Superb Bordeaux and Napa

The Property of a Lady

LOTS 50-122

The wines offered below represent the thinning of a larger collection necessitated by a move. The Bordeaux were either purchased on or soon after release at retail, or auction, and most of the Napa wines directly from the producers. The collectors' Napa favorites are well represented here—Dana, Kongsgaard, Spottswoode, Staglin, Harlan, and Phelps—all classics. Note also the Ports, and Leflaive white Burgundies. The Bordeaux are apex wines—all five first growths are represented—and most are in original cases. All wines were removed from long term refrigerated storage.

Château Lafite Rothschild 2018

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
two 6-pack banded original wood cases*

"A very compact and linear Lafite with a fantastic mouth-feel of intense but ever so refined tannins that draw a straight line through the middle of the wine. It's full-bodied yet compact with complex character of plums, blackcurrants, cigar tobacco, cedar and hints of hazelnuts and coffee. Salty. Orange zest at the end. Delicacy with power. Richness with softness. Glamorous. Lasts for minutes at the finish...99-100." JS 4/19.

52 12 bottles US$5,500-8,000

Château Latour 2003

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
6-pack original wood case
released from the cellar of Château Latour in 2017*

"...full-bodied, opulent 2003 is already performing well at age eleven, which is somewhat atypical....Dense, thick and unctuously textured, this staggering Latour is undeniably the most sumptuous, opulent wine made here since the 1982 or 1961. Drink it over the next two decades...100." WA 8/14.

Château Margaux 2015

Margaux, Premier Cru Classé individual original wood case

"The greatest Margaux ever made. More than perfection. Full body, firm and ultra-silky tannins. Black currant, mineral and floral character. It starts slowly and seems almost endless on the palate. Seamless. I want to sing! This is the wine that Margaux never made in some of the classic vintages like 1961, 1959 and 1945. Maybe it's the 1900 all over again? Breathtaking... 100." JS 4/16.

DIRECT FROM THE ESTATE: HERMITAGE LA CHAPELLE, A LEGEND IN EVERY BOTTLE (LOTS 422-473)

Zachys is delighted to offer, direct from the winery, a rare back-vintage selection of the ne plus ultra of Hermitage, "La Chapelle."

Few wines command the reverence and awe of La Chapelle — a benchmark of Syrah and one of the world's most iconic cuvées. Named after the historic chapel that overlooks the terraced slopes of Hermitage, which dates to the 13th century, La Chapelle is a wine of profound depth, ageability, and origin. Sourced from the appellation's most revered lieux-dits—Le Méal, Les Bessards, and Les Rocoules—it has captivated collectors and critics alike for decades. This is a rare opportunity to acquire direct-from-estate vintages of a true legend in French winemaking. This offering includes rare vintages such as 1944, 1959, 1978, 1989, 1990 (including magnums) and even an 18-liter bottle of the 2005! The winner of the 1978 Magnum will also receive a VIP tasting at the Estate (travel not included).

It is rare, even in our auctions, to come across La Chapelle with this level of maturity and provenance. The wines in this offering have never left the estate and were delivered to Zachys in refrigerated conditions directly. You will find in the assessment notes information about the reconditioning of certain bottles. These wines have been reconditioned using the Eternam process by Paetzold (read more about this at <https://michaelpaetzold.com/>). The bottles are opened in a fully inert atmosphere, and topped up, if necessary, with wine from the same vintage from Jaboulet's reserve. The wines are tasted by the winery's team of oenologists prior to reconditioning.

Rare Wines from

A Connecticut Collection

LOTS 474-782

A cornerstone of this auction comes to us from professional wine storage in Connecticut from a collector with decades of experience in the restaurant and wine industries. What struck the Zachys team the most on inspection of this offering was the pristine nature of every bottle and case. From 2014 Romanée-Conti to 2015-2018 Pétrus, to multiple case quantities of Lafite, Margaux, Mouton, Latour, Haut-Brion, and Cheval Blanc, there is the right vintage of pristine Bordeaux and Burgundy for every collection. But there's also Figeac, Scarecrow, La Conseillante, Opus One, Yquem, Canon, Cristal—in no particular order, all of the world's great wines, at every price point, are represented here, and almost all (as noted) in their original packaging. Bid with absolute confidence.

BORDEAUX

Château Ausone 2018

St Emilion, Premier Grand Cru Classé (a) one 3-pack original wood case

"The 2018 Ausone is off the charts. Deep, sensual and mysterious, the 2018 is going to need many years to show the full breadth of its potential. And yet, there is so much there. Rich and concentrated on the palate, with phenomenal persistence, the 2018 is loaded with energy, tension and precision, offering a compelling interplay of opulence, saline intensity and structure. It is without question one of the wines of the vintage...97-100." VM 4/19.

"Haut-Brion is often a thrilling wine, but it is rarely this finessed in its youth. Gravel, cure meat, tobacco and cedar are some of the many nuances that develop with air, but it is an extraordinary sense of harmony that really stands out. What a wine!...100." AG 1/19.

Château Haut-Brion 2017

Pessac Léognan, Premier Cru Classé
two 6-pack original wood cases

"A hugely captivating wine, one of the contenders for red of the vintage. There's an incredible plush, dense texture to the fruit here, with just the slightest pulling back on the final section that suggests the damson, cassis and black cherry fruit is not at the full extent of ripeness seen in 2016 and 2015, but there is absolutely no question that this is a successful, rich and well-expressed wine. It's extremely powerful and well constructed, with great tannins and a succulence which grows through the palate...97." Decanter 4/18.

Medium to full-bodied, the intensity on the palate builds from delicate, beguiling nuances with ethereal weight to a full-on fireworks display of flavor sparks, framed by fantastic freshness and very finely pixilated tannins, finishing long, layered and invigorating...97-99." "This was one of the most impressive wines from the estate when I tasted it from barrel. Now in bottle, it has a gorgeous bouquet of beautifully defined blackberry, bilberry, dark chocolate and graphite aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, perhaps suppler than Cos d'Estournel and more velvety in terms of texture. A dash of cracked black pepper and allspice appears toward the finish, which fans out gloriously...96." VM 1/19.

Château Calon Ségur 2018*St Estèphe, Troisième Cru Classétwo 6-pack original wood cases*

"A stratospheric, regal wine, Calon Ségur embodies all the best qualities of the vintage. Rich to the point of being exotically ripe, 2018 reminds me of the 2014 in its composition, but with more of everything. On the palate, the 2018 is towering and statuesque, with soaring structure and tremendous overall intensity. Striking aromatic top notes and bright saline underpinnings give the 2018 its energy, tension and nuance. As in 2014, the entirety of the chateau's Cabernet Franc went into the Grand Vin. Inky, powerful and explosive, Calon Ségur is a headspinning wine...96-99." VM 4/19.

"Sleek, elegant and appealing even before you get your nose near the glass. Aromatically it is deep and rich, and then it revs up and takes off. Dense, compact and intense, zingy limestone vibrancy and grip. Winemakers say they are looking for balance all the time, but here you feel it, with tiny pulses of electricity that appear from beginning to end of the palate. Salinity on the finish with gunsmoke and extremely moreish blueberry and blackberry fruit, with a creamy texture as things open up...98." Decanter 5/20.

Château Clinet 2016*Pomeroltwo 6-pack original wood cases*

"This is a wine that makes you want to slow down, take your time and let those flavours envelop you. It's a little subdued right now, but the texture pulls you in and holds on tight. There is Cabernet in the DNA here and you feel it: a touch of austerity in the first breath, then an intense punch of dark, tight cassis fruits with a liquorice and dark chocolate finish. It's taken on more flesh on the bones during ageing, with the aromatics blossoming through the glass and revealing floral, violet-stained edging and a silky smooth tannic frame...97." Decanter 1/19.

Château Cos d'Estournel 2018*St Estèphe, Deuxième Cru Classétwo 6-pack original wood cases*

"A regal, soaring Saint-Estèphe, the 2018 Cos d'Estournel is also clearly one of the wines of the vintage. On the palate, the 2018 is dark and sumptuous, with striking aromatic presence and silky tannins that wrap around a rich core of exotic fruit. Black cherry, savory herbs, leather, spice and menthol build in the glass in a wine that is both aromatically intense and richly textured. The 2018 has been nothing short of breathtaking on the two occasions I have tasted it so far. Don't miss it...97-100." AG 4/19.

Château La Mission Haut-Brion 2018*Pessac Léognan, Cru Classétwo 6-pack original wood cases*

"... beguiling nose of earth and soft-spoken fruit, opening with wild blueberries, wet slate, pencil lead and fresh black cherries giving way to a serious core of blackcurrant cordial, baked plums and wild sage, and then exposing delicate wafts of rose hip tea and candied violets. Full-bodied...super intense with amazing restraint and energy focused around very firm, exquisitely fine-grained tannins and seamless freshness, finishing incredibly long and fantastically multilayered. Extraordinary wine...98-100." WA 4/19.

Château La Mission Haut-Brion 2019*Pessac Léognan, Cru Classétwo 6-pack original wood cases*

"A tight and structured La Mission that takes you deep into the glass with super intensity and power. The tannins are omnipresent and envelop the palate. It's full-bodied yet agile and complete. Iodine, sweet-tobacco and blackberry character. It seems never to finish. Another WOW wine that reminds me of some of the great classics of this estate, such as the 1955...99-100." JS 6/20.

The Pristine Private Collection of Stephen Ross

LOTS 783-904

It's amazing what you can glean about a collector from his wines alone.

Instantly upon entering the late Stephen A. Ross's custom-built, temperature-and-humidity-controlled subterranean home cellar in Connecticut, we knew Steve was serious about wine.

First, and most importantly, the conditions of the bottles are utterly pristine. A look through this catalog and you will agree—even on older bottles, the levels are high and seepage is nonexistent. Steve clearly knew that for mature wine to perform at its best, storage is paramount.

Second, the wide array of wines in the cellar speaks to the breadth of his interest. Steve knew the greats—an assortment case of 1985 DRC, 1953 Lafite magnums (times eight!), a case of magnums of the legendary '74 Heitz Martha's Vineyard, 1959 Latour, and so on. But he also collected Riesling, a d-mag of '74 Mondavi Reserve, 1980 Rayas blanc, and a wide array of Burgundy. Uniformly they were kept in excellent condition.

Lastly, Steve's record keeping was noteworthy. It is rare for a collector to keep such diligent records; they should serve to reassure buyers that the collection was of utmost importance to Steve. We have peppered the catalog with a few examples of Steve's records but there are more—if you have a question on provenance, please ask. Old Zachys catalogs, even older Christie's catalogs, retail receipts, hand-typed inventories from the early '90s—this was a collector who was passionate and meticulous.

Steve was a professor of financial economics at Yale University and MIT and this collection was amassed over the course of his long career. He loved sharing his collection with friends and family, teaching about the wines as he poured. We are delighted to offer it to you. Bid with confidence, as collections that so seamlessly merge excellent conditions, provenance, and wines, are few and far between.

The Estate of A Lifelong Collector

LOTS 905-1214

This truly phenomenal collection comes to us from a purpose-built refrigerated cellar in New Jersey. From the estate of a true connoisseur, our specialists were delighted by the breadth and depth of wine on offer. What's more, these wines were bought over the course of decades and never moved from the cellar.

It is rare to find a cellar this immaculate and made up of such rare wines. As you can see as you peruse the catalog, the collector appreciated the wines he collected, as is represented by less-than-full-case lots.

Some highlights include:

Three 1993 Leroy Musigny
Sixteen 1990 Roumier Bonnes-Mares
Three 1988 and one 1990 Romanée-Conti
Five 1990 La Tâche
Six 1993 Rousseau Chambertin
Nineteen 1989 Haut-Brion
Two each 1990 and 1993 Roumier

	Gevrey-Chambertin Clos St Jacques Armand Rousseau 1999 Côte de Nuits, Premier Cru four 1cm, one lightly bin-soiled label "The 1999 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos Saint-Jacques 1er Cru has long been one of my favourite vintages, not that I get to taste it that often. It has an almost extravagant bouquet that delivers plush Morello cherry, wild strawberry and light cassis aromas and with aeration, these ebb to reveal more tertiary notes and a touch of pencil shavings. The palate displays exquisite balance, this being 1999, more fuller and corpulent than other vintages...97." NM 5/19.

A First Class, Single Owner Collection

Red Burgundies 1959-2007

LOTS 1215-1268

This superb group of mostly red Burgundies from an American collection established over fifty years ago is remarkable for three reasons: the quality and renown of the producers, the purchase and importation by refrigerated container into the U.S. soon after release (excepting the 1959 Chambertin Leroy), and continuous storage since then in natural underground (55-64F) and refrigerated (62F) cellars. The selection and handling reflect the long experience and sophistication of the collector.

Finest

White Burgundies & Sparklers

LOTS 1320-1399

A gorgeous array of wines from one of the biggest collectors and lovers of white Burgundy, as well as a longtime Zachys client. Looking to thin out their massive collection, they've decided to pull these wines out of professional storage and home cellar for auction. And what incredible wines they are! You should be salivating at the thought of Bâtard and Bienvenues Bâtard from Ramonet as well as the Cristal and Cristal Rosé. But the reds aren't to be missed either with a full case of 1999 Leroy Clos de Vougeot or 2009 Richebourg Gros Frère et Sœur!

Almost everything was purchased on release over the past four decades of collecting.

"This remains a notably serious wine despite the relatively round and velvety mid-palate texture that rapidly transforms into a very firm finish. In sum this is a really fine effort that should age, and drink, gracefully for years to come...96." BH 4/17.

"This has a load of grapefruit and lemon and a flinty, reductive edge, as well as attractive, stony notes. Long, ethereal palate with a super juicy array of white peaches, lemon curd and yellow grapefruit. Beautifully fleshy and supple with pitch-perfect, balanced acidity. Very intense, long finish. Mouthwatering. Great wine, from 80-year-old vines. Drink over the next decade...95-96." JS 2/19.
