Graves

vhs, stl, sdc, cuc, outstanding color

"The 1975 La Mission-Haut-Brion has been the most consistent wine of the vintage. Super-concentrated, and now beginning to shed enough tannin so that it can be fully appreciated, this enormously constituted La Mission-Haut-Brion has developed that fabulous Graves set of aromatics - tobacco, black fruits, minerals, roasted herbs, and cedar. Huge, massive, thick, and succulent, with moderate tannin, and some amber notes at the edge... it comes closest in style to resembling the 1945, with a hint of the sweet, ripe 1959." (100pts)

6 Chambertin - Vintage 1996

A. Rousseau

"As great as so many of the wines that we had already tasted on this magical evening, this next flight of reds absolutely stole the show. It began with a spectacular bottle courtesy of Big Mike. The first thing I wrote was, WOW. The Rousseau was meaty, intense and DEEP; it was full of rose, iron, crushed red fruits, vitamins, tannins, alcohol, acidity, brick, iron, wildfire it was game over. As Eli decreed, that s it. The palate was rich, hearty and incredible with its rose, oil, game and vitamin flavors. This was wine was flat out incredible." (97pts JK)

"Deepest red of the Rousseau '98s. Sexy oak, mocha and smoked meat to go along with red fruit aromas. Concentrated, dense and sweet, with captivating black fruit flavors. Not nearly as backward as it appeared from barrel, but this substantial wine has the balance to develop in bottle for many years. Finishes with chocolatey, mounting tannins and excellent persistence." (92pts IWC)

"The 1999 Rousseau Chambertin was so ample, yet still a teenager. There was more purple to its deep fruit. Jennie P. admired its awesome make up and complexity.' Despite being so young, it opened up in the glass a bit, resulting in the best bottle of this that I can ever remember having. It was thick, long and spectacular. Gentleman Jim, who was starting to resemble One-Eyed Jack lol, hailed it 'my favorite at some point.' What a flight." (97pts JK)

9 Chambertin - Vintage 2000

A. Rousseau

"The phenomenal aromatic complexity displayed by this wine from cask is still present with relatively tight but not hard frank, direct and robust flavors that have plenty of buffering fat and superb length. As I noted in my original tasting note, this will not compete for the longest lived Rousseau Chambertin yet it is packed, powerful and beautifully complex and is an outstanding wine in any context but particularly so for the vintage. Because there is so much fat, this can be enjoyed now but will clearly offer more fireworks in the future so I would be inclined to let this baby rest for at least another 5 years and longer if you can keep your hands off of it." "I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin almost as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage."(99pts BH)

"Somewhat ironically, this is both more elegant and fresher than the Clos de Bèze with one of the most complex noses of the entire vintage as it combines a seemingly endless array of spice, mineral, fruit and Gevrey sauvage characters. The impressively rich, serious, mouth coating and broad-shouldered flavors possess superb volume and muscle on the sensationally persistent and explosive finish. This is even more backwards than the Bèze and should be capable of rewarding 20 plus years of cellar time as the tannins are also quite fine but very dense."(98pts BH)

"Even the redoubtable Jetski couldn't deny that the 1991 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze was 'f'ing good.' He was right about that! The 1991 Rousseau was deeply complex and still ascending. Rich, ripe and sexy, it was full of loads of red cherry and great spice. This wine put the pedal to the metal; it was so decadent and sumptuous. Jetski changed his mind, now the Rousseau was 'f'ing phenomenal.' He added, 'still 20 years too young'"(98pts JK)

"There was something extraordinary about this bottle of 1993 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze, bordering on supernatural. Everything I could ask for in a great Burgundy was there - ripe red fruits, forest floor and the complexity of terroir, breed, style, length. The fruit had a catnip-like quality that made me feel happy and silly, and its acidity and finish said, I know I'm good now, but just you wait and see.' It was impossible to stop drinking, even in the context of a dozen plus other, fabulous Rousseau reds. 141 Musigny - Vintage 2008*J.F. Mugnier"The 2008 Musigny is an infant, but it captures the essence of this important red Burgundy vintage to the fullest. There is gorgeous subtlety and nuance to the fruit, along with magnificent aromatics and the most elegant of tannins. The 2008 needs time for the elements to harmonize, but there is no mistaking the profoundness of what is developing in bottle. Today the Musigny shows a little more density and a touch better balance with its tannins than the Bonnes Mares, but both of Mugnier's Grand Crus in 2008 are truly grand. I had said that it would evolved slowly but just how slowly was also hidden from me. The nose is still completely primary and the big, rich and meaty flavors are supported by a pronounced tannic spine and excellent finishing power on the hugely long backend. There is a nice core of pinot sap to balance the tannins and this should continue to evolve slowly over the next 10 years and last a good deal longer. A terrific effort." "D'Angerville's 2005 Volnay Taillepièdes features a red and black currant melange that is juicy, bright and bracing throughout, accompanied by savory salinity, roasted meatiness, forest floor, and stony, chalky mineral dimensions. A Volnay with terrific delineation and refined tannins in its long, mouth-watering finish, this should be exciting to follow for at least 10-12 years, provided today's quality is captured in the bottle. "Whenever I have the pleasure to taste Jacky Truchot's example of Clos de la Roche, I am reminded of the Ponsot wine as it would be if it were not picked on the late side for maximum ripeness. The 2001 Truchot is a dynamite young vintage of Clos de la Roche, soaring from the glass in a sappy mélange of red cherries, wild strawberries, mustard seed, strong notes of soil, a hint of venison, coffee and a topnote of roses. On the palate the wine is full-bodied, deep and tangy, with excellent depth at the core, laser-like focus, and great length and grip on the moderately tannic finish. Superb stuff by a wine-maker at the peak of his powers. While this wine is delicious today, it deserves to be buried for at least seven or eight years in the cellar to allow it to fully blossom." "There are only 150 cases of Truchot's 2005 Morey-St.-Denis Les Blanchards, which offers pungent incense and resin along with high toned almond and pistachio and pure, sweetly ripe plum and black cherry. It has a fascinating bouquet with scents of white flower, walnut, almond and white chocolate that is beautifully defined. With a few minutes in the glass, there is a hint of wild heather. The palate is very well balanced with a silver bead of acidity that cuts through the harmonious citrus fruit. It just exudes precision and nervosité, that hint of reduction towards the finish directing you to the one producer who knows how to use that to great effect. Wonderful. Wonderfully suave on entry, then demonstrates pure grand cru class in the middle palate, with brilliantly delineated peach and citrus flavors lifted by crushed stone and minerals. A wine with great power and cut and yet almost magically light on its feet. Goes on and on on the back end; due to its palate-drenching extract, it's hard to get this wine off your palate (but that's no complaint!)." (97+?pts IWC)

"The 2010 Meursault Perrières is so good that it seems to momentarily stop time. The bouquet is astonishing: laden with limestone scents, white peach, citrus peel and just a hint of truffle that all exhibit razor-sharp delineation. The palate is vibrant and quintessential Perrières, leaning as it does towards Puligny in style. There is a light lick of wild honey towards the finish that lingers seductively in the mouth and then a deliriously fine honeycomb note on the aftertaste. Even more unevolved than the Montrachet, it needs 5-10 years of cellaring and should last for 20-30 years. "A 1992 Raveneau Chablis Les Clos popped out and had a sweet rainwater nose with lots of citrusy fruit and sweet corn kisses. Its palate was long, round and tender. "Raveneau's 2002 Chablis Les Clos is off the charts. Limestone, chalk, spices, white peaches, and minerals can be made out in its aromatics (these are less expressive than Raveneau's other 2002s, typical for a young Les Clos). A powerful, full-bodied effort, it reveals a personality of awe-inspiring intensity, depth, and concentration. Pure, dense, muscular, exceptionally well-balanced, this brilliant wine boats a complex flavor profile of salty pears, earth, flint, and hints of candied lemons. Wow!..."(98-100pts)

 "Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting (Jeroboam Tasted)." (98+pts VM)

"... offers up a deep, pure and youthful bouquet of fresh apricot, pear, a marvelously complex base of chalky soil tones, hints of the Crème patissière to come, a dollop of fresh nutmeg and a nice touch of citrus zest in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and seamless, with the inherent power of the 2002 vintage very much in evidence in its bottomless core, but with the overall profile of the wine one of unrepentant refinement. As stunningly beautiful as the fruit component is here, the wine is more defined by its brilliant mineral drive on the palate, with its elegant mousse, perfect balance and very, very long, nascently complex and laser-like finish the stuff of legends. The wine seems to attain its lift and backend energy from its limestone mineral drive, rather than the bright, zesty acidity and the overall impression is of almost otherworldly perfection." "This bottle of the 1996 Blanc de Blancs Le Mesnil Brut was drinking superbly and represents the apotheosis of Blanc de Blancs, unfurling over the course of three hours with a stunningly complex bouquet of citrus oil, confit lemon, dried white flowers and oyster shell, with hints of praline and pastry cream becoming more pronounced as the wine opens up in the glass. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, defined by the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is cloaked in layers of crisp fleshy and chalky extract. A BREATH-taking SELECTION
FROM THE CULTIVATED COLLECTION OF A NEW YORK OENOPHILE

We are honored to welcome back this longtime collector, whom we most importantly call a great friend. He is the ideal combination of a vinous scholar, bon vivant and gentleman. He shares our true love for all things fine and rare and offers nearly two hundred selections from a combination of temperature-controlled home and professional storage. This is, indeed, a breathtaking assortment of the world's finest and rarest wines highlighted by iconic Bordeaux back to 1947, including legendary wines from 1955, 1959, and 1961, as well as double magnums of 1989 and 1990 Petrus! Eighteen selections of Armand Rousseau feature four original 12-bottle cases highlighted by 1995 and 2002 Chambertins! Twenty selections of Domaine de la Romanee Conti follow in fine fashion led by dueling Jeroboams of Echezeaux before a crown jewel bottle of 1971 Romanee Conti, and that barely scratches the surface! There are ten lots of Dujac all 1996-2002, complemented by twelve selections of Roumier and Jayer, including two vintages of Cros Parantoux and a very rare 1990 Beaux Monts! Seven lots of pre-1980 reds from Maison Leroy lead us to White Burgundy, which unfurls a powerhouse selection of Arnaud Ente, Bernard Moreau, Coche-Dury, Comte Lafon, D'Auvenay (Leroy), Domaine de la Romanee Conti, Domaine Leflaive, Roulot, Pillot, Pierre-Yves Colin Morey, and Raveneau – that's what we call dealer's choice! There are almost twenty selections of Coche, including five vintages of Corton Charlemagne and six bottles of the delightfully drinkable 2011 Perrieres. Six vintages of DRC Montrachet back to 1990 blow the royal horns for 14 assorted lots of PYCM. We have further selections from Rayas (a full case of 1995!), Guigal, Dom Perignon and Krug while Giacosa, Giacomo Conterno, Gaja and Ornellaia wave the flag for Italy. A six-bottle OWC of 1997 Harlan Estate crown this incredible collection! This is an offering of nothing but the most iconic names in all of fine wine, a wonderful selection of some of the best there is from a collection that has been growing for over three decades. It is always an immense pleasure to share bottles with this collector, and it is our honor to represent his collection to you!

429 Château Ausone - Vintage 1947

St. Emilion

htms, hbsl, ll, nl, illegibly pitted cork, excellent color

"The next two reds stole the show, as they should have. The first had great cobwebs in the nose, like walking into a tomb full of wine treasure. Dust, leather, earth, carob and caramel were all there in supporting roles. A hint of Mouton mint and menthol crept in, but this was not Mouton. The palate was rich and saucy, chocolaty and minty. The acidity was superb and noticeably long, giving tremendous lift to an already spicy finish. Everyone quickly agreed that this was wine of the night, a true 'palate coater.' This magnum of 1947 Ausone was worth a trip to Switzerland! It was so minty and so delicious, rusty and spiny to the last drop. Traces of gardenia lingered in my empty glass" (97pts JK)

436 Château Latour - Vintage 1961*Pauillacms, lbsl, hcuc, scc, outstanding color*

"Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château's tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. An extraordinary wine, it is unquestionably one of the Bordeaux legends of the century!..."(100pts)

437 Château Latour a Pomerol - Vintage 1962*Pomerolhs, wisl, scc, excellent color*

"Tasted at the Latour-à-Pomerol vertical in London. This was the first and who knows, maybe the only time that I will taste the rare-as-hens'-teeth 1962 Latour-à-Pomerol. Extrapolating from this singular experience, all I can say is: What a wine. The bouquet takes your breath away so refined and poised, extraordinarily pure with sandalwood and dried herbs, just a hint of truffle, very Pomerol in style, faded by time yet still compelling. The palate displays exquisite balance and elegance, and yet underneath the bonnet is a purring motor. Imagine a Swiss clock, all the cogs whirring away in perfect harmony, and you might be able to imagine this elixir. It is the effortlessness and natural sense of composure that not only defies its age, but provides a drinking experience that is as satisfying as younger and fruitier vintages. Are other bottles as otherworldly as this? I hope to find out one day, but all I can say is that it is up there with the great postwar Pomerols that I have been fortunate to taste. Tasted December 2015."(97pts)

"Multi-millionaire collectors will have fun comparing the 1989 and 1990 Pétrus. The 1989 has a slightly more saturated color, and seems more tightly knit both aromatically and on the palate. However, this is splitting hairs, as this is another stunningly opulent, rich, full-bodied, amazingly concentrated, exotic, flamboyant Pétrus that remains remarkably youthful, and in need of more years of bottle age. Additionally, the tannins are slightly more elevated, at least from a tactile impression. However... extraordinary equilibrium between all of its component parts. An amazing effort!"(100pts)

"Out of barrel, I thought that the '99 Rousseau Charmes was good, but not out of the realm of usual performances of this cuvée in the Rousseau lineup. However, out of bottle, the '99 Charmes is perhaps the finest example of this wine that I have tasted. The nose, often correct but rather dilute, is deep and soars from the glass in a blaze of baked black cherries, wild strawberries, coffee, a bit of grilled meats, minerals and a touch of cedary wood. On the palate this usually rather fluid wine is medium-full, deep and intensely-flavored, with a rock solid core of fruit, round, ripe tannins, tangy acids, and excellent length and grip on the complex finish. This is a fine, fine bottle of Charmes. "(91pts VM)

"Knockout aromas of wonderfully intense black and red cherry fruit loaded with cassis and a touch of new oak introduce medium-bodied, sweet, harmonious, very expressive and long flavors all underpinned by racy minerality and firm structure. The tannins are prominent but ripe and the density of extract is impressive and this both coats and stains the palate. As it always does, this delivers finesse with real mid-palate punch with near perfect grace. "(92pts BH)

457 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2002

Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau

"Tasted blind in Hong Kong, the Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint Jacques 2002 from Rousseau is just a sublime expression of the vineyard and the style of the domaine. The bouquet offers startling delineation with red cherries, crushed strawberry, wet limestone and rose petals. The palate is elegant and refined in keeping with the more understated style of the vintage, the acidity finely tuned and with a gradual crescendo of red berry and mineral notes that fan out in consummate fashion on the finish. It's just a beautiful wine that is now at a beautiful stage of its life. Irresistible!" (96pts)

"Pure, sweet, fresh black cherry fruit, marrowy and enveloping carnal richness, mysteriously enticing florality, low-toned, chalky minerality and accents of black tea and star anise are featured in this remarkably seamless wine. Meat, minerals and mystery dominate a finish that is profoundly layered yet preserves sheer palate-cleansing refreshment and positively vibrates with vividly fresh fruit intensity..." (94-96pts)

459 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2009

Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau

"We had some Clos St. Jacques action next, starting with a rich and sweet 2009 Rousseau Gevrey Chambertin Clos St. Jacques. This was full of honey and sweet and ripe, showing the characteristic of the 2009 vintage in Burgundy very clearly. There was still tension to it despite its succulence. It was clearly a great Rousseau with rich, decadent, saucy red and purple fruit flavors." (96+pts JK)

462 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 1996

Clos des Ruchottes, A. Rousseau

"Pierre Rovani's archived note quotes Charles Rousseau remarking that the 1996 might turn out superior to the 1990 Clos des Ruchottes. Judging them together, Charles was spot on. This brilliant grand cru has an open, generous, very expressive bouquet with fresh strawberry, iron piping, damp soil notes and later a sprig of wild heather. It is absolutely glorious. The palate is underpinned by firm tannins and decked out with dark berries and sloe, a touch of black truffle peeking its head out from under the covers toward the tannic finish that is like walking down an unlit alley at midnight. I suspect that the 1996 has a long life ahead of it. There is an overwhelming sense of aristocracy here, a Clos des Ruchottes with pretensions towards Clos-de-Bèze! Superb. Drink now-2035. Tasted September 2013." (96pts)

467 La Romanée - Vintage 2017*Comte Liger-Belair*

The 2017 La Romanée Grand Cru is characteristically impressive, unfurling in the glass with an extravagant bouquet of cassis, violets, dark chocolate, espresso roast, sweet spices, orange rind and rose hip that has integrated its lavish framing of new wood more completely than any other wine in the cellar. On the palate, it's full-bodied, ample and satiny with a deep, sapid core of concentrated fruit that largely conceals its broad structural shoulders, concluding with a pungently intense but subtly wood-inflected finish. This has the makings of a comparatively precocious vintage of La Romanée that will offer a broad drinking window. (94-96pts)

468 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2017*Clos du Château, Comte Liger-Belair1x6 bottle custom owc*

"The 2013 Clos du Château is also a very pretty example of the vintage, with a bit more gras at the core than the Colombière and the same perfumed elegance. The bouquet wafts from the glass in a mix of red plums, raspberries, fresh herb tones, coffee, a lovely base of soil and a bit of nutty new wood. On the palate the wine is pure, fullish and quite soil-driven in personality, with a good core, fine-grained tannins and lovely balance on the tangy and nascently complex finish. A fine village." "Sweet, pure and completely classic mostly red pinot fruit aromas are enhanced by subtle nuances of floral notes, damp earth, underbrush and even a hint of game. The big, muscular but utterly refined flavors are superbly intense, reserved and backward supported by remarkably sophisticated tannins and stunning length. This is a very concentrated wine of real breed and impeccable balance that should age for 3 decades, perhaps longer." (93pts BH)

472 Échézeaux - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Contibsl, scl, sdc*

"The soaring nose of spicy cassis, black cherry and violets this displayed from cask has now become very reserved and brooding, merging into rich, full and utterly delicious flavors that possess a beguiling texture and unusually fine tannins compared to what I typically see with the Ech. This is a big wine by any measure with excellent mid-palate density and superb length. Really good stuff and as the "value" play in the DRC line-up, one to strongly consider because it surpasses its normal quality level by more than a fair margin in 2005." (94pts BH)

477 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This is the second time that I have tasted the 2010 Grands Échézeaux Grand Cru from bottle from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and it was a wine that prompted a table of mature Pinot aficionados to remark upon the joys of infanticide. This is just a fantastic wine from the domaine. The nose is heavenly with its exquisite delineation, the fruit maybe a touch darker and earthier than a couple of years ago -- yet still with subtle woodland/sous-bois aromas and a hint of morels. The palate is wonderfully defined, so fresh and precise with filigree tannin. Yet there is great backbone to this wine, a framework that imparts a sense of symmetry that is totally disarming. Of course, readers should afford this magnificent wine a decade in the cellar...unless by complete accident a corkscrew falls into the cork and twists around until the cork pops out. Then you will have to drink it." (96pts)

483 Richebourg - Vintage 2009*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The bottle that I tried displayed a hint of reduction though not enough to hide the intensely floral and notably ripe nose that features fresh notes of plum, mocha and cassis that are sprinkled with exotic spice notes. The expansive and tautly muscular broad-shouldered flavors are, unusually, almost as fine as those of the RSV yet even slightly more complex with the same finely grained tannins. The length is similar but at present, the extra dimension of depth gives this the barest of edges." (97pts BH)

"A magnum of 1971 DRC Romanée Conti came next. That's right. In fact, this magnum was purchased at our November Hong Kong auction the month prior. I love it when that happens, too. The magnum was in outstanding condition, and it had outstanding provenance, so I was feeling no pressure. After one sip, I was feeling no pain. Its nose was full of that autumnal rust and spice. There were tomato, rose, bouillon and menthol aromas filling my nose to capacity. The Winemaster found the 1971 more elegant than 1978' in general, and I was in love with its great, fully mature flavors. There were brick, rust and autumn flavors here. While its palate was elegant, its finish was thick. It got more minty and (good) herbal on its finish, with almost a kiss of Chartreuse-like complexity. What a wine." (99Mpts JK)

525 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1980*Maison Leroy*

"A soaring nose of ripe but still fresh and highly complex mature burg aromas displays hints of volatile acidity, tar, sous-bois and tobacco. There is good richness and intensity to the notably rich medium full-bodied flavors that offer first class power and length on the muscular if not quite robust finish. With air the finish begins to show subtle signs of thinning but the complexity, richness and overall style make for a compelling wine. I would be inclined to drink up sooner than later though there is no rush." (93pts BH)

"A dazzlingly complex nose that is, remarkably enough, still relatively youthful in the context of the vintage though there are ample secondary and tertiary nuances present and leads to big, rich, ripe, deep and expansive flavors that still display a bit of tannin on the exquisitely long finish. This is a wonderful, fully mature and velvety wine that is holding impeccably well." (93pts BH)

"A myriad of spices and anise-spiked pears are found in the highly expressive nose of the 2001 Corton-Charlemagne. Medium to full-bodied, with levels of dry extract that would tip the scales, and a supple, fleshy character of intense width and power, this wine is amazing. Magnificently supple, yet focused, boisterous, yet refined, thick, yet balanced, it possesses a finish that easily lasts for over a minute. Moreover, it has all the ear-marks of perfection. This velvety-textured wine is jam-packed with minerals immersed in pear syrup, copious spices (including clove, ginger, and juniper berries), as well as a distinctive note of apple sauce. It is layered, opulent, and sexy, while remaining nuanced and seamless. Wow!..."(98-100pts)

546 Meursault - Vintage 2004

Coche-Dury

"After a splendid bottle last year, this 2004 Meursault from Domaine Coche-Dury did not hit the same stellar heights. It just did not show quite the same ethereal level of precision and focus as the previous example, perhaps more backward and reticent than I was expecting. It takes time but eventually that gunflint aroma begins to emerge and you start thinking about Coche-Dury. The palate is vibrant and captivating, very well defined with supremely well judged acidity, vibrant citrus lemon and mineral notes with a long finish. It is still a fabulous Meursault, but a point less than last time."(93pts)

"The 2010 Meursault from Jean-Francois is an absolute master class in winemaking and frankly, this "Village" would outshine many a Premier and Grand Cru. It possesses a crystalline bouquet with lime flower, apricot and that leitmotif of crushed stone. The palate is crisp and taut on the entry. This is a tightly wound, tensile Meursault with real presence and weight in the mouth, fanning out towards the sour lemon-tinged finish that feels so alive. How do they do it? 550 Meursault - Vintage 2015*Coche-Dury*

"The 2015 Meursault Village is showing very well, unfurling in the glass with notes of crisp yellow orchard fruit, Anjou pear, white flowers, honeycomb and hazelnut cream. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, satiny and pure, with beautiful balance, succulent underlying acids and an elegant framing of dry extract that lends a mouthwatering quality to the long, penetrating finish. Without either the strong cooperage or reductive signatures of yesteryear's Coche-Dury, it exemplifies the new stylistic direction taken by Raphaël Coche, and it's a terrific success, surpassing both the 2014 and 2013 renditions."(92pts)

591 Meursault - Vintage 2007*Charmes, Pierre-Yves Colin Morey*

"Colin's 2007 Meursault Charmes smells of candied orange zest, vanilla, honey, and subtly caramelized apple, all of which seem to promise an unusually advanced degree of phenolic maturity for the vintage, not to mention for this collection. This harbors a dustiness allied to zesty pungency that seems to hover halfway between chalky mineral expression and a hint of botrytis, and comes out prominently in the finish. The upshot of all this is a wine that doesn't reflect the name of its appellation; seems to over-promise on its effusively ripe nose; and then come up slightly austere in the back end. A sense of lees-enriched creaminess helps smooth the joint between fruit and stone a bit, and readers should be in no doubt that this is highly-concentrated material. We opened two bottles to confirm my impressions, but this deserves re-visiting."(90+pts)

"Another sensational wine is the 1989 Côte Rôtie la Landonne. Served right next to the '99 and just as deep ruby in color, it offered a classic array of truffle, underbrush, licorice, smoked meats, black olive and sweet dark fruits. Deep, concentrated, ultra-pure and with building tannin, it's a killer, fully mature Côte Rôtie that will continue to knock your socks off over the coming decade or more."(99pts)

603 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1991*La Turquie, E. Guigal1x12 bottle owc*

"The 1991 La Turquie behaves as if it wants to be the northern Rhône's answer to Richebourg and Musigny. However, with the exception of Domaine Leroy, you cannot find a Richebourg or Musigny with the richness and complexity possessed by this awesome wine. The saturated dark purple color is followed by a wine that is surprisingly lighter in the mouth than its great flavor intensity and rich extraction would suggest. It is a winemaking tour de force in that Guigal has been able to cram phenomenal levels of fruit, complexity, and richness into this velvety-textured wine without causing it to taste heavy."(99pts)

604 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1995*La Turquie, E. Guigal1x12 bottle owc*

"One of the treats when tasting through the profound Côte Rôties made by Marcel Guigal was the opportunity to taste all of the bottled 1995's. Reviewed in previous issues, they are even better from bottle than they were during their upbringing (a characteristic of many Guigal wines). The 1995 Côte Rôtie la Turquie is the stuff of legends and is every bit as compelling as readers might expect. This single vineyard wine will have at least 2 decades of longevity." (100pts)

"The 1998 Côte-R tie La Turquie may end up being a perfect wine. Its smoky black fruits intermixed with licorice, roasted meats, cassis, and flowers create an explosive, exotic perfume. The wine reveals considerable tannin, immense structure, and potentially legendary depth as well as intensity." (98pts)

606 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1999*La Turquie, E. Guigal*

"This wine is perfect. It is undoubtedly the greatest vintage for Guigal since 1978. Take all the characteristics I described for the wines in 1998 and 1997, then add an ethereal lightness of character, surreal aromatics, and a seamlessness that is uncanny given the massive richness and layers of flavors this wine possesses. The explosive aromatics tend to be more exaggerated in 1999. The wine is more evolved and seductive than the 1998s, but its aging potential should not be underestimated. It has at least two decades of life. In short, Guigal has performed a classic hat trick in 1999 with his La La's." (100pts)

"A Champagne of crystalline precision, the 2004 Dom Pérignon once again shows off its pedigree and total class. Everything about the 2004 speaks to nuance. The flavors are bright and lifted throughout, but it is the wine's lithe, gracious shape that stands out most. Pear, slate, white flowers, sage and crushed rocks abound in a Dom Pérignon built on cool, brisk energy. Today, the 2004 is simply dazzling, with plenty of upside for the future." (97+pts VM)

"The 1996 Dom Pérignon OEenotheque offers up layers of pastry, lemon, smoke and toastiness. At first deceptively understated, the wine turns positively explosive and layered on the palate, showing remarkable tension, elegance and power, all wrapped around a seriously intense frame. The balance between fruit and acidity is awesome. This is a marvelous DP OEeno. The OEeno is the same juice as the regular Dom Perignon, except the OEeno is aged on the cork while the regular DP is aged in crown-sealed bottles. Once disgorged, the OEenos gets a slightly lower dosage than is typical for the original release DP." (97pts)

613 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996*1x6 bottle ogb*

"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. Utterly hallucinatory and one of the most amazing wines I've ever been fortunate enough to drink." (99+pts IWC)

"Krug's 2002 Brut has an intense citrus color and opens with a generous, intense yet fine and precise bouquet that indicates great depth and elegance. Red fruit flavors on the nose lead to a generously rich yet pure, highly refined and elegant palate, with lots of ripe cherry fruits and delicious yeasty flavors. This is a highly complex and tensioned but beautifully balanced 2002 with a charming dosage that gives perfect roundness. The finish, however, is clear, fresh and well-structured, if not taut, and very mineral." (97+pts)

FINEST RED BURGUNDY OF A WORLD TRAVELER

A dedicated traveler, this frequent consignor cultivated his passion for wine while living in France over thirty years ago, later expanding his palate through experiences in the vibrant London and New York wine scenes. Fifty-three outstanding treasures showcase the heights of Red Burgundy, led by 2001 Rousseau Chambertin and 1993 and 1999 Chambertin Clos de Bèze! Full cases of 2001 Dugat-Py Charmes Chambertin and Mazis Chambertin come in their original packaging, joined by an OWC magnum of 2005 Domaine des Lambrays Clos de Lambrays. Three bottles each of 2005 Dujac Bonnes Mares and Clos de la Roche share the spotlight with 2000 Roumier Bonnes Mares and six bottles of 1999 Mugnier Musigny. The collection is completed by coveted gems from B. Clair, Bachelet, Fourrier, Hudelot-Noëllat, and Méo-Camuzet! Another delightful selection from this great collector! All wines removed from professional storage.

"This is completely different from the Bèze aromatically speaking as here the nose is brooding and recalcitrant and only aggressive swirling liberates fresh scents of spice, wet stone, game and dark berry fruits. There is outstanding richness to the powerful and impressively scaled flavors that possess an abundance of dry extract that imparts a velvety quality to the mid-palate while also buffering the tightly wound core of firm tannins on the driving mineral-inflected and hugely persistent finish." Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

1lwisvl, 2sos

"There was something extraordinary about this bottle of 1993 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze, bordering on supernatural. Everything I could ask for in a great Burgundy was there - ripe red fruits, forest floor and the complexity of terroir, breed, style, length. The fruit had a catnip-like quality that made me feel happy and silly, and its acidity and finish said, I know I'm good now, but just you wait and see.' It was impossible to stop drinking, even in the context of a dozen plus other, fabulous Rousseau reds. This may prove to be one of those lightning bolts in a bottle; on this day, it didn't get any better." (99pts JK)

664 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2012*G. Roumier*

"...the 2012 Bonnes-Mares Grand Cru restores order an exemplary wine. The bouquet is still backward, attesting that this Grand Cru deserves a decade in bottle, yet the oak is beautifully assimilated and the terroir really comes through. The palate is knitted together by filigree tannin that almost disguise the intensity of this wines, but the sustained finish leaves you in no doubt that you are in the presence of one of Christophe Roumier's finest recent vintages." 665 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2000*Les Amoureuses, G. Roumier*

"Good medium red. Highly complex aromas of red fruits, smoke and underbrush. Then juicy, vibrant and nuanced in the mouth, with musky flavors of dark berries, black cherry, minerals and spices, plus an exhilarating suggestion of wild rose. Lovely racy, gripping, classy Amoureuses, finishing with fairly substantial but wonderfully smooth tannins..." (91pts IWC)

666 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2014*Les Cras, G. Roumier*

"There is more volume and certainly more punch to the overtly stony medium weight flavors that possess outstanding delineation before terminating in a youthfully austere, saline, focused and relatively powerful finish that offers impressive persistence." (93pts BH)

6 bottles

per lot $2600-3500

667 Richebourg - Vintage 2002*Hudelot-Noellat*

"Brooding, reticent and completely backward, revealing only reluctant notes of crushed black cherries, ripe earth and a deft touch of wood spice followed by unctuously rich, robust, muscular flavors that display outstanding density and first rate balance. This intensity builds from the mid-palate and finally explodes on the finish with absolutely perfect acid/fruit balance and the phenomenal length just doesn't quit." (92-5pts BH)

6 bottles

per lot $5000-7000

668 Richebourg - Vintage 2011*Hudelot-Noellat*

2swc

"As one would reasonably expect this is quite different and much more elegant with its broad-based combination of spice elements that include hoisin and soy that are liberally laced throughout the red currant, plum and violet scents. There is a fleshy yet precise character to the brilliantly detailed flavors that are akin to pure silk on the palate, all wrapped in a gorgeously persistent finish." (93pts BH)

6 bottles

per lot $3500-5000

669 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2002*Hudelot-Noellat*

"Dark red. Youthful raspberry and blackberry aromas accented by gingerbread, along with deeper mocha, smoked meat and candied rose accents. Lush, suave and deep, with a bright, zesty mineral quality adding impressive lift and precision to the deep, sweet red and dark berry flavors. Finishes with a liqueur-like raspberry quality and excellent depth and persistence. More alluring today than the 2001 and I suspect that this will drink well earlier, if for no other reason than for its sweetness and supple texture." (93pts IWC)

6 bottles

per lot $5500-7500

670 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2005*Hudelot-Noellat*

"As one would reasonably expect, this is much more aromatically elegant and more expressive with a gorgeous range of black fruit aromas including plum and cassis as well as the classic Asian spice box nuances that introduce classy, pure and sleekly powerful flavors that are balanced, textured and lacy on the hugely long and mouth coating finish. This is a sophisticated wine with refined tannins and the staying power to last for decades. This is one of those 'wow' wines!" (93-96pts BH)

6 bottles

per lot $4500-6000

671 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2005*Les Malconsorts, Hudelot-Noellat*

"Deep red. Blueberry, blackberry, flowers, spices and minerals on the slightly exotic nose, lifted by spicy oak. Round, lush and rich, with the weight and palate presence of a grand cru." (93+pts VM)

6 bottles

per lot $2200-3000

672 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2000*Les Amoureuses, J.F. MugnierIspc*

"Medium red. Fresh aromas of raspberry and spices, with a kiss of oak. Supple, pliant and seductive; lush and seamless. Finishes very long and a bit warm, with fine tannins. Still holding something in reserve." (91pts IWC)

673 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2001*Les Amoureuses, J.F. Mugnier*

"...strikingly seductive, highly perfumed, slightly musky aromas of black cherries, fresh flowers and ripe plums brilliantly spicy, even sexy, mouth coating, liqueur-like sappy flavors that finish with stunning elegance and a firm, pure, moderately linear finish." (92pts BH)

6 bottles

674 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2011

Les Amoureuses, J.F. Mugnier

"In 2011, the Chambolle-Musigny Les Amoureuses is unusually cool and restrained, with slightly firm tannins and less of the early appeal it so often shows. Here it is the purity of the fruit that is simply remarkable. Flowers, savory herbs, sweet red berries and mint add nuance as the 2011 continues to open up in the glass."(94+pts VM)

3 bottles per lot $3200-4200

675 Musigny - Vintage 1999

J.F. Mugnier

"Mugnier's 1999 Musigny Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine, but a few hours' decant gives a more than adequate sense of its immense quality. A beautiful bouquet of raspberries, black cherry, cocoa powder, violets, peony and incipient notes of rich soil and cedar introduce a pure, full-bodied wine with pitch-perfect balance and a deep, spherical core of ripe tannin, juicy acidity and reserved concentration. This is not an especially flamboyant wine, but it's incredibly authoritative and sophisticated; and in another decade, it will be just irresistible."(96+pts)

6 bottles per lot $9000-12000

676 Musigny - Vintage 2011

J.F. Mugnier

1x3 bottle banded owc

"...has a fragrant, floral, understated bouquet that is beautifully defined and focused. With time in the glass it offers subtle forest floor and damp soil scents that merely add to its complexity. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannins and exquisite balance. It tiptoes across the senses rather than delivering a payload of flavors, while the finish offers extraordinary precision and nuance."(95pts)

3 bottles per lot $3000-4000

677 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2000

Aux Brûlées, Méo-Camuzet

COMTE LIGER-BELAIR BOUGHT ON RELEASE

Twenty-eight grandiose lots of Comte Liger-Belair, spanning nearly a decade, come to us from an international man of mystery—a knowledgeable veteran who delights in buying, drinking and talking about the world's greatest wines. Every bottle here is Comte Liger-Belair and every bottle was purchased on release! La Romanée steals the show with bottles and magnums of 2012 and 2014, joined by bottles from the 2015 and 2018 vintages. Echezeaux impresses with six-bottle lots of 2009 and 2010, while Nuits-St-Georges Aux Cras, Vosne-Romanée, Vosne-Romanée Aux Reignots, Clos du Château, La Colombière, and Les Petits Monts are all well represented. Magnums and jeroboams of the rare Nuits-St-Georges Blanc Clos des Grandes Vignes add a striking White Burgundy flourish. All wines removed from ideal professional storage.

678 Échézeaux - Vintage 2009

Comte Liger-Belair

1x6 bottle owc

"The 2009 Liger-Belair Échézeaux was even better, as it should be. Its dense, sweet fruit was balanced by its structure and finish. Fruit and acidity were all in harmony, and the signature style of the Domaine was on full display, with added depth from the terroir. There was great style to this great red." (96pts JK)

684 La Romanée - Vintage 2012

Comte Liger-Belair

1x3 bottle owc

"The 2012 La Romanée is a wine of effortless and utterly unforgettable beauty, soaring from the glass in an otherworldly blend of black plums, black raspberries, fresh nutmeg, kaleidoscopic soil tones, duck, incipient Vosne spices, dark chocolate and a very discreet base of new oak. I know that this wine was raised in one hundred percent new oak, but the depth of sappy fruit and the great signature of soil here have simply combined to devour the wood this year! On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, breathtakingly pure and utterly seamless, with a sappy core of gorgeous fruit, stunning transparency, very suave, silken tannins and brilliant backend energy that gives this supremely elegant wine a sense of vibrancy and purity that simply takes one's breath away! I simply cannot imagine a more profoundly refined and seamless example of this legendary vintage." (100pts JG)

Comte Liger-Belair

3x1 magnum owc's

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest tasting in Beaune, the 2013 La Romanée Grand Cru replicated its impressive showing last year. It has a beautiful, very pure bouquet with raspberry, briary, plenty of undergrowth and bay leaf all with fine delineation. The palate is medium-bodied with supple and lithe tannin, crisp acidity, gentle grip with superb tension and structure on the pixelated finish. Deeply impressive -- as you would expect given the current market value of this wine! Tasted September 2016." (97pts)

689 La Romanée - Vintage 2015

Comte Liger-Belair

1x3 bottle owc

"Tasted blind, Louis-Michel Liger-Belair's 2015 La Romanée Grand Cru is simply extraordinary, dominating a flight of great grands crus. The wine wafts from the glass with an extraordinarily complex bouquet in which notes of cherries, cassis and orange rind mingle with fragrant aromas of rose petal and Asian spices, complemented by deeper, more savory bass notes of grilled squab, espresso roast and smoked duck. On the palate, it's full-bodied, multidimensional and complete, with amazing depth and dimension, juicy acids balancing a deep and concentrated core of fruit, and concluding with a long, reverberative finish. This is a powerful, even dramatic La Romanée that ranks as one of the pinnacles of this magical vintage." (100pts)

690 La Romanée - Vintage 2016

Comte Liger-Belair

1x3 bottle owc

"A discreetly perfumed and brilliantly layered nose reflects notes of both red and dark berries along with a cornucopia of spice and floral elements. The hallmark sophistication of a fine La Romanée is present in spades with a notably finer mouthfeel to the sleekly textured flavors that juxtapose the refinement of the mid-palate with the firmly structured and youthfully austere finish that delivers stunningly good length. There is superb density and once again an abundance of dry extract that should enable beauty to age for years to come and note well that it's going to need plenty of it." (98pts BH)

691 La Romanée - Vintage 2017

Comte Liger-Belair

1x3 bottle owc

The 2017 La Romanée Grand Cru is characteristically impressive, unfurling in the glass with an extravagant bouquet of cassis, violets, dark chocolate, espresso roast, sweet spices, orange rind and rose hip that has integrated its lavish framing of new wood more completely than any other wine in the cellar. On the palate, it's full-bodied, ample and satiny with a deep, sapid core of concentrated fruit that largely conceals its broad structural shoulders, concluding with a pungently intense but subtly wood-inflected finish. This has the makings of a comparatively precocious vintage of La Romanée that will offer a broad drinking window. (94-96pts)

692 La Romanée - Vintage 2018*Comte Liger-Belair2x3 bottle owc's*

"The 2018 La Romanée Grand Cru is the most reserved cuvée in the range, unwinding in the glass with notes of cherries, raspberries, dark chocolate, plums and spices that's framed by a nicely integrated bouquet of creamy new oak. It's full-bodied, velvety and enveloping, with a deep and multidimensional core that saturates the palate and largely conceals the wine's powdery structuring tannins. Underpinned by a lively spine of acidity and concluding with a long and pungently perfumed finish." (96-98pts)

693 Nuits St. Georges - Vintage 2016*Aux Cras, Comte Liger-Belair1x6 bottle owc*

"Having just finished its malolactic a couple of months prior to my visit, the 2016 Nuits Saint-Georges 1er Cru Aux Cras fought through a slight reduction to suggest a bouquet packed with red and black fruit, crushed violets and rose petals. With aeration, more blue fruit emerges. The palate is medium-bodied with supple, rounded tannin, perfect acidity, extremely well focused with a sensual and sophisticated finish that lingers in the mouth. This is a superb Aux Cras that is going to give a lot of pleasure." (93-95pts)

697 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2015*Aux Reignots, Comte Liger-Belair1x6 bottle owc*

"The 2015 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Reignots has a very complex bouquet with black cherry, mulberry, cold slate, blood orange and crushed violet aromas that are beautifully defined and appear to flourish in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannin, very focused and with stunning salinity. It gently fans out with subtle touches of clove and sage furnishing the structured, authoritative finish that suggest it should age for many years." (95-97pts)

698 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2017*Clos du Château, Comte Liger-Belair1x6 bottle owc*

"The 2013 Clos du Château is also a very pretty example of the vintage, with a bit more gras at the core than the Colombière and the same perfumed elegance. The bouquet wafts from the glass in a mix of red plums, raspberries, fresh herb tones, coffee, a lovely base of soil and a bit of nutty new wood. On the palate the wine is pure, fullish and quite soil-driven in personality, with a good core, fine-grained tannins and lovely balance on the tangy and nascently complex finish. A fine village." "The 2012 Nuits Saint Georges Blancs Le Clos des Grandes Vignes emerges from a newly acquired parcel in Premeaux. Nectarine, peach, honey, mint, wild flowers and pastry all meld together in a rich, oily white that impresses with its layered personality and impeccable balance. This is a stellar first effort. I would love to taste the 2012 next to Mugnier's Clos de la Marechale and the Arlot's Clos de l'Arlot Blanc. What a fascinating comparison that would be. The 2012 Blanc was vinified in the classic oxidative Burgundian style, with no batonnage. Sadly, there are just two barrels to go around." (91-93pts VM)

The 2014 is excellent, offering up a lovely bouquet of apple, fresh almond, white peach, chalky soil tones, vanillin oak and a fine topnote of acacia blossoms. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, pure and focused, with good acids, a generous core of fruit and a long, crisp and complex finish." (93pts VM)

708 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2007

Pierre-Yves Colin Morey

vhs, scl, crc

"The Colin 2007 Batard-Montrachet -- from centrally-located 50 year old vines positively crawls up the nostrils in its intense amalgam of pit fruit distillate; smoky black tea; lemon and grapefruit; and heliotrope. Citrus traverses the palate like an electric current, enlivening a dense concentrate of lightly caramelized peach, nut paste, and chalk, that is almost custard-like in texture. This finishes with tremendous force and grip. Like the corresponding Corton-Charlemagne, I have the feeling that it could exhibit something of a split personality on any given day in its youth." 709 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2009

Pierre-Yves Colin Morey

"There is enough sulfur present to render the overtly ripe nose difficult to read. There is however excellent richness and serious size and weight to the broad-shouldered flavors that possess exceptionally good mid-palate concentration that buffers the firm acid spine on the explosively long and palate staining finish. This is terrific and should age gracefully for up to a decade." (92-95pts BH)

"Brooding aromas of pineapple, mirabelle, clove, menthol and licorice. Conveys an impression of volume without weight, thanks to a near-perfect sugar/acid balance. Began rather inexpressive in the mouth but gained in complexity with air. Most impressive today on the mounting, palate-staining back end, which leaves behind notes of citrus fruit, wild herbs, menthol, wet stone and vanillin oak." (95+pts VM)

"...boasts serious richness, depth and structure. A wine of pure brawn and intensity, the 2011 impresses for its exceptional balance and harmony, but it is also very reticent and nowhere near ready to show the full breadth of its personality. The finish alone is simply sensational." (97pts VM)

713 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2013*Pierre-Yves Colin Moreytl*

"There is enough sulfur present to remark upon though not so much that it materially detracts from the relatively elegant aromas of white flowers, pure citrus, pear and discreet spice elements. The broad-shouldered and impressively concentrated flavors retain a fine sense of delineation before culminating in an almost painfully intense and explosively long finish."(92-95pts BH)

"Moderate reduction again flattens the nose yet the underlying fruit still seems to be ripe. Otherwise there is even more size, weight and richness to the big-bodied flavors that also possess an abundance of dry extract that imparts a lush mouth feel to the palate coating and highly persistent finish that is no longer than that of the Corton-Charlemagne but it is slightly more complex. Here too I strongly advise at least some patience."(92-94pts BH)

Great concentration and thickness without weight; more voluminous than any of Colin's premier crus, conveying a broad, silky texture to its ripe stone fruit flavors. Not yet penetrating; in fact, this is still almost monolithic owing to its baby fat."(94pts BH)

SIGNIFICANT CHARITY LOTS BENEFITING THE GARDEN OF DREAMS FOUNDATION

The following lots have been generously donated by a New York philanthropist and lover of fine wine. In his community, this important collector is assiduously engaged in many charitable organizations, advocating for, and supporting individuals facing poverty, vulnerability and hardship. One hundred percent of the net sale proceeds from this incredible selection will be donated directly to The Garden of Dreams Foundation.

The Garden of Dreams Foundation is a non-profit charity dedicated to bringing life-changing opportunities to young people facing illness, financial challenges, the death or injury of a family member or simply those that are in need. In support of its mission, the Foundation works closely with the MSG Family of Companies – which includes MSG Entertainment, MSG Sports and Sphere Entertainment – to bring young people together to raise their spirits, build resilience and provide life-changing networking, mentoring and educational opportunities through the power of community building. For more information, and to find out ways that you can get involved, please visit their website at: <https://www.gardenofdreamsfoundation.org/>

This mighty selection of lots is a wonderful opportunity to support this important foundation and acquire exceptional wine from the personal collection of this true connoisseur. Red Burgundy lights the path forward with 1999 Clos de Beze and 2002 Clos St. Jacques by Rousseau, followed by 2005 and 2010 La Tache, culminating with three exquisite bottles of 1999 Dujac Clos de la Roche! White Burgundy shines on with 2011 Corton Charlemagne and Meursault's from Coche-Dury, as well as a boss magnum of 2006 DRC Montrachet! All to be topped off by a beautiful pair of Dom Perignon Oenotheque Rose magnums from 1982, as well as three vintages of Vietti's stunning Monvigliero in multiple formats!

Please reach deeper than usual and support this great cause!

719B Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2002*Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau*

1x6 bottle ocb

"Tasted blind in Hong Kong, the Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint Jacques 2002 from Rousseau is just a sublime expression of the vineyard and the style of the domaine. The bouquet offers startling delineation with red cherries, crushed strawberry, wet limestone and rose petals. The palate is elegant and refined in keeping with the more understated style of the vintage, the acidity finely tuned and with a gradual crescendo of red berry and mineral notes that fan out in consummate fashion on the finish. It's just a beautiful wine that is now at a beautiful stage of its life. Irresistible!" (96pts)

6 bottles per lot $8000-11000

719C La Tâche - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

2lscl

"Many know the greatness that is 2005 DRC, and this bottle was no exception. It was the best by far. Yes, the wine was totally wound up in the glass, but it had the longest finish by a mile, and there was no doubt about its position at the top of the pyramid. It was full of rocks, diamonds, blackberries and smoke. This demonstrated how great the '05 vintage is and showed tremendous definition and decades of potential." (99pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $13000-17000

719D La Tâche - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This is perhaps even more floral than the Richebourg and every bit as spicy on the ultra-pure, cool and remarkably elegant mix of red and blue pinot fruit, red currant and wild red berries that are openly mineral-inflected. As with all of the DRC '10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. To be sure, this is a big wine with impressive concentration but this is definitely not cut from the same cloth as say the 2005 or 2009 versions are. I can admire both styles but this one is seriously lovely." (98pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $9000-12000

719E Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999*Dujac*

"Absolutely stunned on this evening. It was a throw-in after a flight of 1993s, including another Dujac, a Rousseau and a Roumier. And it was the best of them all. There was so much fruit, it felt almost like chewing gum. Sweet purple flavors cascaded over my palate. I could not stop drinking it. This catnip of a wine had me frolicking and feeling great." (98pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $6000-8000

719F Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2011*Coche-Dury*

2nl

"The 2011 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru has an exquisite bouquet that truly deserves the phrase "liquid mineral." Imagine a limestone quarry being melted down and then distilled multiple times until there is just enough to fill your wine glass. The palate has perfect acidity and subtle spicy notes on the entry: hints of lime flower, citrus lemon and a subtle note of mandarin coming through with aeration. It exhibits balletic poise on the finish a sensational Corton-Charlemagne that just may turn out to be just as good as the 2010." (96pts)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

719G Meursault - Vintage 2011*Coche-Dury*

"The 2011 Meursault (Les Vireuils) has an engaging bouquet of fresh apricot, passion fruit and flint, later a subtle hint of white chocolate that lends panache. The palate is very well-balanced with a fine line of acidity and grilled walnut, almond and fresh lemon all vying for attention. Long in the mouth with a persistent finish, this is a very fine Meursault Villages, as one has come to expect from this address. Drink 2015-2030." (91pts)

6 bottles per lot $4500-6000

719H Meursault - Vintage 2011*Les Rougeots, Coche-Dury*

"While the 2011 Meursault Les Rougeots is still a young wine, it's beginning to drink very well, unfurling in the glass with a beautifully integrated bouquet of lemon oil, green apple, sesame and wheat toast, framed by a very subtle touch of smoky reduction that dissipates with aeration. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, deep and racy, with a layered, nicely concentrated core, tangy acids and a long, lingeringly stony finish. This is shaping up to be an excellent but comparatively precocious vintage for Coche-Dury, and readers with multiple bottles shouldn't be afraid to try one in the next year or two." (94pts)

OLD WORLD GEMS FROM A SEASONED COLLECTOR

This seasoned Midwest collector offers seventeen captivating treasures spanning the breadth of Europe's great wine regions. Aged Bordeaux marvels include 1964 and 1971 Cheval Blanc and 1959 Léoville Poyferré, joined by a formidable quartet of 1982 icons Haut Brion, La Mission Haut Brion, Margaux and Mouton Rothschild! From the Rhône, 1991 Chave Cuvée Cathelin makes an appearance, while Piedmont's power is on full display with four vintages of Conterno Barolo Monfortino Riserva, highlighted by the celebrated 1997! Spain's modern legend Pingus rounds out this remarkable offering. All wines properly kept in climate-controlled storage.

722 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1982

St. Emilion

2bn, 2fl, 2ll, 1cuc

"Revealing considerable amber in its dark plum/garnet color, this intensely fragrant 1982 is somewhat of a paradox in that the front end suggests full maturity, but the mid-palate, finish, and overall texture denote a closed wine. A gorgeously sweet entry displays flavors of caramel, roasted coffee, jammy red and black fruits, coconut, and smoke. It is fat and full-bodied, with considerable tannin, structure, and muscle in the finish. Flamboyantly rich and precocious early in life, it is going through an awkward stage where the tannin is present, but it is also sexy, juicy, and formidably-structured. When the 1982 Cheval Blanc's component parts become totally in sync, it will be capable of meriting a three-digit rating." (99pts)

It was very spiny and dry and truly a classy wine, underrated by 1982 First Growth standards." (96pts JK)

"A thick, unctuously-textured wine with massive richness as well as abundant notes of black fruits, truffles, creosote, scorched earth, smoke, and camphor; a colossal mouthfeel, a layered texture, incredible depth of fruit and glycerin, and copious, but well-integrated tannins that are largely concealed by the incredible amount of fruit. An old school La Mission, it is a tour de force that should continue to age effortlessly for another 40+ years." (100pts)

727 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1982

Pauillac

2bn, 2ts, 1cuc

"...phenomenally dense and muscular It is immune to oxidation! Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. Nevertheless, it demands another decade of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for another seven or eight decades. I have always felt the 1982 Mouton was perfect, yet this immortal effort might be capable of lasting for 100 years! The fact that it resists oxidation is a testament to just how youthful it remains, and how long it will last." (100pts)

728 Château Pichon Lalande - Vintage 1982

Pauillac

3bn, 3bsl, 1spc

"...retains all its glossy, rich, flamboyant cassis fruit, chocolaty, berry jam-like notes, and plenty of earthy, foresty flavors. This is a full-bodied, extravagantly rich Pichon Lalande seemingly devoid of acidity and tannin, but the wine is incredibly well-balanced and pure. It is an amazing effort!" (100pts)

729 Ermitage - Vintage 1991

cuvée Cathelin, J.L. Chave

"Its fruit was again on the black side, with more purple and light ink edges. Smoked meats and fireplace crackles of the God of War mixed with violets and wildflowers from the Goddess of Love. It had a long, sensual finish, unfurling slowly, surely and sexily. It was creamy but not heavy; there was a grace and elegance to the 1991, and it danced like a ballerina on my palate. It also was dripping with diamonds, sparkling in every which (and rich) way. I just realized I totally forgot about this wine in my Top Wines of the Year article in 2017! Those auction tasters are impossible for me to keep track...but I won't forget it again." (99pts JK)

730 Hermitage - Vintage 1983

J.L. Chave

2vhs, 1sl, 1l, 2spc

"It seems to me that his 1983 has the potential to be super, but it still remains charmless and austere. Deep dark ruby in color with some amber at the edge, it has a profound concentration of ripe, smoky, berry fruit and Asian spices, full body, exceptional depth and length, as well as a formidable tannin level." (93pts)

2 magnums per lot $2400-3200

731 Barolo - Vintage 1988

Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno

6bn, 3l, 3wsl, 2wisvl

"The 1988 seemed like a whole, new world as we entered a more youthful stage of Monfortino. The wine still had its baby fat in its nose and was nutty, almost syrupy, with lots of black fruits, tar, cement and peking duck. The wine was much heavier in its tannin and alcohol expressions, and the fruit was dominated by cassis and grape. After having all those older wines, this flight was definitively youthful. Roberto found the 1988 to be the 'most complete at the moment.' He then continued how 1988 was a disastrous vintage at Giacomo Conterno because it was the year that he started working full-time in the family business - HA! He was then asked when he started making the wine, to which he replied 'never. The wine is made in the vineyard and in the winery you can only damage the wine.' It was an excellent, bordering on outstanding, wine." (94+pts JK)

732 Barolo - Vintage 1993

Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno

3l, 1l, 2 bottles different importer

"The 1993 is generally considered an unimportant vintage, but Roberto feels that it will be regarded differently in time. Wheels called 1993 in Piedmont the equivalent of 1980 in Burgundy in that people trashed the vintage, but in the end it turned out great. There was a hailstorm that limited quantity and put a black cloud on the 1993 vintage. The nose was fine and elegant with spearmint, cherry fruit and licorice. 'Dolce and elegante,' Roberto cooed. It was incredibly classic by Barolo standards with its tar, smoke, leather and asphalt and indubitably a beautiful wine, fine and smooth. The elegance and finesse to its style and length were intoxicating. I have to agree with Roberto that 1993, at least for Monfortino, is an outstanding vintage." (95pts JK)

754 Château Latour - Vintage 1961*PauillacIts, 1hs, 2lbls, 1cuc, outstanding color and condition*

"Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château's tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. An extraordinary wine, it is unquestionably one of the Bordeaux legends of the century!..."(100pts)

WORLDLY WINES OF AN ESTATE CELLAR

Eighty-three substantial lots from a distinguished estate cellar take us on a journey through the world of fine wine. We launch with blue-chip Bordeaux, many in full twelve-bottle cases and almost all in original packaging! The illustrious 1982 vintage is revealed, featuring Mouton Rothschild, Lafite Rothschild, Margaux, Léoville Las Cases, Lynch Bages, Cos d'Estournel, and Ducru-Beaucaillou, joined by 1986 Gruaud Larose, 1978 La Mission Haut Brion, 1981 Lafite, and 1983 Margaux. The parade of full cases and pristine packaging continues in the Rhône, with Beaucastel Châteauneuf-du-Pape from the 1970s and 1980s, before we head to some incredibly rare Italians such as 1978 Giacosa Barolo Arione di Serralunga, 1971 Conterno Barolo Monfortino Riserva, 1971 Gaja Barbaresco, and 1982 Mascarello Barolo Monprivato!!!! California brings us stateside with a rare full case of 1984 Diamond Creek Volcanic Hill, and we toast our worldly adventure with vintage Port from the 1960s and 1970s. All wines purchased upon release and kept in a climate-controlled cellar and professional storage – an amazing collection, indeed!*

762 Château Beychevelle - Vintage 1982

St. Julien

6bn, 5ts, 1vhs, 12scc, 1x12 bottle owc

"... remains unformed in its voluminous, chunky, rich, full-bodied, atypical style. The wine is loaded with black fruits, and the long, rich finish displays considerable soft tannin. Low acidity gives the wine plenty of upfront appeal in that fleshy, flamboyant style of so many 1982s. The color remains a dense garnet/purple, and there is little evolution in the wine's bouquet." 764 Château Calon Segur - Vintage 1982

St. Estephe

3vhs, 5hs, 8scc, 1x12 bottle owc

"It is made in a traditional style, so do not expect to get turned-on by lavish quantities of vanillin-scented, toasty new oak, and sweet jammy fruit. Although massive, with incredible richness and plenty of fruit, this wine is dominated by its blackcurrant, mineral, cedar character. The copious tannins are still present, but they are integrated with the wine's other components. This classic Calon-Segur is built to stand the test of time. From a half-bottle it should reach full maturity by the turn of the century and last for at least 20-30 years. This is a remarkable wine that should find many admirers among true connoisseurs." "...it exhibits a dense ruby/plum/garnet color to the rim as well as a sweet perfume of forest floor, spice box, cedar, and copious quantities of black fruits. Medium to full-bodied and beautifully pure with sweet tannins, this wine has aged more slowly than I initially expected. It is the finest Ducru Beaucaillou produced after the 1961 and before the 2003. With respect to the 1990, I do not own any of this wine, but it was the last of a series of vintages between 1986 and 1990 that were affected by the TCA-like contamination in the estate's chai, which was completely destroyed and then rebuilt, eliminating the source of these smells. Not every bottle is affected by this, but I do not have any source for this vintage." (96pts)

6bn, 3ts, 2vhs

"Still tasting as if it were only 7-8 years of age, the dense, garnet/purple-colored 1986 Gruaud-Larose is evolving at a glacier pace. The wine still has mammoth structure, tremendous reserves of fruit and concentration, and a finish that lasts close to a minute. The wine is massive, very impressively constituted, with still some mouth-searing tannin to shed. Decanting of one to two hours in advance seems to soften it a bit, but this is a wine that seems to be almost immortal in terms of its longevity. It is a great Medoc classic, and certainly one of the most magnificent Gruaud-Larose ever made. Anticipated maturity: 2006-2035. Last tasted, 10/02." (96pts)

The 1982 Latour-à-Pomerol has been a great wine for many years and this might well be the best that I have ever encountered. It has an exceptional bouquet that here is surprisingly youthful. It comes armed with black fruit, bay leaf, cedar and gravel, almost Left Bank in character. Further investigation yields an intriguing marine-like, seaweed scent that expands upon its engaging personality. The palate is medium-bodied with wonderful balance and fine tannin. It has melted a little since my last encounter, softened around the edges and yet there remains that core of intense black fruit and kirsch that will ensure that it continues to age for many years. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. This was my last bottle of this great wine, which was from a lot of what were the very first Gaja wines I ever bought for my nascent collection way back in the day. The wine is now at its apogee and drinking splendidly well, soaring from the glass in a deep, pure and magical blend of black cherries, licorice, blossoming autumnal notes, a bit of nutskin, gamebird, fresh herbs, road tar and just a whisper of wood. "Generally speaking, 1967 was not a great vintage for the dry reds of Bordeaux. After a "meh" start to the Yquem harvest in early October, a spell of rain ensued, followed by warm dry temperatures in mid-October that ignited an explosion of botrytis. The rest is history: 1967 was a legendary year for Yquem. And this was indeed a very good bottle, tasted at the Château in spring 2019."(99pts)

VIVA ITALIA!

A longtime buyer and passionate Nebbiolo collector opens his cellar to share an array of Italian treasures—and then some! The journey begins with an enticing appetizer of half-bottle classified growth Bordeaux, followed by Burgundy offerings including 1990 Rousseau Clos de la Roche, 1993 and 1996 Leroy Corton Renardes and 1991 Savigny-lès-Beaune Les Narbantons! From there, we venture to Piedmont for the heart of the collection. There are selections from A. Conterno, Giacosa presents 1982 Barolo Collina Rionda Riserva, and G. Conterno is highlighted by a mini-vertical of Barolo Cascina Francia from 1982, 1985, 1989, and 1990, as well as the fabled 1971 and 1990 Barolo Monfortino Riserva. Add in iconic bottlings from Mascarello and Rinaldi, and you have a lineup that will set any Italian wine lover's heart racing! All wines were removed from a temperature-controlled home cellar in New York.

"Bize-Leroy's 2008 Savigny-Les-Beaune Les Narbantons is one in a long line of amazing demonstrations that this site can deliver profound complexity and pleasure, but I doubt that there has been and certainly I haven't tasted a more impressive instance, or indeed any more impressive young Savigny. Site-typical carnal elements in the nose are especially clean rather than gamy, and allied to suggestions of red fruit distillates, ocean spray, and forest floor. An infectiously mouthwatering savor of tiny red fruits (lingonberry, red currant, fraise du bois); red filet-mignon juices; rich beef marrow; mineral salts; leather; and brown spices floods and invigorates the texturally seamless, incipiently satiny palate in a show of palpable density and gripping persistence that somehow also leaves room for tenderness." I am also quite surprised by how translucently beautiful the wines are. The 1982 Barbaresco Santo Stefano Riserva simply has it all. Deep, pliant and explosive, the SSR is also quite bit fresher than the Rionda. "I remember paying what at the time seemed like a small fortune for bottles of Giacosa's 1990 Barolo Riserva Falsetto at Peck's Enoteca in Milan. What I would give today to be able to buy more at the same tariff! The 1990 Barolo Riserva Falsetto is one of Bruno Giacosa's most towering wines. Period. Rich, layered and opulent, this mineral-driven, powerful Barolo covers every inch of the palate with masses of dark fruit, smoke, soy, plums, menthol, dried roses, pine and a host of other balsamic overtones. This vivid, kaleidoscopic Barolo is a reference-point wine readers won't want to miss. As always, the Riserva Falsetto is virile and authoritative in tone. Simply put, it is profound." (98pts)

BITS AND PIECES OF A RESPECTED NEW YORK COLLECTOR

This respected collector has spent the past twenty-five years drinking the best of the best, whether in New York or halfway around the globe. His collection, built over decades, was meticulously curated through purchases from trusted collectors, renowned merchants, and leading auction houses, and all stored in professional conditions. Highlights include a bottle of 2015 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze, an astounding Jeroboam of 1979 DRC Romanée-Conti, and a monumental 13.5L of 1970 Monfortino Riserva!! Champagne treasures are Krug Private Cuvée 1929 and 1938 – enough said!!! Along with 1962 Dom Pérignon and magnums of Cristal Rosé from 1995, 2006, and 2009. A heartfelt thank you to this respected collector for allowing us to share these remarkable wines with you!!

950 Chambertin - Vintage 2015

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

"The 2015 Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru is spectacular, wafting from the glass with a dramatic bouquet of sweet grilled meat, red and black fruit, candied peel and rich soil. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul." (97pts)

951 Romanée Conti - Vintage 1979

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

hbsl, tl, hcrc, outstanding color

"The wine had a stunning nose of sweet, musky, sexy fruit with great earth, stone and honeyed fruit. The palate was rich, lush, supple and soft with light grit. It was very pure with great smoke flavors, and more grit emerging as its lushness tempered in the glass. The acids came out of their initial hiding; at first I thought the wine was fully mature, but later thought that might not be the case. There was a touch of band-aid, tomato, earth and garden flavors. It was super-tasty out of six-liter and hanging on to its outstanding status for now, at least out of six-liter." (95+pts JK)

"A year that is almost completely forgotten, but which produced the most delicious Champagne I have ever drunk. It was a shock of the positive kind when the cork flew off at great speed, and I saw the bubbling drink with its clear, middle-aged color. The nose cannot be described with words, but it was very like the 1945 Mouton Rothschild, with its tremendously rich tone of mint chocolate. There were also layers of fruit and minerals, and the wine was chewy and huge, with a divinely minty, bready, and nectar-like basic taste. The finish was majestic, with a clear tone of truffles and aged wood, alongside the mint chocolate." (99pts RJ)

967 Dom Pérignon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002

2x6 bottle ocb's

"The 2002 Dom Pérignon speaks to opulence and intensity. Rich, layered and voluptuous in the glass, the 2002 shows off its flamboyant personality with flair. Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon."(98pts VM)

"The 2006 Comtes de Champagne is striking, especially in the way it brings together elements of ripeness and freshness in a hypothetical blend of the 2002 and 2004. Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. I suggest buying a case and following it over the next 20-30 years, which is exactly what I intend to do. I have tasted it many times over the years in various trial disgorgements and it has never been anything less than compelling. The final, finished wine captures all of that potential. Bright, focused and wonderfully deep, Comtes is a fabulous example of a vintage that expresses so much energy but with real fruit intensity, the signatures that distinguish it from other vintages (1996 comes to mind) that were similarly taut, but more austere in the early going."(98+ pts VM)

"Bright light-medium yellow. Very sexy, quintessential Chevalier nose of citrus fruits and white peach, crushed rock and ginger, plus an element of smoky oak. A wonderfully glyceric wine with a powerful salty impression of extract and strong supporting acidity. Finishes chewy and very long, but without any excess weight. Juicy lemon cut gives this wine a distinctly crystalline quality. A classic Chevalier-Montrachet in the making. This and the Bâtard are in 100% new oak, while the Pucelles, Clos de la Mouchère and Combettes are around 50%, but Boillot notes that the larger (350-liter) format of his barrels is very important."(93-96pts VM)

1003 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2005

H. Boillot

1x12 bottle ocb

"Here the nose is completely different with pungent and almost aggressively intense green apple aromas infused with an underlying sense of wet stone that is in keeping with the character of the pure, chiseled and fantastically intense full-bodied and muscular flavors that possess serious punch and verve on the equally explosive and very fresh finish. This also has that 'wow' sensation because of the beautiful sense of tension that is like a tightly coiled spring. Terrific."(95pts BH)

1005 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2005

M. Niellon

1x12 bottle ocb

"A very deft touch of wood frames the understated and backward nose of white flower and pear aromas that lead to mineral-infused and stunningly intense and precise medium full flavors that culminate in a hugely long yet focused and explosive finish. As one would expect, this scintillates with minerality and this liquid stone quality defines the character of this wine from start to finish. In a word, harmonious. Note that patience will be required." (94pts BH)

1006 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011

nl

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective." (96pts BH)

1007 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2007

Domaine Leroy

"Here the nose is completely, even radically different with much more deeply pitched red and blue fruit aromas nuanced by notes of the sauvage, underbrush, leather and tea that are in perfect keeping with the powerful, fresh and sleekly muscled flavors blessed with ample underlying mid-palate sap and a serious, indeed almost brooding quality yet the finish explodes on the phenomenally long backend." 1008 Richebourg - Vintage 2009

Domaine Leroy

"The 2009 Richebourg is breathtaking. Layers of dark fruit, spices, mint are some of the notes that flow from the glass. The Richebourg tannins are quite present, but the fruit has a nobility here that is simply unbelievable. This is a deep, penetrating wine that continues to blossom in the glass, showing tons of pedigree and class. The finish is beyond eternal." (98pts)

"A hint of wood spice frames ultra refined, utterly captivating and completely seductive aromas of such purity and intensity that it is hard to believe. A nose of white flowers, limestone and dried herbs overlay astoundingly focused, linear, satiny, intense and detailed flavors underpinned by crystalline minerality and a pungent finish that goes on for minutes." 1015 La Romanée - Vintage 2006

"This is as reserved and cool as the Reignots but more complex, refined and sophisticated still as it just exudes class and breed with a fantastically broad array of spicy and pure black fruit aromas where the reserve and spice components are also reflected by the minerally, serious and delicious medium full-bodied flavors brimming with s ve and extract on the very firm finish supported by buried tannins and huge length that doesn't stop. This isn't quite as concentrated and powerful as the '05 version but it's more than a respectable successor and there is so much sap that it gives the impression of being much more approachable now than it actually is." 1016 La Romanée - Vintage 2017

vlsc
The 2017 La Romanée Grand Cru is characteristically impressive, unfurling in the glass with an extravagant bouquet of cassis, violets, dark chocolate, espresso roast, sweet spices, orange rind and rose hip that has integrated its lavish framing of new wood more completely than any other wine in the cellar. On the palate, it's full-bodied, ample and satiny with a deep, sapid core of concentrated fruit that largely conceals its broad structural shoulders, concluding with a pungently intense but subtly wood-inflected finish. This has the makings of a comparatively precocious vintage of La Romanée that will offer a broad drinking window. (94-96pts)

1018 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2018

Les Petits Monts, Comte Liger-Belair
"The 2018 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Les Petits Monts is another cuvée that showed especially well, soaring from the glass with scents of cassis, plums and spices, complemented by notions of dark chocolate, grilled squab and creamy new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, layered and fine-boned, with excellent tension at the core despite its rather gourmand personality this year, concluding with a long and saline finish." 1023 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2017*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Wafting from the glass with a deep and complex bouquet of dark wild berries, cassis, wilted rose petals, blood orange, exotic spices, licorice and coniferous forest floor, the 2017 Romanée-Conti Grand Cru is full-bodied, satiny textured and multidimensional. It's just as powerful as this year's La Tâche but even more elegantly framed by filigree structure, concluding with an intensely sapid and penetratingly fragrant finish. Pristinely balanced, this young Romanée-Conti possesses huge reserves for the long haul despite its deceptively supple youthful appeal, and it will reward extended bottle age." (98pts)

There is a highly refined mouthfeel to the almost lacy yet concentrated middle weight flavors that possess first-rate complexity on the balanced and wonderfully persistent if youthfully austere finish. This crunchy effort is class in a glass with its emphasis on finesse which is quite different from the evident power and punch of the Corton. Textbook built-to-age RSV." (95pts VM)

CELLAR SELECTIONS

This passionate collector shares seventeen distinctive selection from the 2000s and 2010s, starting with Red Burgundy from Duroché, Fourrier, Hudelot-Noëllat, and Mugneret-Gibourg, alongside luminous White Burgundy from Leflaive, Pillot and Raveneau! A Champagne interlude from Cédric Bouchard paves the way to Italian jewels from Monteverdine Le Pergole Torte and Roagna! Most wines purchased on release and all properly stored.

"Dark red with ruby highlights. Aromas of blueberry, raspberry, leather and game, lifted by a crushed stone element. cuvée de Tres Vieilles Vignes, J. Roty

"More moderate, though hardly invisible, oak influence can be found on the notably ripe aromas of cassis, black cherry, plum and a panoply of spice and earth elements. The detailed, powerful and punchy imposingly-scaled flavors possess first-rate mid-palate density as the sappy dry extract coats the mouth on the very firmly structured finish that flashes both better depth and persistence. Excellent quality though again note well that this is very serious and will need extended aging." (94pts BH)

"This too is exceptionally fresh and pretty with attractively ripe, vivid and elegant red cherry, raspberry and wet stone nuances that are very much in keeping with the lacy, pure and laser-like medium-weight flavors that display fine precision. As it typically is with a classic Ducster, the dominant flavor influence is the intense sense of minerality that culminates in a harmonious, understated yet driving finish that does not seem to stop for several minutes. This is a not a big Ducster but for purity of delivery, it's hard to beat and the balance is impeccable." (93pts BH)

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest 2014 tasting, the 2014 Ruchottes Chambertin Grand Cru from Domaine Mugneret-Gibourg has a powerful, fruit-driven bouquet with layers of cranberry, pomegranate and raspberry preserves. There is a sense of volume here. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, plenty of succulent black fruit laced with tobacco and white pepper, leading to a structured, grippy finish that should see this repay cellaring. It is a serious wine for serious Burgundy lovers, one of the highlights of the vintage that surpasses even my own lofty predictions from barrel. Tasted September 2017." (98pts)

Domaine Leflaive

"I have very few notes on the 1991 white Burgundies, but given how lovely the Leflaive Chevalier is in this vintage, I wish I had cellared a few of my favorites from this vintage just to see how they would turn out. The '91 Leflaive Chevy-Lou offers up a pure and complex nose of fresh pears, almond skin, chalky soil tones, lemon grass, a touch of honeycomb and an exotic topnote of toffee. On the palate the wine is fullish, complex and silky, with respectable mid-palate depth, bright, crisp acids, fine focus and really quite good complexity on the long, elegant finish. I would certainly drink this up over the next few years, but it has really turned out marvelously well for the vintage." (91pts JG)

"The 2015 Montrachet Grand Cru is still predictably youthful, unfurling in the glass with aromas of crisp Anjou pear, buttered citrus, tangerine oil and a prominent framing of very classy new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and concentrated, both satiny and textural without being remotely unctuous, and underpinned by succulent, even tangy acids. At this stage, where the wine really shows its pedigree is in its extraordinarily long, oak-inflected finish. Given the vintage, one might have expected more ripeness and drama, but the domaine is picking its Montrachet a bit earlier these days, and that has done it no harm at all in 2015. It would be interesting to taste this wine alongside Ramonet's example, which is both more textural and less overtly oaky, but my sense is that the two are on the same qualitative level in their very different styles."(96+pts)

1063 Dom Pérignon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996

Oenotheque

6disgorged in 2008, 6x1 bottle ogb's

"The 1996 Dom Pérignon OEnotheque offers up layers of pastry, lemon, smoke and toastiness. At first deceptively understated, the wine turns positively explosive and layered on the palate, showing remarkable tension, elegance and power, all wrapped around a seriously intense frame. The balance between fruit and acidity is awesome. This is a marvelous DP OEeno. The OEeno is the same juice as the regular Dom Perignon, except the OEeno is aged on the cork while the regular DP is aged in crown-sealed bottles. Once disgorged, the OEenos gets a slightly lower dosage than is typical for the original release DP."(97pts)

Although it still requires another 3-4 years of cellaring, it is incredibly endowed, with an extraordinary perfume of Asian spices as well as jammy black raspberries, cherries, and blackberries infused with smoke, toast, and dried herbs. "A brilliantly complex nose of primarily sous bois, spice and earth notes does display a hint of volatile acidity that detracts only mildly from the overall appeal. There is excellent concentration to the delicious, velvety and utterly seductive middle weight flavors that exude a fine bead of minerality on the wonderfully long and well-balanced finish. Unlike many '59s at this point in their evolution this is showing nary a hint of fatigue and if well-stored should continue to drink well for years to come. In a word, terrific." (94pts BH)

"A much more reserved, even brooding nose offers impressive breadth with its scents of dark berries, wet stone, violets, spice hints and earth. The textured, pure and intensely mineral-driven broad-shouldered flavors possess a relatively elegant mouth feel as the supporting tannins are really quite finely grained yet for all the refinement, there is no lack of muscle and power. gorgeously broad range of spice nuances add excellent breadth to the ultra-elegant, cool and pure aromas of black cherry, plum, cassis, sandalwood and a lovely range of floral scents. There is good richness to the relatively generous yet silky medium-bodied flavors that retain lovely delineation on the superbly persistent finale. This is an exceptionally stylish and classy wine that is supported by ultra-fine tannins which contribute significantly to the overall sense of refinement. (93-96pts BH)

Domaine Leflaive

"The 2010 Batard-Montrachet covers every inch of the palate with fruit. In 2010, the Batard is towering, statuesque and simply impeccable. Today the aromas and flavors are not at all developed, rather the wine is really all about textural elegance and finesse, and there is plenty of that here. A huge, explosive finish rounds things out in style. The Batard is a wine of contrasts. At times it is quite bold and extroverted, at others it possesses admirable restraint. Either way, it is magnificent. Anticipated maturity: 2020+." (97pts)

1077 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2010*Domaine Leflaive*

"An airy, cool and ultra-refined nose displays distinct lemon-lime and acacia blossom scents include background notes of stone and saline that complement to perfection the intensely mineral-driven middle weight flavors that possess superb precision on the explosive and palate staining finish that seems to just go on and on. This is quite dry; in fact it's arguably the driest wine in the range yet this is not forbiddingly austere. I very much like the contrast between the sense of focused power and the mouth feel which is almost delicate. This is sheer class and the balance is flawless."(97pts BH)

1078 Puligny Montrachet - Vintage 2012*Les Pucelles, Domaine Leflaive*

"Tasted blind at the Burgundy 2012 tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Pucelles from Anne-Claude Leflaive has an outstanding bouquet: very well defined, surfeit of mineralité with flinty, smoky notes developing after. There is real intensity and focus here. The palate is clean and fresh, almost clinical, with hints of lime cordial and citrus fruit, a dash of spice on the finish that is long and penetrating. This has a long future ahead - the best showing of Leflaive's 2012s in this blind tasting."(95pts)

On the palate, the wine is silky, medium to full-bodied and stunningly complete, its supremely elegant tannins entirely cloaked in pristinely delicate red fruit. Despite its incredible concentration and persistence, this Romanée-Conti is utterly weightless, and its effortless harmony and unrelenting finish preclude any argument about its benchmark quality."(100pts)

1092 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 2013

Graves

1x12 bottle owc

"The 2013 Haut Brion has perhaps a little more complexity on the nose compared to the 2013 La Mission Haut-Brion at the moment. There is more depth and plenty of attractive fruit: cranberry, wild strawberry, hickory and a scintilla of scorched earth that becomes quite peaty with time. It is well defined and shows impressive focus. The palate is very well balanced with tensile tannin, a keen thread of acidity, lively in the mouth with more weight and presence than La Mission, though perhaps without quite the same precision at the moment. It still cuts away just a little short on the finish, but this is a decent Haut-Brion that may pull ahead of its "sibling" with bottle age." (92pts)

"The 2014 Haut Brion is a blend of 50% Merlot, 11% Cabernet Franc and 39% Cabernet Sauvignon picked between 11 September and 10 October, cropped at 42.9 hectoliters per hectare and raised in 70% new oak. As I observed when I made the comparison in barrel, the Haut Brion exudes more red fruit than La Mission Haut Brion, adorned with wild strawberry, bilberry, tobacco and again, just that hint of menthol in the background. The palate is very fresh and taut on the entry. The acidity is very nicely pitched and there is a touch of marmalade and blood orange that is tangible at the back of the mouth. There is real frisson to this Haut Brion, not quite as seductive and as smooth as its sibling over the road, but very persistent in the mouth. I noticed that over 15 to 20 minutes that the Haut Brion just gained more and more complexity, putting a small distance between itself and La Mission, as if determined to mock my opinion in barrel that La Mission would have the upper hand! Be my guest. Haut Brion has an inch, just an inch ahead of its "rival" sibling." (96pts)

"The 2014 Lafite-Rothschild, tasted with head wine-maker Eric Kohler, has retained that very opulent and outgoing bouquet that dare I say actually reminded me of Mouton-Rothschild. There are layers of blackberry and boysenberry fruit, still that hint of juniper berry, certainly a more extrovert Lafite-Rothschild compared to recent vintages. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannin, very focused and quite linear, again with plenty of black fruit laced with cedar and tobacco. "Tasted blind at the 2012 Southwold tasting, the 2012 Château Margaux has a taut, linear, pencil lead-infused bouquet with pure blackberry and boysenberry scents, an undercurrent of tobacco that surfaces after five minutes in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, crisp acidity, a life-affirming sense of balance with well-integrated new oak towards the finish. I concur with Robert Parker that his has become more structured and masculine in bottle, yet there is pedigree here from start to finish, a sense of effortlessness that is seductive. "The 2014 Château Margaux represents 36% of the year's total production and is a blend of 90% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Merlot, 3% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot. Affording the glass five to ten minutes to open, the aromatics are very similar to those expressed out of barrel, those dark cherries and violets, tightly wound at first but unfurling beautifully and seemingly with each swirl of the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin and it appears to have fomented a little more finesse during its élevage. There is wonderful mineral tension and dash of spiciness on the persistent finish. There remains some tightness here, the implication that this is a Château Margaux determined to give long-term pleasure. Therefore, do not be afraid to give it a decade in the cellar."(95pts)

With full-bodied, meaty, powerful, dry flavors as well as a huge finish, this high class wine should be at its finest between 2012-2040+. During its sojourn in barrel, it reminded me of a hypothetical blend of the 1982 and 1986 Moutons, but since bottling, it appears different, and even more tannic than those two vintages. There is obviously greater fruit intensity here, as if the contrast has been dialed up a couple of notches. It is quite showy on the nose, preening in its infancy with pure black cherries, graphite and hints of cold slate-like scents, later that hint of seaweed I observed when tasted blind a few months earlier. The palate is beautifully balanced with great vim and vigor. This is a Mouton that will not be put down - vivacious, vivid and delineated with wonderful focus and crucially, impressive persistence on the finish. 1137 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2013

2x6 bottle owc's

"The 2013 Mouton-Rothschild has a conservative, straight-laced, tobacco-stained bouquet, nicely defined but lacking genuine depth. The palate is medium-bodied with grainy tannin, balanced with tobacco and red berry fruit, moderate depth with touches of dried herbs lining the finish. I can imagine this becoming approachable within a couple of years and yet the pedigree of the terroir percolates through with aeration. While not a great Mouton-Rothschild by any stretch of the imagination, this is a strong effort in a difficult vintage. "(92pts)

Pauillac

2x6 bottle banded owc's

"The 2014 Mouton-Rothschild was closed at first when I tasted the wine in bottle with winemaker Philippe Dhaluin. But as it transpires, this First Growth is just toying with you. Initially quite understated, it responds to aeration like a young child peeking from around a corner and then running out, waving its hands. It suddenly hits you with gorgeous black cherries, bilberry, cedar and wilted rose petal. The palate is medium-bodied with a silky smooth entry. This is utterly seductive: a wine without a hair out of place. It is not as powerful or as complex as the 2015 Mouton-Rothschild, yet the precision and focus here is beguiling. It will require five to seven years to absorb the 100% new oak, then it will be an utterly delicious and to use a term employed at en primeur, "cerebral" First Growth that is destined to give two or three decades of pleasure. "A dense ruby/purple-tinged color and restrained but intriguing aromas of kirsch, raspberry jam, wood spice, and mulberries are found in this full-bodied Pétrus. An undeniable success in 2011, it is rich, layered and pure with light to moderate tannin, but seems slightly less muscular and tannic compared to its stablemate, Trotanoy." (95pts)

"Bright, dark ruby. Captivating, extremely pure aromas of fresh blackcurrant, mocha, gunflint and violet. Precise and multilayered, with small dark berry flavors given clarity and cut by lively, harmonious acidity. The finish is complex and very long. Lighter than usual but extremely pure and perfumed, this knockout wine has silkier, smoother tannins than any other 2013 Bordeaux. When I visited Pétrus in July 2013, the horrible growing season had Olivier Berrouet fretting like I had never seen before, but he can be proud of what he has achieved in this difficult vintage. Making a great Pétrus in outstanding years like 2009 or 2010 is expected, so in some respects this is Berrouet's best wine yet." (90-93pts VM)

"The 2014 Pétrus was tasted on the same morning as the 2014 Vieux-Château-Certan and though they are built from different blends, their personalities are quite similar. This is a succinct, not powerful, much more refined and discrete bouquet, gradually unfurling and revealing a subtle sea spray/marine element. The palate is again quite discrete at first and unfolds at a glacial pace. It is beautifully balanced with fine tannin, quite linear and structured, gently building towards a finish that has wonderful salinity (continuing that marine theme). Note: I actually returned to taste this several hours later, because it was so closed earlier on and it did finally open, which is atypical for this Pomerol. It is a wonderful Pétrus, but one that will deserve bottle age and decanting." (93pts)

1162 La Tâche - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1x6 bottle banded owc

"As it was from cask this is more restrained than usual and it requires aggressive swirling to coax the pure and spicy essence of red berry fruit aromas to emerge from the glass where there is a slight hint of herbal tea present. There is a similar reserve to the distinctly focused and linear flavors that enjoy a seemingly unlimited reserve of dry extract that renders the fine-grained and silky tannins almost invisible at present though I suspect that they will become much more apparent once the baby fat melts away." "Though it may not be quite as elegant as the Romanée St. Vivant it is arguably even more aromatically complex with a wonderfully fresh if restrained nose of hoisin, black fruit, soy and anise. There is remarkable concentration of dry extract that completely buffers the otherwise tightly wound tannic spine while pushing it to the background as the broad-shouldered flavors culminate in a balanced, long and velvety mineral-inflected finish that delivers astonishing persistence." 1164 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective."(96pts BH)

The extraordinarily elegant and airy nose is positively kaleidoscopic in its sheer breadth of spice elements that combine with the stunningly pure red and black raspberry fruit aromas that are liberally laced with rose petal nuances. The lacy, intense and beautifully precise middle weight flavors are harmonious and impeccably well-balanced on the fabulously long and silky finish where a touch of youthful asperity is present. "The 2014s, where the production of Napanook was only 2,200 cases and Dominus slightly more than the 2015 at 4,000 cases, was another early harvest, although somewhat later than 2015. The 2014 Dominus, which is 86% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Cabernet Franc and 7% Petit Verdot really struts its stuff. Moueix's belief in dry farming seems to be paying off with stronger and stronger vintages, each successive year, and the 2014 is a sexy, opulent, layered, multidimensional wine with notes of red and blackcurrant, cedar wood, tobacco leaf, spice box and licorice. The color is a dense plum/ruby/purple, much like the Napanook. This is a beauty that is already drinking gorgeously as most 2014s are and will continue to evolve for 25 or so years."(97pts)

"Wow it emits the most gorgeous perfume of rose hip tea, violets, sandalwood and fragrant earth over a cassis and blackberry pie core with touches of mocha, cigar box, menthol and garrigue plus a waft of star anise. The powerful, full-bodied palate delivers a wall of exotic spice-accented black fruit preserves with a rock-solid frame of grainy tannins and wonderful freshness, finishing very long and layered."(99pts)

CULT CALI & BEYOND FROM AN INDUSTRY PIONEER

This eighty-plus-lot collection hails from a beloved industry insider and generous mentor whose palate and passion were well ahead of their time. He championed “cult” California before the term existed, securing spots on every must-have mailing list of the late 1980s and early 1990s—Sine Qua Non, Colgin, Araujo, Bryant, Sean Thackrey, Dunn, and Harlan Estate (a name he once considered for his son, had fate not blessed him with a daughter).

For over two decades, he helmed one of the Midwest’s greatest wine shops, shaping tastes and guiding countless collectors, until his untimely passing earlier this year. The heart of this offering is the ABCs of old-school and cult California: Chappellet, Colgin, Dominus, Harlan, Opus One, Screaming Eagle, and an extraordinary thirty-lot run of Sine Qua Non, including multiple 100-point bottlings. Burgundy also stands tall with Comte de Vogüé Musigny Vieilles Vignes from 2006, 2011, and 2021, alongside 2012 Dujac Clos de la Roche. Rhône treasures from Beaucastel and Chave, Italian riches from Sandrone, and Spanish rarities from Álvaro Palacios and Clos Erasmus complete this remarkable cellar. Every bottle was purchased on release and maintained in pristine, temperature-controlled storage—a lasting tribute to a life devoted to wine at its very best!

1221 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2008

A. Rousseau

1227 Musigny - Vintage 2006*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue*

"This is also extremely floral with a reserved nose that is an airy, spicy and ripe mélange of red and blue pinot fruit that displays really lovely violet and rose petal notes that are picked up by the minerally, intense and harmonious flavors that are beautifully proportioned and are blessed with ample amounts of dry extract on the essence of pinot and explosive, energetic and hugely long yet incredible precise finish that is also built on a base of firm minerality. This is almost exotic in character yet everything is in beautiful concordance. In a word, great."(96pts BH)

1228 Musigny - Vintage 2008*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue11stl*

"This is also quite reserved at present with an elegant, airy, cool and pure nose that is kaleidoscopically complex as it offers red currant, plum, black cherry and a panoply of floral and spice notes, in particular violet and anise, before marrying seamlessly into mineral-driven and alluring big-bodied flavors that explode on the powerful and almost painfully intense finish that delivers genuinely stunning length."(96pts BH)

1229 Musigny - Vintage 2009*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue2tsl, 1x12 bottle ocb*

"The 2009 Musigny Vieilles Vignes fleshes out beautifully with endless layers of fruit that caress the palate in stunning style. Sweet floral notes meld into expressive dark red fruit in this mysterious, evocative Burgundy. There is a weightless intensity to the Musigny that is achingly gorgeous. Waves of flavor continue to build towards the sexy, racy finish as the 2009 shows off its pedigree."(97pts)

12 bottles per lot $7500-10000

1230 Musigny - Vintage 2010*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x12 bottle ocb*

"A highly spiced and intensely floral nose evidences hints of violet, lilac, wild rose and lavender along with notes of both red and black pinot fruit, kirsch, earth and stone hints that continue onto the pure and silky broad-shouldered flavors that also possess a powerful yet almost delicate mouth feel. This is a very interesting wine as the dense tannins are so fine-grained that the palate impression is like the finest satin. The driving minerality adds another element and there is a palpable sense of energy to the balanced, focused and beautifully well-delineated finish that explodes with mouth coating dry extract. This is unapologetically built to age and indeed it will require plenty of it. Succinctly put, this is breathtakingly good."(97pts BH)

1232 Musigny - Vintage 2011*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x12 bottle ocb*

"A remarkably attractively cool and restrained nose of various red berries, spice and a beautiful array of floral elements complements well the rich and equally cool mineral-tinged big-bodied and overtly muscular flavors. There is a really lovely sense of underlying tension on the clean and pure finish that delivers strikingly good length. This intensely mineral-driven effort is also clean and firm but with slightly better phenolic maturity to the supporting structural elements which should allow this beauty to age successfully for many years to come."(94pts BH)

"A restrained and cool and yet perfumed and ultra-spicy array offers up aromas of dark cherry, raspberry and a wide range of floral elements. The concentrated, tautly muscular and tension-filled flavors possess excellent depth of material as well as an abundance of minerality while exhibiting superb persistence on the firm, dusty, youthfully austere and built-to-age finish where a hint of bitter cherry pit appears."(96pts BH)

On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and still very young (this too was late finishing up its malo and shows still a touch of gas on the backend), with a very soil-driven personality, ripe tannins and excellent length and grip on the youthful and very promising finish." 1264 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 1991
"...a profoundly great wine. It came across in a blind tasting as one of the most remarkable wines there, with most tasters mistaking it for a first-growth M doc. The wine revealed an opaque purple color, a fabulously complex, sweet nose of minerals, fruitcake, cedar, toasty new oak, and pure blackcurrant fruit huge in the mouth remarkably well-balanced high tannin level well-concealed by copious quantities of sweet ripe fruit, as well as huge amounts of glycerin and extract."(98pts)

1268 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2003
"One of the most backward yet promising wines of the vintage is the 2003 Harlan Estate. Its dense opaque plum/purple color is accompanied by a sumptuous bouquet of graphite, camphor, creme de cassis, smoky barbecue wood and a hint of forest floor. Similar flavors hit the mouth with full-bodied splendor, a multidimensional mouthfeel and texture, and the sensational finish lasts more than 45 seconds. Some tannins are still present, and this wine seems much younger than expected at ten years of age, so give it 4-5 more years of bottle age and consume it over the following 20-25 years."(98+pts)

1285 Sine Qua Non Grenache - Vintage 2014
Shakti
"The 2014 Grenache Shakti is blended of 88% Grenache, 6% Mourvèdre, 4% Petite Sirah and 2% Touriga Nacional, coming 51% from the Cumulus (Estate) Vineyard, 18% from The Third Twin (Estate) Vineyard, 9.5% from Bien Nacido Vineyard and 21.5% for the Eleven Confessions (Estate) Vineyard. It was produced using 42% whole cluster and aged for around 21 months in French oak, 6% new (bottled June 21, 2017). It offers up a deep garnet-purple color and notes of dried Mediterranean herbs, dusty earth, Chinese five spice and rose petals over a core of red currants, mulberries, red plums and black raspberries, plus a waft of chocolate covered cherries. Full-bodied, decadently concentrated and yet very, very pretty in the mouth, it delivers incredibly fine-grained, ripe tannins and wonderful freshness, finishing on a persistent totally disarming perfumed red fruit note. 1,199 cases of 750 milliliter bottles and 600 magnums were made."(100pts)

Awesomely long, I still tasted this wine 60 seconds after I had spit it out no easy task, even for a professional. 1299 Sine Qua Non White - Vintage 2016*Deux Grenouilles*

"The 2016 Deux Grenouilles White bursts with expressive aromas of apricot preserve, yellow plums, dried flowers, orange rind and Acacia honey. It's a deftly judged blend of 36% Roussanne, 29% Chardonnay, 23% Viognier, 9% Petite Manseng and 3% Muscat, and the exotic aromatic contributions of the Viognier and Muscat don't drown out the subtle expressions of the other varieties. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, fat and lavish, with considerable satiny texture, juicy acids and a sapid, even savory finish that I suspect reflects the Petite Manseng component. It's a rich and dramatic white that should drink well on release and could well be very interesting with time in the bottle. The Deux Grenouilles was produced entirely from estate fruit with the exception of Chardonnay from Bien Nacido Vineyard, and it was vinified in 26% concrete eggs, 26% used barrels and 48% new oak." 1306 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 2010

Graves

1x6 bottle owc

"This full-bodied, colossal giant of a wine is one of the goliaths of the vintage. It may well have the highest level of natural alcohol for any wine from the Left Bank of Bordeaux (15.1%) and has the definite potential to be a 50- to 75-year wine. Dense purple, it offers up notes of lead pencil shavings, charcoal embers, blueberry and blackberry liqueur along with massive concentration, a multi-dimensional mouthfeel and a monumental finish that goes well past a minute, which I think might be a record for a young Bordeaux." "...displays the nobility and complexity of this great terroir. Burning embers, scorched earth, blueberry, black currant, licorice and spice aromas jump from the glass of this dense ruby/purple-colored wine. With full body (atypical for a 2011), but no hard edges, this opulent, multidimensional, fleshy, rich, stunningly long, well-balanced La Mission is another great achievement in what has been nearly a century of producing remarkable wines from this hallowed vineyard." "Massive notes of blueberry and blackberry jam yet there is a certain austerity to the nose followed by flavors that are huge, firm, reserved and extremely dense and while there is a solid underpinning of tannin, they are wrapped in sappy velvet. The length is just flat out stunning and very powerful." (93pts BH)

1311 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2015*Comte de Vogue1x3 magnum owc*

"An extract of black cherry nose is interwoven with notes of earth, violet, spice and plum liqueur scents. The very dense and serious yet vibrant and relatively refined big-bodied flavors brim with dry extract that serves to mostly buffer the powerful and very firm tannic spine on the once again naturally sweet, sappy and massively long finish." 1312 Musigny - Vintage 2012*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x6 bottle owc*

"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from de Vogüé has slightly brighter and more vivacious fruit than J-F Mugnier, and in fact, the two wines seem to go in two different trajectories in the glass, this blossoming and the other becoming more occluded. De Vogüé's Musigny is unashamedly floral in style, very elegant and yet delineated. There is a noticeable estuary scents, mudflats and seaweed, that begin to permeate the fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, wonderful acidity and succinctly integrated new oak that is barely tangible. It is intense but elegant, long and tender in the mouth. It is a fabulous Musigny, one of the best that the domaine has produced in recent years." (98pts)

1313 Musigny - Vintage 2013*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x3 magnum owc*

"...red raspberry, black cherry, violet, rose petal, Asian-style spices, in particular cinnamon and anise plus a hint of orange pekoe tea. There is superb concentration to the intensely stony and well-delineated broad-shouldered flavors that also brim with palate soaking dry extract that helps to buffer that imposingly powerful, tautly muscular and massively long finish. This is breathtaking in just how much power and intensity it packs yet there isn't a hair out of place. In a word, 'wow!'" (95-98pts BH)

PARCEL LOTS 1314-13151314 Musigny - Vintage 2015Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x3 magnum owc*

"A kaleidoscopically spicy and broad-ranging nose grudgingly reveals notes of red cherry, cassis, plum, violet, Asian-style tea, sandalwood and hoisin. The velvety and mouth coating imposingly-scaled and intense mineral-driven flavors are blessed with seemingly endless reserves of dry extract that coat the palate on the highly seductive finish that delivers fantastically good length on the youthfully austere, backward and immaculately well-balanced finale. This opulent yet very serious effort is also going to require a very long snooze in a very cool cellar but it should be a remarkable Musigny when it finally emerges." (97pts BH)

"...is shaping up to be a jewel of a wine. Sweet red cherries, rose petals, smoke, licorice and savory herbs open up in the glass, but it is the wine's statuesque, towering personality that stands out most. PARCEL LOTS 1324-13271324 Sassicaia - Vintage 2015Tenuta San Guido1x6 bottle owc*

"Having followed this wine's evolution in barrel for the past few years, it is an honor to evaluate the final product. This Sassicaia has blossomed since my previous encounters with it as a young, awkward adolescent. The long-awaited 2015 Bolgheri Sassicaia represents a tremendous effort that comes together with seamless precision and focus. This is a confident and proud red wine from Tuscany. Starting with the primary material at hand, you sense the quality of fruit thanks to the wine's beautifully dark appearance and the rich texture it offers to the palate. The acidity is integrated, but more freshness still would have been welcomed in my view (and would also contribute to its longevity). The bouquet is amplified both in terms of volume and length. Its playlist includes dark berry fruit, spice, leather, licorice and roasted coffee bean. Yet, the mouthfeel is extremely graceful and silky. The wine's undisputed pedigree is showcased on the palate. It should also be noted that this edition of Sassicaia feels more ready and open to me. It will age and evolve beautifully, but the 2015 Sassicaia can also be enjoyed in the medium-term. This wine is all about the here and now."(97pts)

"The 2017 Sassicaia shows the natural richness and intensity of the year while retaining its mid-weight sense of balance and overall poise. A burst of super-ripe red cherry/plum fruit makes a strong opening statement. Mocha, cinnamon, leather and dried herbs appear later, adding aromatic lift. The 2017 is a fairly immediate Sassicaia. Even so, it has enough energy to drink well for a number of years. Production is down 35%, a combination of naturally low yields, dehydration on the vine and then selection in the cellar. Most of the fruit comes from the estate's hillside vineyards, older parcels that resisted the conditions better."(94pts VM)

Sweet Christmas fruitcake characteristics emerge from this magnificent Dominus that finished at 14.5% natural alcohol (slightly higher than usual). Pauillac

4bn, 1ts, 1x12 bottle owc

"Clearly the youngest looking, most opaque and concentrated wine of the group, it tastes as if it has not budged in development since I first tasted it out of barrel in March, 1987. An enormously concentrated, massive Mouton-Rothschild, comparable in quality, but not style, to the 1982, 1959, and 1945, this impeccably made wine is still in its infancy I suspect the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild requires a minimum of 15-20 more years of cellaring; it has the potential to last for 50-100 years!..." 1340 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1988

La Landonne, E. Guigal

2bsl

"Made from 100% Syrah from the Côte Brune, La Landonne's color is nearly black. A true blockbuster, it is a massive, almost impenetrable wine, which, with cellaring, is marked by aromas of smoked game, spicy nuts, saddle leather, and a roasted black fruit character. It is a wine with extraordinary power and forcefulness, as well as more acidity and tannin than Guigal's La Mouline. La Landonne requires 10-15 years of patience. Most observers who have had a chance to see all the vintages of La Landonne since its debut in 1978, agree that it is a wine with 30-40 years of longevity." (100pts)

"It seems to me that his 1983 has the potential to be super, but it still remains charmless and austere. Deep dark ruby in color with some amber at the edge, it has a profound concentration of ripe, smoky, berry fruit and Asian spices, full body, exceptional depth and length, as well as a formidable tannin level." 1342 Solaia - Vintage 2001

Antinori

2x6 bottle ocb's

"The 2001 Solaia is similar to the 1999, but with an added level of finesse that takes the place of some of the brute power found in the 1999. The 2001 drinks well better young than the 1999, but it is also likely to mature earlier." (96pts VM)

12 bottles per lot $2000-2800

1343 Sassicaia - Vintage 2006

Tenuta San Guido

2x6 bottle owc's

"Bright red-ruby. Complex nose melds red cherry, blackcurrant, minerals, dried herbs and a delicate oaky vanillin nuance; the fruit aromas show an almost roasted quality without going over the top. Sweet, concentrated and nicely fresh, with an impression of strong extract and a hint of exotic fruits to the flavors of ripe red and dark berries, chocolate, plum and wild herbs. The candied fruit quality carries through on the long, smooth finish, where there's a trace of heat and hints of menthol and minerals. A very successful Sassicaia but, in my notebook, just a little below the lofty heights of the 2001 or 2004. But given the quality of this wine, that's quibbling." (95pts VM)

"The 2007 Sassicaia (Cabernet Sauvignon) explodes onto the palate with masses of rich, opulent fruit that caress the palate with gorgeous length and a seamless beauty that is hard to fully capture. Dark wild cherries, plums, spices, minerals and herbs develop in the glass. This is an especially bold, perhaps slightly uncharacteristic Sassicaia in its extroverted personality, but it is beautiful all the same. The inner perfume and sweetness carries through the long finish, where the sheer weight and glycerol of the fruit leaves a lasting impression. The 2007 is more than a worthy follow-up to the profound 2006. While it may lack that wine's freshness, structure and potential longevity, the 2007 is immensely appealing today, and should drink beautifully pretty much out of the gate. That said, Sassicaia is always the most restrained of Bolgheri's heavy hitters. This is a superb effort from Tenuta San Guido. "(95pts VM)

However, they have a brilliant track record as evidenced by the decade old 2001 Cabernet Sauvignon Vintage Selection. Abundant chocolaty, black currant, licorice and coffee aromas soar from the glass of this perfumed wine. It exhibits an opaque ruby/purple color, wonderful opulence, a deep, full-bodied mouthfeel, fabulous depth and not a hard edge to be found. Penfolds Grange

SOUTH AUSTRALIA
SHIRAZ

VINTAGE 1998

BOTTLED 1999

Grange is recognised as Australia's and indeed one of the world's finest red wines. This great wine, developed by Max Schubert commencing with the 1951 vintage, is made from low yielding Shiraz vines grown at selected vineyards in South Australia and matured in new American oak bogsheads prior to bottling.

During an extensive tour of Europe in 1950, Max Schubert studied winemaking practices that have now become an integral part of Penfolds' winemaking technique. He also observed the practice of maturing wine in new oak barrels, a method previously untried in Australia. The development of Grange represented the beginning of a new era in Australia's red winemaking tradition. This knowledge, combined with Max Schubert's foresight, skill and dedication, has resulted in Grange, the definitive Australian dry red wine, acknowledged to be among the world's classic wine styles.
