, tasty and with great balance to its brawn, the Krug had a sturdy finish and the right delicacy to match. It will be a Champagne to enjoy for many years to come and is arguably the Champagne of the vintage." (96pts JK)

2 magnums per lot $2600-3500

827 Louis Roederer Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996

Cristal

"The Cristal was rich with more fatness and a yellow goodness. It was zippy with rich butter flavors and dense minerality, nipping on the heels of the Rose sampled earlier. Roederer definitely killed it in 1996, an opinion I have held for twenty years." (97+Mpts JK)

2 magnums per lot $2000-2800

828 Philipponnat Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996

Clos des Goisses

1nl, 1ltl

"Bright yellow. Leesy, deeply pungent aromas of buttered pear and apple, with a strong impression of jasmine. Deeply concentrated and powerful on the palate, the pear flavor almost liqueur-like in intensity, with a solid frame of minerality and a building toffee note. Finishes with a depth charge of talc-y minerality and a lingering impression of sweet butter. Don't even think of opening one of these for at least another five years." (95pts IWC)

3 magnums per lot $1800-2400

829 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2008

Dujac

"A cool, stony and reserved nose features spice, dark and red berry fruit, obvious earth and smoked game influences, all of which continue onto the intensely mineralinfused big-bodied flavors that for all the size and power remain beautifully detailed on the focused, powerful and moderately austere finish." (94pts BH)

3 magnums per lot $5500-7500

830 Chambertin - Vintage 2008

Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"This is also quite cool and restrained with relatively high-toned red pinot, raspberry and currant aromas sliding gracefully into powerful and impressively broad-scaled flavors that are rich, full, sweet and textured while being underpinned by ample minerality and very firm tannins on the focused, detailed and strikingly long, linear and compact finish." 832 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2008

"Here the nose displays both upper and lower register aromas of elegant red berry fruit, floral notes and plenty of Gevrey-style earth plus a hint of the sauvage that carries over to the intense yet supple and detailed medium-bodied flavors that are balanced, complex, sappy and impressively persistent. A Charmes of refinement and purity with enough youthful austerity present to necessitate waiting at least a few years before cracking one." (93pts BH)

"The 2011 Clos de la Roche from Domaine Dujac is another superb bottle in the making, wafting from the glass in a deep and youthful blend of plums, black cherries, beautifully complex soil tones, gamebirds, coffee, a touch of citrus, violets and vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and still very young (this too was late finishing up its malo and shows still a touch of gas on the backend), with a very soil-driven personality, ripe tannins and excellent length and grip on the youthful and very promising finish." "Here too an adroit application of wood serves as a discreet foil for the more obvious floral aromas that enjoy added scope from the presence of pure, spicy and highly complex red and dark berry scents. There is an abundance of mouth coating extract that imparts a suave, even lush character to the very rich medium-bodied flavors that are an exercise in finesse and refinement while offering controlled power and outstanding length." ## 841 Échézeaux - Vintage 2008

"Dujac's 2008 Échézeaux displays a cool, aloof flavor personality, featuring lightly-cooked yet somehow crisp-edged red fruits, high-toned herbs, and elusive suggestions of salt and peat. These traits are beautifully complimented by subtly soothing creaminess of texture and tannic tenderness for a very Dujac-typical performance. Ravishingly long and refined, this represents a sort of alter ego to the collection's Malconsorts, yet possessed of its own vibrant inner-energy. Look for a dozen years' pleasure and intrigue." "The wine had a stunning nose of sweet, musky, sexy fruit with great earth, stone and honeyed fruit. The palate was rich, lush, supple and soft with light grit. It was very pure with great smoke flavors, and more grit emerging as its lushness tempered in the glass. The acids came out of their initial hiding; at first I thought the wine was fully mature, but later thought that might not be the case. There was a touch of band-aid, tomato, earth and garden flavors. It was super-tasty out of six-liter and hanging on to its outstanding status for now, at least out of six-liter." (95+pts JK)

"A year that is almost completely forgotten, but which produced the most delicious Champagne I have ever drunk. It was a shock of the positive kind when the cork flew off at great speed, and I saw the bubbling drink with its clear, middle-aged color. The nose cannot be described with words, but it was very like the 1945 Mouton Rothschild, with its tremendously rich tone of mint chocolate. There were also layers of fruit and minerals, and the wine was chewy and huge, with a divinely minty, bready, and nectar-like basic taste. The finish was majestic, with a clear tone of truffles and aged wood, alongside the mint chocolate." (99pts RJ)

"An even richer wine than the '64 and '66, although lacking their elegance. The '62 probably reached its peak in the early 1980s. The nose is so strong that you feel it in the room when the wine is poured. It holds the scents of the traveling carnival: popcorn, cotton candy, and vanilla ice cream. In the mouth the Champagne expresses an oily weight and an incredible explosion of riches. Lots of Krug tastes, but slightly bottom-heavy compared with other vintages. Last bottle was incredibly young." (97pts RJ)

Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. I suggest buying a case and following it over the next 20-30 years, which is exactly what I intend to do. There is little doubt the 2006 Comtes de Champagne is a magical Champagne in the making." Selosse shines with celebrated bottles from 2008 and 2009, while twenty-three lots from Krug include magnums of 2002, bottles of 2002 Clos d'Ambonnay, and magnums of 2006 Clos du Mesnil. Salon 2006 and 2007, and selections from Ruinart and Perrier Jouet Belle Epoque provide an added touch of sparkle. Bordeaux First Growths and Right Bank Royalty are well represented, with highlights featuring a magnum of 2000 Mouton Rothschild and a double magnum of 1976 Lafite!! Burgundy collectors will find powerhouses from Rousseau, including 2010 Chambertin Clos de Beze, and DRC's 2015 La Tâche in OWC, alongside 2019 Dujac Clos de la Roche and 2021 Ramonet Montrachet. Additional revelry comes from a vertical of Scarecrow Cabernet from 2009 to 2018 in three-bottle OWCs, and Penfolds Grange spanning 1982 through 2011. Celebrate good times, indeed! All wines removed from professional storage.

894 Château Margaux - Vintage 2015

1x1 bottle owc

"The 2015 Château Margaux is a blend of 87% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Merlot, 3% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot. Medium garnet-purple colored, the nose features oh-so-seductive notes of warm blackberries, cassis and black forest cake with touches of forest floor, sandalwood, anise and cigar boxes plus a waft of lavender. Medium to full-bodied, it delivers taut, muscular, densely packed black fruits and exotic spice flavor layers supported by a very firm backbone of grainy tannins with oodles of freshness and a long, savory finish. It is tightly knit and a little reticent at this very youthful stage; afford it at least 15 years in the cellar, and it will open out into a classic Château Margaux of incredible proportions. Readers may be interested to know that this wine is beautifully packaged in a special commemorative bottle honoring winemaker Paul Pontellier, who passed away in 2016. The gold-etched black bottle bears the message, "Hommage à Paul Pontellier" at the bottom. This 2015 is an achingly beautiful swan song from an incredibly gifted winemaker, taken from us too soon. In my view, this alone makes this vintage more than worth the investment for the many lovers of history in a bottle." (99pts)

895 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2000Pauillac*

"The wine offers a saturated ruby/purple color in addition to reticent but promising aromas of toast, coffee, licorice, Crème de cassis, and roasted nuts. Dense, chewy, and backward, with tremendous purity and density in addition to obvious toasty oak, it is full-bodied, powerful, tannic, and backward. Twenty-four to 48 hours of aeration only hints at its ultimate potential. This blockbuster will be exceptionally long-lived."(97pts)

1 magnum per lot $2400-3200

896 Chambertin - Vintage 2010A. Rousseau*

"Somewhat ironically, this is both more elegant and fresher than the Clos de Bèze with one of the most complex noses of the entire vintage as it combines a seemingly endless array of spice, mineral, fruit and Gevrey sauvage characters. The impressively rich, serious, mouth coating and broad-shouldered flavors possess superb volume and muscle on the sensationally persistent and explosive finish. This is even more backwards than the Bèze and should be capable of rewarding 20 plus years of cellar time as the tannins are also quite fine but very dense."(98pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $3000-4000

897 Chambertin - Vintage 2011A. Rousseau*

"This is completely different from the Bèze aromatically speaking as here the nose is brooding and recalcitrant and only aggressive swirling liberates fresh scents of spice, wet stone, game and dark berry fruits. There is outstanding richness to the powerful and impressively scaled flavors that possess an abundance of dry extract that imparts a velvety quality to the mid-palate while also buffering the tightly wound core of firm tannins on the driving mineral-inflected and hugely persistent finish."(96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1600-2200

898 Chambertin - Vintage 2010Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau2lscl*

"Very deeply colored, indeed this is the mostly deeply tinted of the Rousseau '10s. A gentle touch of wood offsets the highly complex and ultra-fresh nose that interweaves a superb range of floral, spice and distinctly ripe fruit elements. The seductively textured, detailed, pure and vibrant broad-shouldered flavors display a subtle minerality before terminating in an explosive, powerful and tautly muscled finish that delivers massive length."(97pts)

899 Chambertin - Vintage 2015Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseauscl*

"The 2015 Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru is spectacular, wafting from the glass with a dramatic bouquet of sweet grilled meat, red and black fruit, candied peel and rich soil. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul."(97pts)

900 La Tâche - Vintage 2015Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x1 bottle owc*

"The 2015 had so much muscle up front. It was brimming with crushed rocks laced with rose petals rising from the glass. It was so rich and full-bodied with some goodie goodie woodsy edges. This was a monster of a wine with an endless finish, but a beautiful monster. The 2015 was decadent, with a hint of bouillon, but still very much primary."(98pts JK)

Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon."*(98pts VM)

"... offers up a deep, pure and youthful bouquet of fresh apricot, pear, a marvelously complex base of chalky soil tones, hints of the Crème patissière to come, a dollop of fresh nutmeg and a nice touch of citrus zest in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and seamless, with the inherent power of the 2002 vintage very much in evidence in its bottomless core, but with the overall profile of the wine one of unrepentant refinement. As stunningly beautiful as the fruit component is here, the wine is more defined by its brilliant mineral drive on the palate, with its elegant mousse, perfect balance and very, very long, nascently complex and laser-like finish the stuff of legends. The wine seems to attain its lift and backend energy from its limestone mineral drive, rather than the bright, zesty acidity and the overall impression is of almost otherworldly perfection."(100pts JG)

"The 2014s, where the production of Napanook was only 2,200 cases and Dominus slightly more than the 2015 at 4,000 cases, was another early harvest, although somewhat later than 2015. The 2014 Dominus, which is 86% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Cabernet Franc and 7% Petit Verdot really struts its stuff. Moueix's belief in dry farming seems to be paying off with stronger and stronger vintages, each successive year, and the 2014 is a sexy, opulent, layered, multidimensional wine with notes of red and blackcurrant, cedar wood, tobacco leaf, spice box and licorice. The color is a dense plum/ruby/purple, much like the Napanook. This is a beauty that is already drinking gorgeously as most 2014s are and will continue to evolve for 25 or so years."(97pts)

The 2010 Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon (100% Cabernet Sauvignon) is a magnificent wine. Full-bodied and opulent with terrific purity, an intriguing, gravelly, wet stone-like minerality, and a sensational perfume, it has a spectacular finish that lasted over 45 seconds, offering up copious quantities of black currants, black cherries, cedar and vanillin. It is one of the superstars of the vintage. It is accessible now because of the sweetness of the tannins, but make no mistake, there is plenty of structure underlying the luxurious fruit levels. 2x6 bottle ogb's

"2011 was of course a difficult, uncharacteristically rainy vintage in South Australia and particularly Barossa, but thanks to Penfolds' privileged position with access to some of the region's best fruit, they have nonetheless been able to blend an impressive Grange. Still sourced mainly from Barossa Valley, there's a good dollop of McLaren Vale fruit (21%) a region less affected by the rains in 2011 - contributing to this vintage. Interestingly, it is the 6th vintage ever to consist of 100% Shiraz, mainly because the Cabernet Sauvignon didn't make the grade this year. (Note that no Bin 707 Cabernet Sauvignon was produced in 2011.) Deep purple colored, in typical fashion the nose of the 2011 Grange is still closed at this youthful stage with broody tar and pepper laced notes over a core of blackberries, black plums, licorice and loam. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is taut and muscular with pepper and baking spice flavors supported by firm, grainy tannins. The finish has great length, contributing a refreshing lift."(93pts)

1040 Ridge Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1984

Monte Bello

"While this wine is not as reserved and tight as most 8-year old Ridge Cabernets, it still needs another 5-10 years of cellaring. It should prove to be a 30-year wine. The color is dark ruby with no signs of age. With airing the reticent nose reveals attractive floral, mineral, and blackcurrant aromas. This full-bodied, powerful, structured wine has high tannins and ample evidence of rich, gamey fruit." (95pts)
